What Does The Future Hold For You?

A young girl came to the turning point of her life. She stood at the cross-roads. Many paths led into the future; all of them beckened her with the lure of the uaknown. One held promise of fame. One called with the siren voice of riches. One insistent voice cried

One tempted her with love. In this dilemma she stood un-certain. Where should she go? Which road should she take? Once decided, she knew there could be no turning back.

Once decided, she knew there could be no turning back.

At this juncture, out of the very night, a mysterious force came to her assistance. It was a poor Hindu Yogi—a peddler who stumbled into her home in his weariness and asked for a drink of water. He brought with him all the wonderful wisdom of the East, and its ancient understanding of the human heart.

He taught her to look into her own soul. He taught her to aspire in the spirit. And by so doing he showed her the ends of the various roads which beckoned her. He revealed the future to her, and so she was enabled to choose the path to happiness.

This is the story of "Eyes of Youth." the beautiful dramatic fantasy which captivated all New York last season and ran for an entire year at the Maxine Elliott Theater. It will be presented at the Orpheum Theater on Wednesday, September 25, for an engagement of two nights and Thursday matinee, under the direction of A. H. Woods and the Messrs. Schubert. Would you also like to know what the future holds for you? Would you also like to tear aside the veil and discover the right road into the unknown years?

The way is very simple, according to Charles Guernon, who, together with Max Magein, were this evisaciliance.

Desire with a pure heart, and follow that desire," is Mr. Guernon's receipt. "Learn to price in the spirit and you cannot go wrong in your choice."

choice. It sounds very easy, doesn't it? But do you know what it means? Let Mr. Guernon explain it himself—
"It means," says Mr. Guernon, "that you have to divorce yourself from every mean, from every sordid, from every false and artificial motive. Every heart has in its depths one true and pure desire—one true, unfailing instinct towards happiness. It is a voice that calls us to our real destiny and warns us against the snares and delusions of the world. If we follow that voice, if we are true to the one deep, passionatee desire of our lives, we are safe; if not, we go the road of failure, no matter how successful we are in the eyes of others.

Splendidly enacted, Mr. Ray having a strong support, making an ideal picwitre. "In Pursuit of Pollie" is an interseting picture that is booked for the Regent for to-morrow and Thursday, Pursuig Pollie turns up some very complicated points, inasmuch as the German spy system and the U. S. Secret Service plays an important part in the program rather unexpecting in New York and Long Island, and is full of thrilling moments and true dramatic scenes. The leading part is played by the famous little star, Billie Burke.

Admiration and praise greeted the initial showing yesterday at the Victoria Theater, of the "Cleopatra" William Fox masterat the Victoria piece, "Cleopatra" and the Victoria management is being warmly congratulated for bringing this remarkable production to this city.

The production, starring Theda Bara, whose work is probably the best of her famous career, will be seen to-day, to-morrow and Thursday. The unusually reasonable prices at which this great production is being shown, in striking contrast with the admission charged elsewhere, has also caused a lot of favorable comment.

Women Replace Men as Union League Waiters

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—For the first time in the history of the Union League, women "man" all the dining rooms of its clubhouse.

On September 1, all the negro waiters, who replaced the white men last January, were dropped. Women took their places.

Only a few men were retained to serve liquors. These men are some of the older white men who remained faithful to the League when a strike threatened last winter and some of the older negroes. Women first took possession in the League last January, but were placed only in the dining room on the ground floor reserved for the wives and women relatives of League mem-

a It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use tenough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

Enola Solicitors Will Meet to Plan Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign

GEO. HORNING

Enola, Pa., Sept. 17 .- George H. Horning will again head Enola's committee of solicitors for the committee of solicitors for the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, which will open on Saturday, September 28. This appointment was made at a meeting of the county committee at Carlisle yesterday. Mr. Horning's assistants will be the same as in the three previous campaigns, although there will likely be a number of additional helpers. Cumberland county for this loan has been incorporated into a separate district, and the whole county has been systematically divided for the drive. The territory under Mr. Horning's supervision embraces only Enola to the West Fairview borough limits. Heretofore he had charge of East Pennsboro township.

In all probability the quota for Enola in this drive will most likely be double that of the last campaign, which was $50,000. A meeting of the local solicitors will be held within a few days to map out plans for the canvassing of the town. Mass meetings will be held in the schoolhouse during the progress of the drive to stimulate interest in buying bonds.
