Washington, Sept. 6.—John F Short, of Clearfield Pa., was nomina-ted to-day by President Wilson to be United States marshal in the West-ern Pennsylvania district. Secretary of Associated Aid Societies to Organize Important

John F. Short is well-known to many Harrisburgers as he was for years legislative correspondent for the Pittsburgh Dispatch and other newspapers. He is now a Clearfield publisher and has been food administrator for his county. He was also a Democratic national delegate and has been active in Democratic politics for years, possessing a caustic pen and an aggressive personality. Mr. Short was for years an opponent of the Palmer regime, but joined forces some time ago.

Germans Flee From Chauny; French Pursue

With the French Army in France, Sept. 6.—French cavalry this morning passed through the town of Chauny, from which the enemy had fled. The troopers are advancing towards Tergnir, four and one-half miles northeast of Chauny and have reached the region of Viry-Noureuil, two and one-half miles from Tergnir. General Debeney's army has turned the Ham-Guiscard line at Dampcourt, west of Chauny. The Germans are retreating rapidly all along the front south of the Somme.

CASUALTY LIST

By Associated Press

Copenhagen, Sept. 6. — Field Marshal von Hindenburg, according to a dispatch from Berlin, has issued a proclamation to the German people, declaring the enemy, in addition to the armed offensive, is conducting an offensive by printed matter containing "most insane rumors" which are distributed in Switzerland, Holland and Denmark, from which countries they are spread throughout the whole of Germany.

The Field Marshal warns the people "to be unanimous against this enemy who fights with scraps this enemy who fights with scraps of paper and rumors intended to sow dissension and disunion among ourselves and between us and our allies," and exhorts all Germans to remember "these poisoned scraps" come from the

Lieut. J. T. Atkinson

In France a short six months, the name of Lieutenant John T. Atkinson appears on the casualty list for the second time as severely wounded in action. He had previously been gassed. Lieutenant Atkinson, star short distance runner on the Dickinson College track teams of 1916 and 1917, dropped his collegiate work shortly after the commencement of the war to go to the first officers' reserve training camp at Fort Niagara N. Y. There he won his second lieutenant's commission. Serving for a time at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, he was later transferred to Camp Jackson, S. C., where he was made a first lieutenant.

Overcome by mustard gas fumes Lawrence Burlew of Lewistown, with Company M, 112th Infantry, was wounded in the leg while in action recently. He is now confined to a French base hospital, but expects soon to be able to get out and about with the aid of crutches.
