

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Telephone Building, Federal Square

E. J. STACKPOLE President and Editor-in-Chief. F. R. OYSTER, Business Manager. G. M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor.

Member of the Associated Press-The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper.

By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $5.00 a year in advance.

"ON TO BERLIN!" WE are speaking in terms of force now, says Secretary Lane, a member of the President's Cabinet.

And when the Hun has been licked to his knees, as is certain to happen, let the armies of liberty and righteousness and justice march on to Berlin and determine there the fate of the instigators and bloody leaders of the inhuman horde that has upset the peace of the world.

POLITICS VS. PATRIOTISM UNDER the caption "Politics vs. Patriotism," the Bureau of Municipal Research puts out a bulletin calling public attention to the need now of considering the problems that will come with the close of the war.

MILITARY TRAINING NO doubt the experiment in military training about to be tried out at the High School will be so successful that it will be found necessary to employ a regular drill-master and instructor.

COARSE WORK [From the Kansas City Times.] The German crown prince tries to emphasize the theory that Germany did not desire war, but that England did.

Always Look Like That Uncle Bill, hearing an explosion in the immediate neighborhood, said to his small nephew, sitting in the automobile beside him.

ployment for the people of the State at decent wages during periods of industrial depression.

Just to let the Kaiser know that we don't mean to listen to any peace chatter this winter, we are going to raise another Liberty Loan.

STAMP IT OUT ORDINARILY the "chain letter" is a burdensome nuisance and should be discouraged.

ON TO BERLIN! WE are speaking in terms of force now, says Secretary Lane, a member of the President's Cabinet.

And when the Hun has been licked to his knees, as is certain to happen, let the armies of liberty and righteousness and justice march on to Berlin and determine there the fate of the instigators and bloody leaders of the inhuman horde that has upset the peace of the world.

POLITICS VS. PATRIOTISM UNDER the caption "Politics vs. Patriotism," the Bureau of Municipal Research puts out a bulletin calling public attention to the need now of considering the problems that will come with the close of the war.

MILITARY TRAINING NO doubt the experiment in military training about to be tried out at the High School will be so successful that it will be found necessary to employ a regular drill-master and instructor.

COARSE WORK [From the Kansas City Times.] The German crown prince tries to emphasize the theory that Germany did not desire war, but that England did.

Always Look Like That Uncle Bill, hearing an explosion in the immediate neighborhood, said to his small nephew, sitting in the automobile beside him.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committeeman

The nation-wide movement against use of gasoline on Sunday seems to have prevented Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, Democratic nominee for governor in spite of the bosses, from bringing up the heavy artillery which he had promised would be brought to bear upon National Committeeman A. Mitchell Palmer and his pals.

The Philadelphia Record, Judge Bonniwell's newspaper, today joins Jury Commissioner "Paddy" Brennan of Allegheny county, in demanding that Palmer retire as national committeeman and says various things about him.

Just to let the Kaiser know that we don't mean to listen to any peace chatter this winter, we are going to raise another Liberty Loan.

And when the Hun has been licked to his knees, as is certain to happen, let the armies of liberty and righteousness and justice march on to Berlin and determine there the fate of the instigators and bloody leaders of the inhuman horde that has upset the peace of the world.

POLITICS VS. PATRIOTISM UNDER the caption "Politics vs. Patriotism," the Bureau of Municipal Research puts out a bulletin calling public attention to the need now of considering the problems that will come with the close of the war.

MILITARY TRAINING NO doubt the experiment in military training about to be tried out at the High School will be so successful that it will be found necessary to employ a regular drill-master and instructor.

COARSE WORK [From the Kansas City Times.] The German crown prince tries to emphasize the theory that Germany did not desire war, but that England did.

Always Look Like That Uncle Bill, hearing an explosion in the immediate neighborhood, said to his small nephew, sitting in the automobile beside him.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND BY BRIGGS

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE JENNINGS CASE In view of the attack on William Jennings Bryan, it is worth asking whether or not, in the light of right living and the demand upon us to do all we can to win the war, this proposition of wealth and power on the part of the millionaire owner of the Patriot is not wholly inexcusable and unpatriotic.

AN ENLISTED MAN. [From the Sunday Courier.] Nothing is gained by holding prominent men up to scorn. Certainly no public good was served during the week in the majority of cases.

COARSE WORK [From the Kansas City Times.] The German crown prince tries to emphasize the theory that Germany did not desire war, but that England did.

Always Look Like That Uncle Bill, hearing an explosion in the immediate neighborhood, said to his small nephew, sitting in the automobile beside him.

A Message to American Business By Val Fisher, London Publisher

The experience of Britain's retail stores contains an object lesson which should not be lost on the businessmen of America. During the first few months of the war, many stores cut down their advertising.

STATE TAXATION [From the Philadelphia Press.] It becomes more and more evident that one of the principal functions the next Legislature will be called on to fill will relate to a new basis for raising the necessary revenue of the state by taxation.

THE AMERICAN PRIVATE [From the Stars and Stripes, France] "Greater love," says the Bible, "hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend."

Members of the Harrisburg reserves out drilling men of draft '85 in the counties have given a lot of advice by men who fought in other wars and men returned from the camps and even Europe.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE Major J. P. Kerr, member of Pittsburgh council, has resigned to give all of his time to the Army.

HIS OPPORTUNITY [From the New York Times] Wherever the white man gathers, wherever the white man leads.

Yarns of his pluck and his prowess, tales of his doughty deeds, Come from the pens inspired, speak from the picture pages.

While it would be impossible to even estimate how much gasoline was saved by cars being kept in garage under the federal ruling against Sunday driving.

Cotton Profiteering? [From Phil. Evening Public Ledger] When the Department of Agriculture reported that weather conditions had reduced the prospective cotton crop of 15,235,000 bales to 11,137,100, cotton went up $1 a bale on the exchanges.

OUR DAILY LAUGH SOME RESTRAINING. The Symphonies—I'm surprised that you didn't save anything out of your failure. Didn't you retain a lawyer?

WELL QUALIFIED. He: You ought to make a good aviator. She: Why? He: You go up in the air so easily.

IMPORTANT. My dear, what shall I buy you for your birthday? Consult your jeweler. If he knows pretty well what my tastes are. And did you tell him anything about the state of my finances?

A BLESSING TO SOME. Long dry spells are bad for farmers. Yes; but just think what a blessing for the fellows who buy those $3.98 summer suits.

DO YOU KNOW That Harrisburg has been assembling walnut and ash for Army needs? HISTORIC HARRISBURG Parson John Elder and John Harris used to drill men for Indian warfare defense along the Derry street pike.