Job of Cleaning Up Huns Left to Yankees

London, Sept. 4.—The strategical stuation on the western front leaves of the Americans the duty of striking mopping-up blow against the west derman nordes that are being pressured. a mopping-up blow against the wast German nordes that are being pressed back by the other Allies, in the opinion of some of the British military experts.

Much is expected of the American forces, which are increasing with surprising rapidity. The British critics to-day expressed the belief that the Germans would not be able to hold the Sensee and Nord anals, and, with the Germans losing more of the Hindenburg line every day, the experts fail to see where the Germans can make a strong stand after their recent severe defeats and
