Wharton, is now serving his military apprenticeship at Camp Lee. Another safe arrival 'Over There' is Frank E. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rogers, 943 Paxton street, who is attached to the Seventeenth Company, Fifth Battalion. Word was received to this effect last Saturday. Rogers was stationed at Camp Lee.

UNCLE SAM CALLS 11,457 MORE MEN

They Are to Be White, Qualified for General Military Service; Go Next Month

The first October calls for men to be sent from Pennsylvania to Army camps were received at State Draft Headquarters to-day and quotas will be worked out immediately. These calls will not include men who registered yesterday, it was stated at the headquarters.

boards that it is the duty of every board to register persons liable to registration within its jurisdiction who for any reason have not done so. Local boards are authorized to issue permits to depart from the United States to registrants who have filed questionnaires. They are also called upon in another order to immediately file names of members of boards of instruction.

'Mother's Pie' Not for Civilians in Paris, but Yanks Can Get Big Pieces much of historic interest. Built by Napoleon III to house his Ministry of Agriculture and Finance, it later became the residence of Mrs. Ogden Mills.

Then it was taken over by the Y. M. C. A. as its Paris headquarters. The main offices of the Red Triangle soon outgrew even this large structure, however, and the place was converted into a 'clubhouse' for officers and enlisted men.

Madame Verby, an American woman, who has lived for a considerable time in Paris, presides over the culinary department at 31 Avenue Montaigne. In spite of the difficulties attendant upon housekeeping in Paris in war times, she succeeds in giving the soldiers just the kinds of meals that they want. Even ice cream, which next to pie is craved by an American palate in a strange land, can be had here.

The American meals are made all the more delightful because they are served by attractive American and English girls, who, in addition to acting as waitresses, are there to make the fighting men happy by talking with them, dancing with them and even, it is so rumored (doubtless falsely) occasionally flirting with them.
