WILLIAMSPORT WELCOMES COCKILL AND STEELTON CLUB; KILLIFER IS CUBS' MAGICIAN

HOME FOLKS TO GREET COCKILL

Steelton Manager Will Get a Warm Welcome at Williamsport

"Like the Pittsburgh club, with Hans Wagner coming in Tri-State days, is the Steelton club, with George-Cockill, "Eddie" Plank, George Pierce and other famous men, and the fans throughout this section are getting ready to just go crazy. A fan in the street to-day, said: 'So far as I am concerned for to-morrow afternoon, our factory might as well declare a holiday, for I would work nights to ay, for I would work nights to it up rather than miss seeing

SUCCESS OF THE CUBS IS DUE IN GREAT MEASURE TO KILLIFER

Speaking of the Chicago Cubs and their chances for the pennant, I. E. Sanborn, a veteran baseball critic, sives the bulk of the credit to William Killifer, the catcher secured from the Phillies last winter in the historic Killifer-Alexander deal. He points out that backstops are, as a rule, the victim of injustice and that "about the only way Killifer can break into print, is to win a game by a great catch a mighty wallop, or formake a huge blunder and lose the battle." Yet, he insists, Killifer has "made" the Cubs. Tyler, Hollocher and Paskert have helped a lot, but none of them as much as the all-American backstop.

It may sound foolish to the fants to win a synthing staff more than Alexander. The support given a pitcher by his active is greatly underrated by the energial run of baseball followers. In proof thereof look back and see if the thank hot been drafted, but baseball men will understand.

Alexander could have gitched only once in four days, or occasionally in three days. Killifer is in there every game, making better pitchers than the revery game, making better pitchers than the revery game. The real reason why McGraw has potentially supported to the points of th pitching staff more than Alexander could have done if he had not been great catchers. both mentally could have done if he had not been great catchers. So the mentally could have done if he had not been great catchers. When it is a national reputation. Like 'Christy' Mathewson, he started his athletic career at Buck, nell University. ### Jerusalem! Yanks Play Ball in Palestine

Washington, Aug. 14.—Americans serving with the British Army in Palestine are to introduce baseball in that country, and present plans call for a number of games in Jerusalem between rival nines among units of these troops. Complete outfits for four teams were shipped from Washington yesterday by the Clark Griffith ball and bat fund, at the request of the Zionist organization of America. The outfits will be delivered to the Jewish Legion for Service in Palestine, composed of Jews from this country serving with the British Army who are below or above the draft age, or are politically disqualified for service with the American forces. Seven More Carloads of Ice Arrive Here Today

Seven additional carloads of ice arrived in the city this morning. Seven serviceds arrived yesterday, and the needs of the city have now been supplied for the last twenty-four hours, it was learned from Manager DeWalt, of the United Ice and Coal Company, this morning.

Mr. DeWalt added that unless the temperature rises to the vicinity of the 100-degree mark, the acute hortage of ice experienced here during the last few days will not be repeated.

The ten-cent limit on ice was not imposed to-day, and householders are securing plenty for their needs.

Ways and Means Committee Plans Also to Tax Women's Hats and Shoes

Washington, Aug. 14.—An occupational tax of $10 a year on every business, occupation and profession earning $2,000 or more a year was adopted by the ways and means committee to-day as a new section of the revenue bill. On wholesale concerns doing a business of $200,000 or more a year the tax will be $25.

The only exemptions from payment of the occupational tax are employes, farmers, clergymen and school teachers. The tax will include lawyers, dentists, authors, engineers and ar-

Peter P. Carner, dynamo of trapshooting narrative, tells an old incident of the Maplewood shoot. "Usually," says he "when a trapshooter has a new-fangled idea or a sight that he wants to try out, he gives the home club boys the benefit of the test; but it remained for George Brown, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., a seasoned shooter, to try a paper telescope sight in the Maplewood chamson and statement the committee of the scope sight in the Maplewood chamson pleted his statement the committee of the committee absoned shooter. somedy company of twenty-five persons, c h i e fly pretty girls with extravagant complete their run in "The Bet." at the Majestic Theater to-night, and to-morrow the company will set out on a three-day engagement in another musical comedy entitled "Broadway Jimmie." In the latter piece Hodges assumes the role of a blase New Yorker, who knows his Broadway backwards, in the wilds of Egypt, where he meets up with Oriental girls and other things, and with enough complications resulting to keep laughter going at high tide through the entire hour and a quarter that the playlet runs. The lavish costuming of the Hodge girls is making Majestic audiences sit up and take notice. For the latter half of the week an entire new set of wardrobe will be used.

Norma Talmadge, one of the screen's most beautiful actresses, will be the attraction at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow in "The social Secretary" a play of mystery and romance. Miss Talmadge, who is appealing at all times, is a wonderful actress, and her acting is so sincere that her sorrows and joys are the audience's sorrows and joys. The success of "The Social Secretary" lies in its portrayals of characters that are true to life, and it's the type of picture that makes one feel better for having seen it. Alice Joyce will be seen Friday only in "To the Highest Bidder," a story of the strange romance of a struggling girl, who spurned gold and lived only for love, and how she reaches a victorious end. General Men's Furnishers

Taylor Holmes, the talented screen artist, was never funnier in any play than his latest success, "A Pair "A Pair of Sixes" of Sixes," taken from the stage success of the same name. The laugh begins right at the very first reel and continues all the way through. The trouble starts because the owners of the Digestive Pill Manufacturing Company couldn't agree, and to settle their great disputes played poker. To-day, also, the Victoria presents the eighteenth part of that greatest of all screen detective stories, "The Eagle's Eye," based on the expose of the German Spy System." King Baggot and Marguerite Snow are featured.

Variety is the keynote of the bill at the Paxtang Park Theater this week. From Onetta, the dervish whirling or teach while of the teeth while executing the Eddys, in the Eddys in the Eddys in the Eddys in the Eddys in the bill have anything in common, except the ability to please. Luba Meroff and her company fill the headline position on the bill in a most acceptable manner. The act, billed as vaudeville's daintiest offering, is one of those catchy European novelties made up of a little of everything, and passented in an artistic manner.
