FARMERS' PICNIC RED CROSS DAY

Mechanicsburg Chapter Will Have Charge of Main Features at Grove Tomorrow

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Tomorrow at the second annual Farmers' and Industrial Exhibit at Williams Grove, from August 19 to 24, an effort will be made for a big Red Cross day in charge of the Rev. H. Hall Sharp, chairman of the Mechanicsburg chapter. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon a Red Cross parade will be held in which workers from Mechanicsburg, Dillsburg, Bowmansdale, Williams Grove and farming districts will participate as well as three bands, and all exhibitors.

Addresses will be delivered immediately after the parade from the speakers' rostrum by Prof. Charles Richardson, a representative from the national headquarters of Washington, D. C., whose message will be full of interest with the latest data from the national capital on the war situation and the great mission of the Red Cross. Also Captain Frank Schwab, an English officer will speak. He belonged to the British Field Artillery. He has had long service in France and also in Egypt. It is hoped that one of the British men will be present. A good representation of the Mechanicsburg chapter will "tag" the crowd and sell Red Cross fans. In addition an interesting feature will be the booths from which fortunes will be told. About 200 dolls will be on sale as well as ice cream, and cold drinks.

Street Sweeper Dumps Refuse Into Automobiles

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 21.—Carlisle auto owners who have been preparing to go after a supposed practical joker with guns have been much relieved by the arrest of the man who has been filling the tonneaus and seats of cars with dirt and debris swept from the streets.

For several days past cars left parked for some time in the center of town were found filled with street sweepings. Owners thought they saw the hand of a practical joker and vowed vengeance. The mystery was cleared up yesterday afternoon when Fred Boyer, a street employee was seen to empty a mechanical sweeper into the auto of a local druggist.

He was arrested and held. He has been acting strangely and his mental attitude will be the subject of examination.

Finding of Honey Solves Sugar Problem For Family

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—The sugar problem is solved for some time for John Culp, Jr., of near Roxbury, by a large swarm of bees which gave him honey enough for a long time. The bees were working in the cornice of the roof, making it dangerous for persons to be in that locality. Finally, Mr. Culp decided to get rid of the insects and with the assistance of John Myers, of Mechanicsburg, succeeded in opening the cornice and to their surprise removed about forty pounds of honey and the next evening practically the same amount was obtained. The find is of especial value at this time, when sugar is scarce.

Returns From France to Train Men at Camp Dix

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 21.—After serving valiantly in the trenches in France, Sergeant Ray Finkenbinder, formerly of Carlisle, has just returned to this county to aid in training new men. Relatives have just learned of his transfer through letters, he being the only member of his unit to be selected for such service. Sergeant Finkenbinder is now stationed at Camp Dix as a specialist in bayonet work and bomb throwing.

GERMAN HELMET EXHIBITED

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—On display in the window of the insurance office of Happle and Swartz is a German helmet, which is attracting the attention of the people. It was sent here by Colonel J. Weir Grisinger from France, to his wife, who is spending some time with her father, John M. Underwood, West Main street. A huge deep dent in the crown of the helmet is probably self-explanation as to why the wearer parted with his head gear. It looks as though the butt of a gun had done the work.

GOBIN GUARDS CARE FOR ARMORY

Home of Co. G, Eighth Regiment, Held by ex-Members of Command During War

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 21.—To care for the Armory here, used as the home of Company G, Eighth Regiment, National Guards of Pennsylvania during the absence of the members in active service in France, former members of this organization and of the Gobin Guards Association, the civic organization of the company, have formed themselves into an association.

The Armory here was built by public subscription and was the property of the Gobin Guards Association, a civic body membership in which was also vested in the men in service with Company G, of the Eighth Regiment. When a man ceased to be a member of the Eighth, through transfer or discharge, his membership in the Gobin Guards ceased. As a consequence, when Company G was mustered into Federal service, as the by-laws are interpreted by a number of former members, the Gobin Guards Association went out of existence.

The new organization contains many of the famous guardsmen of other years and is headed by W. G. Speck, of Carlisle, for many years Lieutenant-colonel of the Eighth.

U-BOAT PIRATES MAKE RAIDER OF TRAWLER

Schooners sunk by the Triumph have arrived here.

Sinks Three Vessels
Vessels known to have been sunk by the converted raider are the Una P. Saunders, of Lunenburg; the A. Platt Andrew, of Gloucester, Mass., and the Francis J. O'Hara, of Boston.

Captain Wallace Bruce, master of the A. Platt Andrew, said on his arrival here that his vessel was helped up by the Triumph yesterday afternoon and that he and his crew were given ten minutes to leave the ship. The Germans then sank her with bombs.

Crews Reach Port in Dories
The raider then bore down upon the Una P. Saunders and the Francis J. O'Hara and sank them likewise. The dories carrying the crews of the three vessels reached shore at 1 a. m. to-day. The fishermen say that while making for this port they heard firing and believed other fishing vessels were sunk by the raider.

This Myrre, master of the Triumph, who landed here with his men this morning, said he was told by the captain of the submarine which captured his vessel that his was only one of six U-boats operating on this coast.

"We intend to destroy the fishing fleets," the German commander said to Captain Myrre.

An Atlantic Port, Aug. 21.—A German submarine late yesterday seized the big fishing trawler Triumph. The crew, who have reached shore safely, said they believe the Germans intend to use the trawler as a raider. The fishermen reported that the U-boat is "playing havoc" with the fleet of fishing vessels on the Grand Banks.

The Triumph was halted on the fishing banks by the U-boat and the vessel was permitted to take to the dories. The fishermen said the trawler still was afloat when they last saw her. An armed guard of Germans had been placed aboard and no preparations were being made to sink the ship, the Triumph's men said. This led to the conclusion that the Germans intended to use her as a raider.

The Triumph is owned by the North Atlantic Fisheries Company and is one of the crack boats of the fleet.

Boston, Aug. 21.—Fishermen here said to-day that if the German submarine made use of the trawler Triumph seized yesterday as a raider they would have to recal the craft at least every ten days. The Triumph is manned entirely by a Canadian crew and is owned by a Canadian company. The vessel is 125 feet in length, 15 feet deep with a 25-foot beam, and registers about 250 tons gross.

Fishermen said the scene of the attack undoubtedly was on the western banks, off the Nova Scotia coast, in the open sea and outside the three-mile zone of Canadian waters. New England vessels have not visited the western banks since German submarines were first reported in the Bay of Fundy several weeks ago.

Gloucester, Aug. 21.—The message from Captain Bruce, received by the John Chisholm Corporation, owners, made no reference to the sinking of the schooner by the trawler Triumph, seized yesterday by a German submarine.

"Sunk by submarine yesterday, 3 p. m., all safely landed," it said. The A. Platt Andrew, a vessel of 141 tons gross, sailed from here August 9.

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.
The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.
Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful in all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

member of the class to take up nursing as a profession. Miss Adella Gault is also in training in a Philadelphia hospital.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
Liverpool, Aug. 21.—G. C. Shuler was taken to the Harrisburg City Hospital to-day for treatment. About a month ago Mr. Shuler was injured while stopping a runaway team and injuries sustained then together with a general breakdown necessitated his removal to the hospital.

To the friends, relatives and families of Pennsylvania Soldiers in France.

ON SUNDAY, August 25, the PUBLIC LEDGER will issue a special Pennsylvania Hero Section, devoted to a description of the heroic deeds with which Pennsylvania's soldiers have distinguished themselves in France.

It will be the first complete publication of all the stories of individual heroism that have been reported separately by Raymond G. Carroll, the news associations and official dispatches.

It will contain photographs of Pennsylvanians killed, missing, decorated or to be decorated—an Honor Roll of undying fame.

It will give the history and personnel of Pennsylvania regiments in the firing line—where they organized, where and when they were trained, when sent overseas, what they have done in battle.

There will be letters from soldiers in France to their "home folks" over here, letters telling just what our boys think of it all.

In future years this supplement will become a treasured memento in every Pennsylvania home fortunate enough to possess a copy.

Nothing like this Hero Section has been published since the war began. Every home with a man in the army will want one or more copies, regardless of ordinary newspaper preferences. This demand is certain to quickly exhaust the edition. To avoid disappointment, notify your dealer immediately to reserve your copy.
