

British Officer Speaker at Camp Hill Meeting

Camp Hill, Aug. 22.—An address on conditions along the fighting front in France by Captain Frank Schwab of the British Artillery, will feature the Red Cross Rally in the Methodist Church this evening at 8 o'clock.

Railroads May Not Tax Freight in Cars Owned Privately, Is Ruling

Washington, Aug. 22.—After six years of investigation, hearings and litigation, the Interstate Commerce Commission to-day handed down a decision in the so-called private car case holding that no additional charge shall be made for freight carried in refrigerator, tank, stock, heater, coal and other such privately owned cars except where the ordinary rate is based on transportation in another type of car cheaper to operate.

MILITARY MEN JOIN BIG MOVE

Will Attend Meeting Tonight For Nonbelievers; Officials Coming

In addition to a number of prominent officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Major William B. Gray and his staff from the Ordnance Depot, will attend to-night's meeting of the Friendship and Co-operative Club. It is not known positively regarding federal officials but the committee hopes for favorable information to-day.

General Superintendent N. W. Smith has sent word that, barring special duty calls, he will be on hand. He has been a big factor in the get-together movement on the Peady, and will have some interesting data to show what has been accomplished by the Friendship and Co-operative Club.

Colonel Maren, Hooted in Petrograd, Kills Himself; Trotzky Is at Helingsfors

Washington, Aug. 22.—Swedish press reports transmitted to the State Department to-day say that a Colonel Maren, whose status as the Russian establishment at Petrograd is not known here, committed suicide by shooting recently when he was hooted down during a speech at a meeting in Petrograd.

Reports from Finland say Trotzky is at Helingsfors and Lenine, the Bolshevik premier, is on a German ship bound for Revel. German press reports say Lenine still is at Moscow and Trotzky at the front.

Ask Exemption For Railroad Men in Draft

Deferred classification for all Pennsylvania Railroad employes in class 1 in the draft and who are regarded as indispensable in their employment, is asked of the draft boards through the federal manager's office, according to notices posted to-day by H. C. Markham, regional director of railroads.

The United States Railroad administration, according to the notice, needs all employes for the prompt and efficient handling of government work and the administration asks draft boards to reconsider all cases now in class 1.

Railroad Notes

Huntingdon will send a large delegation of railroad men to the Friendship and Co-operative Club meeting tonight.

John R. Stout, who handled the mammoth work crane on the Reading, has been retired. He is 66 years of age and has been in poor health. He served forty-seven years. His home is at Reading.
