James A. Hartman Dies

James A. Hartman, a well-known inotype operator, and before his illess a member of the Telegraph nome at Summerdale at 1.30 o'clock his morning. He had suffered with nervous ailments for a number of months. His condition was aggra-vated by two attacks of pneumonia, both of which almost resulted fa-tally. For several days Mr. Hartman had been falling and his condition became grave during yesterday and last night. The immediate cause of death was heart trouble, superinduced by previous attacks of illness. He was 42 years old and is survived by his widow, who was Miss Gertrude Burr Alworth, of Scranton, and two small sons, James, Jr., and Robert Hartman. Mr. Hartman was born in Mechanicsburg, but had lived in Philadelphia and Baltimore, in the latter place being a member of the Sun's linotype operating force and an expert workman. He was a member of Harrisburg Typographical Union No. 14, and of local camp of Sons of Veterans. dition became grave during yester-erans.

Esside his immediate family he is survived by one brother, George Hartman, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Thompson, both of Philadelphia.
Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Rollin Alger Sawyer, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Hartman had been a member.

Flant, Dies From Injuries

E. Mullen, aged 47, of 349 South Fourteenth street, Harrisburg, a painter at the local steel plant died in the Emergency Hospital of the pilant late yesterday afternoon from injuries sustained when he was run down and dragged nearly 100 feet by a draft of loaded cinder cars. Mullen was engaged in hoisting materials to other painters at the steel foundry machine shop and according to fellow workers was standing in the path of the draft of cars. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital where physicians found that he was suffering from a fractured skull, crushed right arm, crushed foot and numerous injuries about the body and face. Coroner Eckinger is investigating.

Y. M. C. A., told of the work being done by the Y. M. C. A. and kindred organizations in the camps of the United States. They are not going to force religion down your throats there, he told the boys. "They are established to help you and to assist you in enjoying your military life," he added.

The Kaiser was characterized as the bully of the world and likened to the small town bully by E. J. Stackpole in the concluding well-received address. After each has received a defeat, he is much more open to attack and further defeat, he told. "This is a war of annihilation" and "the allies not the Hun," Mr. Stackpole, epitomized.
