

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

NIGHT CONTROL FOR ARMY TRUCKS

Gettysburg Will Care For Soldiers Coming Over Lincoln Highway With Trucks

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Gettysburg is to be a night control station for the fleets of motor trucks that will go over the Lincoln highway during the winter.

DRAFT REGISTRATION IN NORTHUMBERLAND

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 12.—Draft registrations throughout Northumberland county were quiet to-day, and there apparently was no attempt at draft dodging.

WOUNDED SOLDIER RETURNS

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Sergeant S. J. Fredericks, of Company L, Sixty-first Infantry, who spent all of last summer in the camp here and who went away early this spring,

SEARCHING FOR SLACKERS

Danville, Pa., Sept. 12.—Sergeant Jacobs is determined to enforce the work or fight order. He has notified the borough police to get the names of all persons who will not work, and they are to make their search for industrial slackers.

DISCHARGED FROM ARMY

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Don S. Strauser, who lost several fingers at Camp Meade some months ago while cutting wood and who was arrested near McVeytown on the charge of desertion and again returned to Camp Meade, has again returned to his home near McVeytown.

FINE STRING OF PIKE

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—Samuel L. Rickard, fisherman, landed a fine string of pike yesterday afternoon from the Enderton dam.

MIFLIN COUNTY ACCIDENTS

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Albert Clinger, of Lewistown, had a thumb torn off at the Standard Steel Works. It was caught between an emery wheel and a pick he was sharpening.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Liverpool, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. George Blake Deihl, of Akron, Ohio, formerly of Liverpool, announce the birth of a son, Raymond Maurice Deihl, Thursday, September 5, 1918.

APPOINTED MEAT LIEUTENANT

Newport, Pa., Sept. 12.—Archdeacon William Darr, Perry county food administrator, has appointed Frank Eckert, of New Bloomfield, meat dealers' lieutenant of Perry county.

Nick Notarys Back at Camp to Go to France

NICK NOTARYS

Nick Notarys, part owner of the Manhattan Restaurant, has returned to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., where he is located, after spending a short furlough at his home here.

RALLY AT LIVERPOOL

Liverpool, Pa., Sept. 12.—A special patriotic rally was held last night at Liverpool, together with a parade by the different fraternal organizations of town.

PERRY COUNTY FUNERALS

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—Funeral services for James P. Stewart, who died at his home at Pine Grove, were held yesterday with burial in the Restland Cemetery at Loysville, of the Rev. Edward V. Strasbaugh, of Blain, officiating.

WOOD HIGH IN PRICE

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Prospects are that people who never used wood as fuel before will use it this winter. Coal dealers are behind with orders and with but little coal coming in the prospects are not encouraging.

FLAGRAISING AT CENTER

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—Center Red Cross society will hold flag-raising exercises at the Center Church in Madison township on Saturday. A program of patriotic songs, recitations and addresses has been arranged.

BLAIN PULPIT VACANT

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—On Sunday, September 22, the Rev. C. V. Hesse, of Wrightsville, West Va., will fill the pulpit of the Blain Zion's Lutheran church with the view of becoming pastor, the charge being vacant.

HARVEST HOME SERVICES

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—Harvest home services will be held on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Zion's Reformed Church in charge of the Rev. Edward V. Strasbaugh, pastor. The church will be decorated with fruit, flowers, grain and vegetables on Saturday afternoon by members of the church.

WOMEN WORK AT BRICK PLANT

Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 12.—About fifty women went to work in the local brick plant during the past week. Many of them are doing hard work, some wheeling brick. This is probably one of the first plants in the country to employ women in the manufacture of brick. They are receiving men's wages.

Newport Factory on Army Underwear Resumes Work

Newport, Pa., Sept. 12.—After being shut down for two months due to an injunction granted by the Perry county court, the Newport Shirt Factory, owned by the Philip-Jones Company, of New York, has again resumed operations as a result of the setting aside of the decision of the Perry court by the Superior Court.

Dedication of Statues at Gettysburg Postponed

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Colonel John P. Nichols, chairman of the Gettysburg National Park Commission, has received a letter from George P. Morgan, the secretary of the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Association stating "that account of the serious illness of General Huidekoper, which would prevent him from being present, the commission has decided to postpone until next year the dedication of the statues of Generals Hays, Geary and Humphreys.

DESERTER FROM CAMP ARRESTED

Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 12.—Dale Sechrist, who was drafted July 1, and sent to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., arrived in town last week and told people here he was on a furlough. After staying here several days word was received by officials that he had decided to postpone until next year the dedication of the statues of Generals Hays, Geary and Humphreys.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Annville, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Philo A. Statton announce the birth of a son, Phillip Brightbill Statton, on September 3, 1918. Mrs. Statton prior to her marriage, was Miss Helen Brightbill, of this place. Mr. Statton is in the service of the United States Navy.

WILL UNVEIL HONOR ROLL

Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mount Union is planning a monster parade for Saturday. There will be an unveiling of the honor roll and the raising of a large service flag and an American flag in the center of the town.

SEVEN AUTOMOBILES BURN

Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Fire early yesterday morning burned a big garage back of the City hotel at McConnellsburg. Seven touring cars, two state highway trucks, and a large United States parcel post truck were destroyed entirely. Two large sheds and a stable went up in flames. The loss will exceed $20,000.

Suburban Notes

DILLSBURG — The condition of Joseph A. Grove in the Harrisburg Hospital is good considering the extent of his injuries. His thighbone had been broken near the hip and the left forearm broken and he also suffered injuries of the left shoulder and back.

FIVE ARRESTED AT MILTON

Milton, Pa., Sept. 12.—Field Officer William S. Shutt, of Philadelphia, came here to-day and suddenly put the word "lock up" in effect by causing the arrest of five men who apparently had nothing to do but eat. It is announced that the order will be strictly obeyed in this borough.

Pershing Creates Two Staff Officers For War

By Associated Press. American Headquarters in France, Sept. 12.—The officers of chief of the infantry and chief of cavalry of the American expeditionary force have been established by General Pershing. Both officers will be members of General Pershing's staff. The nominations for the two new positions were made by General Pershing. The duties of the new staff members will be to act as advisers on subjects concerning their respective arms of the service, to inspect organizations, training material and equipment methods and to study all phases of their branches affecting general efficiency and make suitable recommendations concerning them. They also will be responsible for the preparation of all details concerning the instruction of training units.

Panama Picks Pedro Diaz to Be Its Next President

Panama, Sept. 12.—General Pedro A. Diaz will be the new President of Panama to succeed General Encarnacion of the late President, Dr. Ramon M. Valdez, according to the decision reached by the majority members of the National Assembly.

RHEUMATISM RIDICULOUS

IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO SUFFER ANY LONGER. "Neutrone Prescription 99" is the new relief. It is absolutely different, it produces results. No hot, stinging liniments, no burning plasters, no steam baths, no electricity, no spending long months in the house with loss of pay. "Neutrone Prescription 99" promptly relieves the most stubborn and long-standing case of rheumatism. You will feel distinctly the aches, pain and stiffness leaving your poor inflamed, swollen, suffering joints and muscles, and oh, what a relief after your pain and misery! Get a bottle of "Neutrone Prescription 99" and say good-by to Rheumatism. It certainly relieves the work, 50c and $1 the bottle. Mail orders filled. For sale in Harrisburg by George A. Goran, 13 North Third Street and Pennsylvania Railroad Station.

Cumberland Valley

TWO TRAINS TO BE WITHDRAWN

Carlisle Commerce Chamber Will Ask Readjustment of Others

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—Although the two noon through trains on the Cumberland Valley railroad will be withdrawn on September 22 to allow a six-hour period for the rushing of war freight to the seaboard, through the efforts of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce, a readjustment will probably be made which will permit travel between Carlisle and Harrisburg at about the same hours and under the same business disturbance than would be the case were trains at the hours in question to be discontinued altogether.

EXPECT 5,000 TO REGISTER

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—Estimates made late this afternoon by officials of the Cumberland County Draft Boards seem to indicate that about 5,000 men in Cumberland county will have been registered by this evening for military service under the amendments to the selective service regulations. The work of compiling the records and beginning of the classification of the men registered will be begun at once.

BAKE FOR RED CROSS

Newville, Pa., Sept. 12.—A bake under the auspices of the Red Cross branch, will be held in the McCullough room in Big Spring avenue, on Saturday. The room will be open at 1 p. m., and from that time on people may be served with pies, cakes and ice cream.

BIG SALES OF WAR STAMPS

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—Total sales of War Savings Stamps in Cumberland county through the post offices now total $420,119, according to a statement issued yesterday by Federal Director George E. Lloyd. The Carlisle office leads with sales of $160,695.

Hospital Corps Soldier's Horse Shot Under Him

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Harry Carbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Carbaugh, living about three miles from town, is having some thrilling experiences in France, as told in a letter received by his parents. He is a member of the hospital corps of the Fourth United States Infantry, and while riding his horse through a barrage of German artillery fire to locate a first-aid station had his horse shot from under him. As the horse fell he jumped from his back and crawled to a nearby dugout where he was compelled to stay for some time. When he did get out his horse was still alive, but suffering intense pain from three wounds, and he shot the horse in the head to end its suffering. Carbaugh himself, got a slight wound in the foot.

MOTHER OF SOLDIER MISSING

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 12.—Despite efforts of local postal heads no trace has been found of Mrs. Katherine Antes, whose son, Private J. Leroy Antes, was reported killed in action in France. A letter written some time before his death also awaits the mother at the local post office.

FIVE ARRESTED AT MILTON

Milton, Pa., Sept. 12.—Field Officer William S. Shutt, of Philadelphia, came here to-day and suddenly put the word "lock up" in effect by causing the arrest of five men who apparently had nothing to do but eat. It is announced that the order will be strictly obeyed in this borough.

Pershing Creates Two Staff Officers For War

By Associated Press. American Headquarters in France, Sept. 12.—The officers of chief of the infantry and chief of cavalry of the American expeditionary force have been established by General Pershing. Both officers will be members of General Pershing's staff. The nominations for the two new positions were made by General Pershing. The duties of the new staff members will be to act as advisers on subjects concerning their respective arms of the service, to inspect organizations, training material and equipment methods and to study all phases of their branches affecting general efficiency and make suitable recommendations concerning them. They also will be responsible for the preparation of all details concerning the instruction of training units.

Panama Picks Pedro Diaz to Be Its Next President

Panama, Sept. 12.—General Pedro A. Diaz will be the new President of Panama to succeed General Encarnacion of the late President, Dr. Ramon M. Valdez, according to the decision reached by the majority members of the National Assembly.

RHEUMATISM RIDICULOUS

IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO SUFFER ANY LONGER. "Neutrone Prescription 99" is the new relief. It is absolutely different, it produces results. No hot, stinging liniments, no burning plasters, no steam baths, no electricity, no spending long months in the house with loss of pay. "Neutrone Prescription 99" promptly relieves the most stubborn and long-standing case of rheumatism. You will feel distinctly the aches, pain and stiffness leaving your poor inflamed, swollen, suffering joints and muscles, and oh, what a relief after your pain and misery! Get a bottle of "Neutrone Prescription 99" and say good-by to Rheumatism. It certainly relieves the work, 50c and $1 the bottle. Mail orders filled. For sale in Harrisburg by George A. Goran, 13 North Third Street and Pennsylvania Railroad Station.

Mrs. Mary L. Paulding Dies at Carlisle Home

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Mary J. L. Paulding, widely known in this section and a descendant of a prominent county family, died at her home in Carlisle yesterday morning. She was a daughter of the late Colonel Robert and Mary Harkness Lambertson. Her husband was Edmund Paulding, for many years a paymaster in the Navy. She was a charter member of the Cumberland County chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and was a member of the organization. She was vice-president of the Carlisle Civic Club and active in missionary and other work of the First Lutheran Church.

Soldiers Return From France For Camp Work

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—The third Cumberland county man to return from France to give training to troops in this side arrived at his home on a short furlough. He is Captain John Thompson, of the Forty-second Engineers. He spent a number of months at Camp Devens, Dix and Meade and prior to being commissioned was an engineer for the Philadelphia and Reading railroad. Lieutenant John L. Lewis, of Carlisle, of the artillery, and Sergeant Ray Fink-binder, of Plainfield, an expert bomber and bayonet instructor are the others.

CLASS SENDS WOOLEN STOCKINGS

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—The class of men of which Mrs. R. A. De Freh is teacher in the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, have supplied four of their number, who are in the United States service with woolen stockings. They were knitted by Mrs. DeFreh and her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Dick, and were sent to Harry Martin, France; Harry Flester, France; Lieutenant R. H. Thomas, New York Harbor, and J. Roy Mountz, a sailor, who is on duty as coast guard at South Boston, Mass.

710 PUPILS ENROLLED

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—That the Mechanicsburg public schools have a large number of pupils was shown at the regular meeting of the board on Tuesday evening, when the supervising principal, Prof. Ralph Jacoby announced the enrollment on the opening day of 710 pupils. In the high school are 130, the largest number in the history of the institution. There are forty-two pupils enrolled from districts outside of Mechanicsburg.

WILL RETAIN REGISTERED MEN

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—To give additional permanence and interest to the organization, the members of the Carlisle units of the Volunteer Home Defense Police have formed a civic association and elected officers. Arrangements are being completed for a record session of training to give instruction to newly-registered men before they are called for service.

LIEUTENANT HELLMAN WOUNDED

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 12.—Wounded in the early fighting in July in which the "iron division" participated, Lieutenant John Hellman, formerly of Carlisle, is recovering from shrapnel wounds, according to letters just received by friends here. Prior to entering service with Company G, of the old Eighth Pennsylvania, he was an officer of the Lindner Shoe Company.

Death of J. S. Rhine Believed to Be Suicide

Liverpool, Pa., Sept. 12.—J. S. Rhine, 71 years old, a wealthy grocer and assistant postmaster in McKees Half Falls, five miles above Liverpool, who was found dead with six hatchet wounds on the top of his head and a deep gash across his throat when his wife entered the attic over the store room Saturday morning is believed to have committed suicide. Rhine was one of the prominent men of this vicinity and is said to be worth more than $150,000. He is survived by his wife, four sons, George Rhine, Sunbury; Alfred and William Rhine, McKees Half Falls; John Rhine, in France, and three daughters, Mrs. Francis Gelnett, of Sunbury; Mrs. Amos Moyer, Downingtown, and Miss Laura Rhine, at home. Services conducted by the Rev. Clyde W. Shaeffer were held at the Rhine residence to-day.

300 IN HIGH SCHOOL

Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 12.—The Mount Union schools opened on Monday with about 1,200 enrolled. The high school is the largest in the history of the school having near the 300 mark. The schools are all supplied with teachers, except the high school, where a vacancy in the history department.

WOUNDED SOLDIER RETURNS

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 12.—Sergeant S. J. Fredericks, of Company L, Sixty-first Infantry, who spent all of last summer in the camp here and who went away early this spring, spent part of the week here visiting friends he made here last summer. Direct from the battlefield, where he was gassed and wounded, he has an intimate knowledge of the things the Americans must face on the other side and told some interesting stories of the things he passed through.

SEARCHING FOR SLACKERS

Danville, Pa., Sept. 12.—Sergeant Jacobs is determined to enforce the work or fight order. He has notified the borough police to get the names of all persons who will not work, and they are to make their search for industrial slackers. It is promised that immediate action will be taken to jail those persons who can easily fall asleep by the side of work.

DISCHARGED FROM ARMY

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Don S. Strauser, who lost several fingers at Camp Meade some months ago while cutting wood and who was arrested near McVeytown on the charge of desertion and again returned to Camp Meade, has again returned to his home near McVeytown. It would seem that he had already been discharged from the army, when he left the hospital at Camp Meade and walked back to his home in this county, a distance of a couple hundred miles.

FINE STRING OF PIKE

Blain, Pa., Sept. 12.—Samuel L. Rickard, fisherman, landed a fine string of pike yesterday afternoon from the Enderton dam. The string contained eight fish measuring in length from twelve to eighteen inches. The catch was made in less than two hours.

MIFLIN COUNTY ACCIDENTS

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Albert Clinger, of Lewistown, had a thumb torn off at the Standard Steel Works. It was caught between an emery wheel and a pick he was sharpening. Lucien Wagner had a hip injured at the same plant when struck by a piece of iron.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Liverpool, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. George Blake Deihl, of Akron, Ohio, formerly of Liverpool, announce the birth of a son, Raymond Maurice Deihl, Thursday, September 5, 1918. Mrs. Deihl was formerly Miss Katie Spicher, a well-known Liverpool girl.

APPOINTED MEAT LIEUTENANT

Newport, Pa., Sept. 12.—Archdeacon William Darr, Perry county food administrator, has appointed Frank Eckert, of New Bloomfield, meat dealers' lieutenant of Perry county.

Soldier Travels 1,900 Miles to Wed a Newport Girl

Newport, Pa., Sept. 12.—Traveling more than 1,900 miles, Sergeant Paul K. Brandt, of Shippensburg, a graduate of the Mechanicsburg High school, class of 1914, and the Twelfth Aero Squadron, located at Kelly Field No. 1, San Antonio, Texas, and Miss Verna Mabel Myers, of this place, were married.

Mrs. Brandt is a graduate of the Newport High school, class of 1914, Normal school, class of 1916, and is now a teacher in the Hummelstown public schools. Sergeant Brandt is a graduate of the Mechanicsburg High school, class of 1914, and the Cumberland Valley State Normal school, class of 1916.

NIGHT SCHOOL advertisement for Beckley's Business College, THE Office Training School, 121 Market St. Bell 691-R Dial 4016

Advertisement for The Man's Store of Harrisburg, featuring 'Revelation in Dress Fashions' and 'Season's newest conceits in the vogue's most alluring delineations'. Includes prices for suits and dresses.

Large advertisement for Wm. Strouse's 'MEN'S NEWS' suits, featuring 'The Man's Store of Harrisburg--310 Market Street' and 'Wm. Strouse is introducing for the Fall Season of 1918 models of the finest design including the best tailoring ever put into a Man's Suit including "Flannels" in Blues, Green, Brown and Gray Velours, Unfinished Worsteds and Cassimeres'. Includes prices like $25 to $50 and $1.85.

Advertisement for Post Toasties cereal, featuring the slogan 'the last word in corn flakes - thoroughly satisfy the taste and save wheat - at your grocers'.