YOU ARE WORKING, you are earning as much money as possible, in order that you may accomplish two things: First, pay your way and your obligations in the world; second, HELP TO WIN THE WAR. You can earn more money now than in peace times—and that is fortunate, for you must spend more for living expenses and you must invest to the very limit in the war loans. Nobody can afford to do less than that. It is the creed of service and duty — it is the essence of good citizenship and loyalty. If you are doing non-essential work, drop it—and find employment in a line that contributes to the war strength of the nation.
