with the French Army in France. Moving Steadily

The British are advancing toward Beugnatre, two and a half miles northeast of Bapaume. Nearer the Somme river they have moved eastward along the difficult ground that borders that stream. They are reported east of Suzanne, which is situated on the northern bank of the river and are closing in on Dompierre which may be the pivot of the German lines south of the Somme in the direction of Chaulnes.

French troops are once more advancing near Roye, the official statement issued at Paris telling of successes near St. Mard, about a mile southwest of Roye. Heavy German counterattacks were repulsed in this region.

French Are Victors

Between the Ailette and the Aisne, the French have repulsed German counterattacks and have advanced their lines about three quarters of a mile in the district east of Bagneux. This advance would bring General Mangin's armies nearly north of the [Continued on Page 14.]

Yankee Grit

With the American Army in France, Aug. 27—American courage and grit again were exemplified Saturday night, when units on the Woevre front repulsed a German raid without serious loss. One American sustained sixteen machine gun bullet wounds—three in the calf of the leg, ten between the knee and the waist, and three in the arm—but fought on. He will recover and be able to return to the fray. This soldier probably holds the American record for simultaneous wounds. Another American was badly wounded in the abdomen from fragments of a grenade and his nose was blown off and his face torn. He continued to fight the Germahs and almost had to be forced to go to a dressing station. France, Aug. 27-American cour-

German Counterattacks Repulsed as Poilus Again Push Forward

Smashing through the German lines in the battlefield of Northern Pleardy, British troops have reached the western and northern outskirts of Bapaume, the town which has been considered the keystone of the enemy lines in that sector of the front.

The official statement issued at London to-day shows slow but continued progress in almost every part of the line from Croisilles, far to the north, to well below the Somme river.

Roye now is invested from the west, north andsouth and the Germans have but a feeble hold on it.

MAN WHO SANK THE LUSITANIA MADE PRISONER Lieut. Schwieger Captured by

French Patrol Boat, Says Paris Report WAS REPORTED KILLED

Tried to Throw Papers Overboard Which Explained His Uneasiness

By Associated Press
Paris, Aug. 27.—Lieut. Schwieger, who sank the Lusitania, has been captured by a French patrol boat in the Mediterranean, according to La Sedan. Journal, A large submarine of which he was second in command, had just torpedoed a British steamer between Malta and Sicily. The German was waiting to see the vessel sink when two French patrol boats emerged from the fog and sank the U-boat. Of the crew of 75 only one officer and four men were rescued by the patrol four men were to boats.

While being taken to Toulon the officer appeared ill at ease. When he thought no one was looking he tried to throw some papers overboard but a sailor seized his arm. He refused to answer questions but an examination of the papers explained his uncasiness.

A dispatch from Toulon last Friday which described the sinking of a German submarine in the Mediterranean by patrol boats, added that the mate of the submarine attempted to commit suicide when brought on board a rescue ship. The man appeared to be insane and was reported to have declared the lost U-boathad torpedoed the Lusitania.

The German admiralty, according to advices from London on August 10 has admitted Lieut. Schwieger was killed when a U-boat he commanded struck a mine in the North Sea. The dispatch said his death occurred in September, 1917.
