"When a Girl Marries"

By ANN LISLE
A New, Romantic Serial Dealing With the Absorbing Problems of a Girl Wife.

CHAPTER X.
(Copyright, 1918, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
The government had been allowing Jim $36 a month for rent while he was a bachelor first lieutenant. I decided that it would probably give him about $150 a month, and that I must find a little apartment for that sum. We couldn't dig deeper into our salary for rent.

I went a weary round of offices and finally, at the fourth, procured a list of apartments ranging in rental from forty dollars a month to sixty-five dollars. Why I took the beyond-the-dreams-of-avarice-sixty-five-dollar list I never knew.

Then I traveled from one end of the town to the other. I saw "walk-ups," with dark halls and great, large, dreary rooms at three dollars and fifty cents. There were apartments with no electricity, apartments with ancient plumbing, apartments from which I could hear the roar of the "el," apartments so far from street car and subway that I dare not contemplate walking to and fro on a slippery sidewalk.

Tom. He's the biggest real estate agent in these parts. Sally you charter a taxi for the rest of your trip while I superintend Anne's search for a home."

Sally smiled lazily. Then her eyes narrowed. "It's nice of you, Evvy. It's like you too—ditching me with out a by your leave, while you go out to find Jim a home."

Evelyn didn't answer. She only looked like a wistful child whose toys were all being taken from her by a big bully.

THE KAISER AS I KNEW HIM FOR FOURTEEN YEARS

"Look at England to-day," he remarked. "She is ruled by Lloyd George, a Socialist. Why, England is virtually a republic as bad as France! What's become of the King of England? One never hears of him any more! Why doesn't he assert himself? The tone of disgust with which he gave vent to these sentiments was more significant, perhaps, than the words used might imply."

How to Conserve

Canning and Packing For Winter's Use Explained in Detail by National War Garden Experts.

CANNING SWEET CORN
Success in the canning of corn is like other successes with the cold-pack method, dependent upon carefulness in following directions. It is important to have tender, juicy corn. Select it for canning before it gets to the dough stage. Also it should be very fresh. Old corn or stale corn is difficult to sterilize. Write to the National War Garden Commission, Washington, for a free canning book, including a 2-cent stamp for postage.

What are they?

What all and wormwood these expressions were to the Kaiser can be fully appreciated only by those who know how completely he was obsessed with medieval ideas and how dearly he envied those "old, unhappy days when peoples were nowhere consulted by their rulers and wars were provoked and waged in the interest of dynasties"—to use the President's apt characterization.

Disconsolate I wandered over to the Avenue—I wanted to get out of the atmosphere of smoked girls with short, bobbed hair and anemic men with long, bobbed hair. And then—I heard a husky little voice cry from a car that was drawing near the curb:

"Why, it's my wife! Mrs. Harrison! Anne—Anne!"

Mr. Mason studied me narrowly and asked:
"I felt myself blushing. How could I expose Jim's pride to these people?"

"You know what the government allows a first lieutenant?" I said—striving for a light tone.

"Yes, I know. And I know, too, that Jim has the tastes of a—General. He should have married his rich girl." Tom Mason shifted his glance to his cousin's face as he spoke.

But Evelyn sat with downcast eyes. Finally she spoke in that husky little voice of hers. She put her words slowly as if feeling her way—being delicate.

"Couldn't you give Anne very special rates? A big studio with a wee bath and kitchenette—and perhaps a bedroom—furnished, of course, for she wouldn't want to tie up any money in furniture under the circumstances. If having Mrs. Harrison for a neighbor isn't an inducement to—lower the rent, I don't know you, Tommie. You can make the evening so pleasant for her when she's alone."

"Does not every American feel that assurance has been added to our hope for the future peace of the world by the wonderful and heartening things that have been happening within the last few weeks in Russia?"

"We have no quarrel with the German people. We have no feeling toward them but one of sympathy and friendship. It was not upon their impulse that their government acted in entering this war. It was not upon their previous knowledge or approval that it was a war determined upon as wars used to be determined in the old, unhappy days when peoples were nowhere consulted by their rulers and wars were provoked and waged in the interest of dynasties or of little groups of men who were accustomed to use their fellow men as pawns and tools."

It is a fact that before the war no play was ever permitted in Germany in which a royal prince married a peasant girl. The Kaiser would not countenance even in the drama any such dire assault on dynastic dignity. Class distinctions must be sustained at all costs. After the war, however, the ban upon plays of that character was removed, and the rather ludicrous result followed that hardly a play was produced in which the marriage of royalty and plebeian blood did not figure.

Although Germany is regarded as the cradle of socialism, to the Kaiser it was a cancer which was slowly eating away the foundations of his empire, and he viewed its progress with the direct misgivings.

Before the war he steadfastly refused to receive a deputation of socialists and never once gave an audience to the leaders of the Socialist party in the Reichstag, although the heads of committees of all the other political parties were at times received in conference.

20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips

20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips are made of a combination of three parts of pure soap and one part pure Borax. Borax softens the water—soft water cleanses more thoroughly and saves labor. It's the Borax with the soap that does the work.

20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips are the only form of soap that will retain such a large percentage (25%) of Borax.

No soap cutting to do when you use 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips. They dissolve quickly. An 8-oz. package will do the work of 25c worth of ordinary laundry soap.

20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips will not mar the daintiest fabrics and will not shrink woolens, flannels, sweaters, etc.

To make genuine soap paste, good for all washing purposes, add one quart of boiling water to three heaping tablespoonfuls of 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips.

The Most Economical Form of General Household Soap in the World.
