GERMANS ATTACK ALLIES' POLICY OF WAR TRUTHS

Call Lord Northcliffe Rough Going Rascal; Forgery Is Charged by Huns

With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Thursday, Sept. 19.—Efforts made by the German high command to counteract the effect of the Allies' endeavor to express their war aims to the German people are evidenced in an order from General Von Hutler which has fallen into the hands of Americans. The order, which attacks Lord Northcliffe as a "rough-going rascal," follows: "The enemy begins to realize that we cannot be crushed by his blockade, his superiority in numbers and his force of arms. He, therefore, is trying, by trickery and underhanded methods of which he is past master, to induce in the minds of the German people doubts of their invincibility. He has founded for this purpose a special minister for the destruction of German confidence.

Attacks Northcliffe

At the head of this ministry he has put the most rough-going rascal of all the Entente, Lord Northcliffe, who has been given billions for influencing opinion in Germany.
