More Christians of More Communions Participated
Than Ever Before

In June, 1917, the commission of the American Episcopal Church on the World Conference on Faith and Order requested the whole Christian world to observe January 18-25, 1918, as a season of special prayer for the Reunion of Christendom and for the guidance of the preparations for the World Conference. It is believed that the week was observed by more Christians of more communions and in more parts of the world than had ever been the case with any such observance. The commission is now asking for the observance of the same period next January for the same purpose.

One of the countries where the observance was puest general and characters.

The coming week will witness the return of Harrisburg choir singers and organists from their vacations. There will be a number of new faces seen in the choir lofts. In Bombay each congregation was urged to meet every day of the week for meditation and prayer, and a general meeting of the clergy in the city arranged the plans. The Church of the United Free Church of Scotland and the Hume Memorial Church of the American Marabi, Mission were each open for an hour on each day throughout the week, as places where Christians of every communion could meet for silent priver and meditation.

The Bishop of Madras, at the request of the National Missonary Council, prepared 'Outlines of Meditation and Prayer' for use during the week. These were adapted and amplified and widely circulated and used in Bombay and in other parts of the province by Christians of every denomination.

The request for the observance of the same Octave January 18-25, 1919 for special prayer for the reunion of christensom has again been sent to Christians in every part of the week.
