

Y.M.C.A. Precedes Army, Says Lieutenant Smith to Recruiting Committee

Does the Y. M. C. A. follow the soldier in France? Take it from Lieutenant Arthur B. Smith, just home on a special mission from the front; it not only does that, but it precedes the army. Lieutenant Smith addressed the Y. M. C. A. recruiting committee at noon today.

"Our company of engineers was the first to reach a section of France near Verdun. We had been traveling three days and three nights to our camp site and the first thing we saw when we got there was a Y. M. C. A. hut with an American in charge. The secretary offered us everything he had at his disposal, took our soiled laundry to a nearby town, and for the washing and took the risk of making collections. Some of us had not been paid for six months and many of the men had no money. Each received a lot of ten francs, about $1.75, from the secretary.
