

MUST PAY $100 TO DEPENDANTS

Chairman Mackey Makes an Interesting Ruling on Compensation Question

The State Compensation Board has ruled that a defendant in a compensation claim is not entitled to deduct from the $100 payable for 'reasonable expenses of last sickness and burial' amounts paid for treatment.

The Board holds that the act expressly provides that the payment of the $100 shall be made without any deductions and directs the insurance carrier to pay that sum.

The Board allows compensation in Rigby vs. Ellsworth Collieries Company; Gettke vs. National Biscuit Company, Pittsburgh, and new hearings in Haines vs. Aetna Explosives Company; Altoon vs. Elroy vs. British Munitions of War in United States, Pittsburgh.

Not Productive—Ross R. McCoy has filed a resignation as justice of peace for the borough of Dormont at the Capitol. He states that he resigns to go into a more productive employment.

Thompson Named—Edward Thompson, librarian of the Brown Library at Williamsport, has been announced by State Librarian Thomas Lynch Montgomery as the state director of the library work for soldiers. Mr. Brown will assume active direction of the gathering of books for the camps.

May Go to Uncle Sam—A series of investigations into the causes of pollution of the Susquehanna river which has killed thousands of fish south of Williamsport in the last few days may lead to representations to the United States government by the Fisheries Department of Pennsylvania. The state authorities want the wastes filtered from some plants making articles for the government.

Foust Hits Back—Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust to-day called upon officers of the legal department of Armour & Co., and also the Chicago Tribune for information regarding statements that privileges were to be granted to sellers of oleomargarine and also gave notice that if the oleo law is violated prosecutions will be instituted against all guilty persons and the Commissioner will ask for assistance of the Attorney General and state police to help run down and prosecute them.

To Pay the Men—Preparations were made to-day for the payment of the men attending the rifle matches at Mount Gretna, the cost to come out of the Reserve Militia funds. Adjutant General Beary will attend the presentations.

Presented Application—The application of the Northumberland County Railway Company for the acquisition of the Northumberland County Traction Company, which reorganized, was presented to the Public Service Commission to-day. There was no objection.

Weaver Named—George W. Weaver, of this city, was appointed a chairman of the State Capitol to-day.

Inquire into Typhoid—Inspectors of the State Department of Health were to-day detailed to make an investigation into the causes of typhoid fever at Downingtown. It is stated here that thirty-five cases have been reported.

To Insure Certificates—The State Public Service Commission to-day made an order for the Conestoga Traction Company, operating in Lancaster county, to issue certificates for all fares charged in excess of the tariff of August 2. The order is similar to one made on the Reading Transit and Light system, whose cases are to be heard at Reading on August 29. Complaint was filed with the commission to-day by a Scranton firm that the new minimum rate of the Scranton Electric Company is excessive in view of the efforts being made to conserve power as asked by the fuel administration.

Stucker Released—State Highway Commissioner O'Neil to-day released the Stucker Brothers Construction Company, Harrisburg, from their bid for construction of the Oberlin road in Dauphin county, submitted in March 'due to the time limit having expired within which awards must be made under the specifications.' The bid was $23,573.50 and bids were asked four times for the quarter-mile stretch. The bid of W. C. Evans, of Ambler, for $28,851 for construction of 2,350 feet of road in Shippen township, Montgomery county, was rejected, local authorities having failed to finance their end of the project.

Justices Here—Chief Justice J. Hay Brown and Justice John Stewart were at the Capitol to-day in consultation. No announcement was made.

Col. Kemper Here—Col. James B. Kemper, former lieutenant colonel of the old Eighth Pennsylvania and lately stationed at Camp Lee, was here late last night on his way to Massachusetts where he will take command of the 73d Infantry. He called on Adjutant General Beary.

Cumberland Paid—Cumberland county was to-day paid its share of the cash road tax bonus by the State Treasury.

the War Department relative to taking of votes of soldiers in France in November. The concluding paragraph says: "Where the state laws require the sending of election commissioners to take the soldiers' votes, the military authorities will place at the disposal of such commissioners every assistance that is found to be compatible with the exigencies of the military situation. In most instances, however, it will be impracticable to permit commissioners to take the votes."

This is taken to mean here that there will be small chance for soldiers to vote except through the mail and as the Pennsylvania law requires secrecy of the ballot, this makes a new question to meet. All mail must be censored.

DON'T GET TOO GAY WITH SOLDIERS, GIRLS ARE TOLD

Washington, Aug. 15.—Warning to young girls to be watchful of the acquaintanceships they make with soldiers was issued yesterday by the War and Navy Departments' commissions on training camp activities. The commissions say the warning is not intended to reflect on the character of the men in the service, who as a whole are clean and upstanding.

Nevertheless, the statement says, no young woman should approach or converse familiarly with a man in uniform unless introduced by a mutual friend, or unless he has been properly vouched for by the community organization.
