SATURDAY EVENING.

Union Meetings

The four churches of the West End, Sixth Street United Brethren, St. Matthew's Lutheran, Camp Currin. Memorial Methodist and St. John's Reformed, have been conducting union services in regular rotation and will hold the seventh to morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Camp Currin Memorial Methodist.

East Street—The Rev. E. E. Sayder, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran, will be the preacher for the evening.

These meetings have been quite attafactory and pleasing to the conservations involved. And have been quite well attended considering the very hot weather of the season.

All members and friends of the community not elsewhere obligated, have been most cordially welcomed to these community not elsewhere obligated. The community not elsewhere obligated thave been most cordially welcomed to these community soft elsewhere obligated. The properties of the season.

There are more Christian Endeavor societies in Methodist churches than there are in any other denomination. In Great Britain the United Methodist Free Church has societies in almost every parish, and in Spain, Canada, Australia and other countries Christian Endeavor is the recognized young people's society of the church.

Do You Know That

About 600 Endeavorers were present at the annual meeting of the South Branch, Philadelphia union, held in St. Luke's M. E. Church, Philadelphia, recently? The Rev Walter B. Greenway, delivered a patriotic address. The Hope Presbyterian Intermediate and the Snyder Avenue M. E. Senior Society had 100 percent. of their active members present. Grace Presbyterian Society received a banner for the largest number of visitors.

The Silent Century Club Booster is a novel scheme to secure new members to the club? Ask the Berks County C. E. Union for its solution to Endeavor financial troubles and how to secure new members.

State Secretary H. B. Macrory and State President H. K. Bragdon, of Pittsburgh, attended the annual meeting of the field secretaries and trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, held in Boston, recently?
