PLAN TRAINING OF TEACHERS

Arrange For Instructors in Sunday Schools With Better Knowledge of the Work

Much has been spoken about Church Union that has accomplished little. Some things, however, have been doing that mean more than talk. Through the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations in the United States and Canada, thirty different denominations have arranged to push their respective plans for the training of Sunday school teachers in such a concerted way that each will help every other and in effect make it one simultaneous drive for better teachers for Sunday schools in all the denominations.

A very healthy and desirable union is thus being realized. Not an organic unity secured by compromise but a practical union in which these churches are getting together by working together.

The Rev. George T. Webb, D.D., the secretary of the Sunday School Council, has just completed a tour of the United States and Canada, during which he has met, in seven-teen conferences, the national Sunday school field men of thirty different communions for the consideration of this Simultaneous Teachers Training Drive. The attendance at all of the conferences was good beyond expectation, and an encouraging enthusiasm was manifested everywhere.

The plan of co-operation does not restrict any church in its own work, but enables all to work together in the promotion of their programs so that each one helps every other do it better.

The time of the Teacher Training Drive is in September and October, when thirty days will be devoted to the promotion of this training in a distinct and permanent department of every Sunday school in North America.

The goals of the drive are as follows:

1. At least one teacher training class in every Sunday school in North America, meeting at the Sunday school hour.
2. A monthly workers' conference in every Sunday school, meeting at least ten months out of the year.
3. A mid-week Teachers Training class for present Sunday school Teachers in every Sunday school where such a class is needed.
4. A co-operative Community Training school of religious education for every community where desired and practicable; this school to have three departments: (a) to graduate and specialize work; (b) to train leaders for classes in the local churches; (c) to provide central training facilities for these churches unable to maintain their own classes.
5. A definite effort to be made toward helping every Sunday school of North America to reach selection and use of current literature and books on religious psychology, pedagogy, and Sunday school organization and management.

MORE VIGOR FOR C. E. MEMBERS AFTER MEETING

Levi Bolton, Loyal Endeavorer, Enlists in the Service of the United States

After several months of recreation and delightful gatherings, consisting of three big district conventions and many other meetings where Endeavorers assembled in the Keystone and other states, the Endeavor societies will open their Sunday evening meetings with much enthusiasm and interest. During the coming fall and winter months many activities will be arranged for the social and spiritual life of the church.

President H. K. Bragdon, Pittsburgh, the great leader of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union, says: "In these days of energetic effort, many demands are made upon our time and resources, but an extra effort, the assuming of more responsibility by each Endeavorer, will put us over the top. Pray earnestly for God's blessing upon our work and that the coming months may be a period of real achievement."

C. E. Notes

Booster, Booster, be a Booster. Boost and cackle like a Rooster; Boost and never be a knocker. And boost the C. E. campaign.

Levi O. Bolton, of Eighteenth and Walnut streets, this city, a loyal Endeavorer, has enlisted in the Army and is now on his way to France. He was a faithful attendant of the Park Street United Evangelical Keystone League of Christian Endeavor. On the last Sunday evening he was in the city he led the C. E. meeting, June 23. His testimony was a bright and ringing one for Christ. His full confidence was in his Savior. Who has led him through safely these twenty-two years? He writes: "We hear splendid messages and have interesting Bible studies at the C. E. headquarters. There is a little Bible study by the boys in the barracks and a Christian must be determined to trust in God and also let his light shine among men wherever he may go."

The intermediates—boys of high school age—of the Lindenwald Church of Christ, Hamilton, O., have made one of their number a life-long member of the Christian Women's Board of Missions and are giving $30 to support an orphan in India.

Mrs. E. A. Nesanger will have charge of the Endeavor service at the Westminster Presbyterian Society on Sunday evening. After a month's vacation, the Endeavorers will hold their services regularly each Sunday evening with new enthusiasm.

The executive committee of the

"Justice of God" At Pine St. Presbyterian

The Rev. Harold M. Baldwin, assistant pastor, will preach in the Pine Street Presbyterian Church Sunday, September 1. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Justice of God." Elmer H. Ley will sing a solo entitled, "Prayer." In the evening the service will be held at 7.30. The theme for the evening service will be "The Heritage of Achan."

The quiet has returned and will sing at both services. Elmer H. Ley will sing the quiet in the observance of George Sutton, who is now in the service of the country.

Morning—Prelude, "Vision." Bible anthem, "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes Unto The Hills." The hymns, "Andante," "Tranquillo," Higgs; solo, "Prayer," Miller, by Elmer H. Ley; postlude, "Toccata." (Suite Gothic), Boellmann.

Evening—Prelude, "Largo." Handel; anthem, "O Worship the Lord." Watson; offertory, "Berceuse." Olsen; anthem, "God So Loved the World." Postlude, "Postlude in F." Lemaire.

Charles Dugh will be unable to lead Centenary United Brethren Society, Steelton, next Sunday as was planned. He has answered the country's call and left for camp last Monday. James T. Mentzer will be the leader of the meeting and the society members and friends of this society had a delightful time on last Friday during a hike to the home of Miss Esther Ligan, of Highspire, and enjoyed a watermelon social. The lawn was illuminated with Japanese lanterns.

Sunday School Members Picnic in Country
Wednesday, two Sunday school classes of girls from the intermediate department of the United Evangelical Sunday School, Enola, spent an enjoyable day in the country. Mrs. Jaus, one of their teachers, made provision to have the children, about twenty-five in number, hauled to and from her place in a large farm wagon. The other teacher, Miss Frank, chaperoned the classes and kept them interested throughout the day with games, singing and a full day of hard romping and playing in a good old fashioned country way. The jolly crowd returned to their homes. They sang songs and yells all the way home and as they left the wagon, said that it was the best day that they had had this summer.

Services Tomorrow For St. John's Baptist Church

The services for St. John's Baptist Church will be held to-morrow in the K. of P. hall, 1220 North Seventh street, at 11 a. m., 8 p. m. and 8 p. m. The Rev. E. J. Manning in charge.

REV. H. S. MAY HOME
The Rev. Homer Skyles May, pastor of the Fourth Reformed Church, has returned from his vacation and will occupy his pulpit morning and evening to-morrow. In the evening he will speak of "Impressions of Army Life As Seen at the Barracks, Columbus, Ohio."

There are no vocal numbers on this program for Market Square Presbyterian church to-morrow. Miss Lillian Reiter will play as organ numbers the "Alleluia" and "Andante" from Alexander Gullman's "Fourth Sonata," Stebbins' "Swan," "Finale" from the Gullman's "Santitas," "Cantata in A Flat," Thome's "Pastorale," and Frynberger's "Grand Choeur." The choir will resume its work second Sunday in September.

At Westminster Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning the choir number will be "Still, Still With Thee." Mrs. Robin Valerchamp soprano, will be the soloist, and will sing the offertory number, Mendelssohn's "Oh, For the Wings of a Dove." The evening anthem will be Barnby's "Abide With Me" and Gault's "No Shadows Yonder." The organ numbers will be Lemaire's "Prayer," Gonnard's "Andante" and Whiting's "Postlude." In the evening and Kinder's "Benediction," Mendelssohn's "March and Read's "March in C" in the morning.

A correspondent has submitted the following anthem for choir use during the fall and winter months: "Far From My Heavenly Home." Tunes: "The Sabbath Dawns With Thee," Robert, Abt; "Seek Ye the Lord," Robert, Abt; "That Maddest Earth and Heaven," Naylor; "Know That the Lord is Great," Smart; "The Lord is My Shepherd," Smart; "Lead Us," Naylor; "How Lift Up Mine Eyes," Rogers, and "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me?" Rogers. These numbers have been tried and found very acceptable. Some of them are quite familiar, especially Roberts' "Seek Ye the Lord," which is sung wherever choirs have a competent tenor soloist.

RETURN FROM A CAMP TOUR
Rev. Smucker to Tell of His Experience in Camps At Stevens Memorial

Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker returned this week from rendering special service at Camp Robinson, near Sparra, Wis. He is to tell to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock in Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, the story of this work. The big male chorus will sing in connection with the meeting. He will use the morning hour at 11 o'clock, to speak on the theme "Under Orders."

Plans are complete for the launching of the speed-up-war program of the church. Mrs. Clayton Albert Smucker has arranged for an all-day war-work conference to be held next Thursday, from 10 to 10 p. m., in the Red Cross work rooms of the church. The call has gone forth for all the women of East Harrisburg to attend this speed-up meeting. It is to be an open conference for all women.

On Tuesday evening the Girl Scouts will hold a block social on the Vernon street side of the church. This organization is one of the new flourishing war institutions of the city. They have a big speed-up program scheduled for the fall and winter.

A meeting of a popular character is to be held Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, to which the public is invited. This gathering will be followed by the September conference of the official board.

The church will participate in the joint centenary and Sunday school training conference to be held in the city, September 12 and 13. Representative leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church from all over the country will be present to discuss its plans and speed-up-war program. Delegates from all over the state will attend to get the wider outlook on the world task of the church.

A series of nine extraordinary entertainments will be given by distinguished artists in the church under the direction of the Capital City Lyceum Course during the fall and winter. The Plymouth Singing party is scheduled for an entertainment early in October. The season will be featured by a big patriotic program. The season tickets will be placed on sale within the next ten days.

To-morrow evening at 8.30 o'clock the young folks of the church will meet in the lecture room for the purpose of getting under the speed-up-war program outlined by Dr. Smucker. The new officers of the organization will be in charge of the gathering.

The Boy Scouts have arranged to meet in the social hall of the church Labor Day night for a speed-up-war conference. According to Scoutmaster Vanaman the boys are ready for bigger things in the way of service.
