Prohibition Chairman Outlines His Plans

State Prohibition Chairman Prugh today issued a statement, saying among other things:
"The pronounced policy of the Prohibition party here to get back of candidates standing for Prohibition in Pennsylvania, regardless of party, Dr. R. E. P. Prugh, state chairman, on the first day of July sent out a questionnaire to all Democrat and Republican state-wide candidates asking their attitude on the ratification of the prohibition amendment and also upon the enactment of state-wide war-time prohibition."
"Only about half of the candidates to date have responded. Both candidates for governor replied, Mr. Bonnell simply reiterated his platform, sixty per cent of which is employed to attack the prohibition amendment. Mr. Sprull reiterated the utterances of his Swarthmore speech (platform) but added, personally I should like to see the state committee come out squarely upon the question," after having just previously stated that whether or not the state republican committee adopts a platform in accord with my own views I shall adhere strictly in my campaign and in my official actions to my own declaration of principles."

Dr. E. J. Fitchin, Prohibition candidate for governor expects to open his campaign within a few days. He has built a large touring car, equipped for travel, eating and sleeping. He has engaged a cornetist to accompany him. Starting from his home in Grove City, he will take in counties in the northern part of the state and arrive at Williamsport for the Lycoming county annual big picnic, which will be held on the 22nd of August. The state chairman will join him there, and next day they will swing down through Lycoming, Northumberland and Montour counties, touching at Danville, Danville and Sunbury. Next day they will turn west, landing in the evening at Bellefonte. The following week will take in Blair, Clearfield, Jefferson, Clarion, Venango and Crawford counties, winding up Saturday at a big prohibition picnic on the Meadville-Mercer pike, and Sunday, September 8 being spent in the candidate's home town.

The executive committee has declined to endorse either of the candidates of the elder parties for governor.

FARMER KILLED IN RUNAWAY

Five-Horse Team and Heavy Load of Corn in Exciting Smashup Near Dillsburg

Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 15.—A fatal accident occurred on the East Berlin road about four miles south of Dillsburg when the team belonging to W. F. Gochenour ran away. Mr. Gochenour had been a resident of York but he was the owner of several farms and was temporarily living on the farm in Washington township. He was shelling his last year's corn crop and hauling it to Dillsburg where he had sold the grain to Williams Brothers. He was here with a load on Tuesday evening and was on his way here with a large load of corn and a five-horse team when the accident occurred. He had started to descend the Big Dam Hill, the steepest hill on the road, when the brakes failed to work and the wagon pushed the horses. They started to run and Mr. Gochenour fell from the wagon and was severely injured, having a leg broken and suffering from internal injuries. He remained unconscious until his death.

The horses continued to run a short distance until the wagon was overturned with its load of corn. The saddle horse was pinned fast beneath the tongue, but the others broke loose from the wagon but all were soon captured.
The body was taken to York where funeral arrangements will be made. Mr. Gochenour is survived by his wife and four children who lived with him and assisted him on the farm.
