FRANK P. HAWK DIES IN ACTION

Harrisburg Boy Who Has Two Brothers in Service, Killed July 30

FRANK P. HAWK

Frank P. Hawk, 405 Woodbine street, has been killed in action in France according to a telegram from the War Department received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Hawk, late yesterday afternoon.

Hawk was one of three brothers in the service of the government. Another brother is in France and a brother is now in training at Montgomery, Alabama.

Hawk enlisted June 21, 1917, in Company I, of the old Eighth Regiment. He went into training on the island. With the old Eighth he was sent to Camp Hancock and while there was transferred to Company K, of the 110th. He went overseas in May of this year.

The last letter from him was dated July 15 and was received by his parents last week. In it he said he was well and happy.

He was a member of the Camp Curtis Methodist Episcopal Church, of Camp 8, of the P. O. S. of A. He is survived by his parents, one sister, Mrs. Bessie Henry, and three brothers, David, at home, and Clarence and Charles, in the United States Army service.

FRENCH GO FORWARD IN PICARDY DRIVE

On the French Front in France, Aug. 14.—The Germans are continuing to bat the French in the Lassigny area generally with machine guns, which are used as snipers.

The French, however, are advancing through the valleys by infiltration. The German tactics indicate the main enemy forces retiring upon a defensive line not far distant.

Allied progress eastward in Picardy, with the Germans fighting desperately for every vantage point, continues to be slow.

In the hill and wood region between the Matz and the Lys, the French have made appreciable gains and are reported, unofficially, to be holding the important massif of Lassigny against the German advance.

With the massif in possession of the French, the Germans probably would be forced to evacuate Lassigny and Noyon, and possibly the entire line southward from Chaules.

Field Marshal Haig reports that since last Thursday the allies have captured 25,000 prisoners and 400 machine guns and much war material also were taken.

Aerial Warfare Intense German activity continues intense. German airmen are engaging the allied fliers in combat to prevent reconnaissance and bombing work.

Berlin reports that all allied efforts Monday were repulsed, especially attacks on the Matz and the Oise.

British Gain Ground in the Lys Salient; Establish New Line By Associated Press London, Aug. 14.—British troops have gained additional ground at the apex of the Lys salient in Flanders, says the official statement from Field Marshal Haig to-day.

There was no infantry fighting during the night on the British sector of the Picardy battle front. The German artillery was active.

Along the Vesle, where French and American troops are stationed, the Germans made vain raids. The French took prisoners in a raid in Champagne.

GERMANS HOLD PLEMONT PLATEAU

French Advance 800 Yards The French left, advancing on Lassigny, met with vigorous resistance north of St. Claude farm and north of Mareuil-Lamotte. However, they succeeded in fighting their way through the woods and moved their line 800 yards northeast of Gury.

German Command Plateau The enemy still holds the greater part of Thiescourt wood and the formidable plateau of Pleumont. The French now have advanced their line to within less than a mile and a half of Lassigny.

GENERAL BECOMES PRIVATE IN ARMY

General McCandless, was born in Tennessee, but moved to Texas with his parents in his childhood. He served an enlistment in the regular army, and after getting an honorable discharge drifted into Mexico in search of adventure.

McCandless was boss of the work, and he was in the thick of every fight and was twice wounded, but he managed to beat off the invaders every time, and the mine did not shut down.

After the Washington administration recognized the Carranza government, General Obregon came along one day with a force of men and asked permission to cross the mine property.

WHY HE ENLISTED

"Why don't you stay here and try for a commission?" he was asked.

"I probably couldn't get it," he replied. "You see, a man has to have a pretty fair education to be an officer in the American Army now, and that is one thing that I haven't got."

"But why did you resign as brigadier general in Mexico to come back here as an enlisted man?" asked a listener.

"Hell!" he replied. "The country was at war and needed all of its citizens, especially those who had had military experience. Why not?"

Private McCandless has been detailed to special duty in the office of the chief of staff, for the present, but he will probably be on his way to the front before long.
