

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA, CITY'S SUBURBS

Military Training at Lebanon Valley College

Annville, Pa., Sept. 20.—Military work at Lebanon Valley College took on definite shape upon the arrival last evening of Lieutenant Skinner, who will have general charge. The work is under the direction of Lieutenant Williams, of Lafayette College, who has been authorized by President McCracken, regional director of the Students' Army Corps, to assist in getting the Lebanon Valley corps together.

FOUR SONS IN SERVICE.—Byron Hostick, of Marietta, has four sons in the war. Two of them have been in the United States Army for several years. Three are in France, and one in the Philippine Islands. A service flag with four stars is in his window. It attracts much attention.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—Tomorrow afternoon a Sunday school convention will be held in the Silver Springs church, at which the Rev. Charles Sayres, of Lancaster, who recently returned from the battlefields of France, will speak. Special music will be a feature.

BELLANS Absolutely Removes Indigestion. Druggists refund money if it fails. 25c

Goodbye Indigestion Gas and Sour Stomach due to hyperacidity. Peppinated Panzen not only helps to neutralize the excess acid and thereby overcome gas fermentation, dizziness, heart palpitation, etc., due to super-acid conditions but it also aids digestion by giving increased strength to the pneumatic or big stomach nerve so as to give the stomach more power to do its work.

THERE'S a real satisfaction in knowing you are getting the very best there is made in men's clothes when you buy your clothes here.

AND there's the added advantage of not paying any more than you would pay for inferior makes.

Suits For Fall and Winter $30 to $90

Schleisner's Men's Shop 28-30-32 North Third St.

Reclaiming Old Limestone Quarries Near Annville

Annville, Pa., Sept. 20.—Harry E. Millard, one of the largest limestone operators of the country, has begun the work of reclaiming the old limestone quarries west of town which were abandoned three years ago by his father, Jacob B. Millard. Mr. Millard has ordered twelve carloads of machinery. One hundred and fifty stone cars will be used and a large crusher is to be installed. The plans contemplate an increase in the working force with a view to developing the quarries to a capacity of fifty cars daily.

MRS. DAVID POWELL DIES.—Millerstown, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mrs. David Shelburn Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gable, died at her home in East Main street on Tuesday night. She was 26 years old, and is survived by her husband, David Shelburn Powell, her parents, and Mrs. Daniel Gable, three sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Rev. Victor Neahr, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial in Riverview cemetery.

CORP. BERNHEISEL MISSING.—New Bloomfield, Pa., Sept. 20.—Among the casualties on the list of September 17, is the name of Corporal Bernheisel, formerly of New Bloomfield, Ky., who is reported as missing. Corporal Bernheisel is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Bernheisel, formerly of New Bloomfield, and is a nephew of Robert N. Bernheisel, of Harrisburg, and W. F. Swartz, of New Bloomfield.

INJURED AT CAMP.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—Corporal McCulloch, of the United States Signal Corps, at Camp Cody, New Mexico, has been seriously injured, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. McCulloch, of Wrightsville. A large army truck added and struck the motorcycle on which he was riding, throwing him off. His left leg and shoulder were broken and he suffered internal injuries.

BIG ELEPHANT'S EAR.—Halifax, Pa., Sept. 20.—J. C. March, of Market street, has this year the largest plant in town commonly known as the elephant's ear. Some stems rise five feet six inches, bearing leaves 26 inches long and 22 inches wide. There are 45 leaves on the plant. Frequent applications of water cause the plant to attain such unusual proportions.

PREACHER BECOMES TEACHER.—Halifax, Pa., Sept. 20.—The Rev. J. C. Pease, besides serving Trinity Reformed church, consisting of four appointments, on Monday took up the extra duties as teacher of the Matamoras High school for a period of seven months.

MARRIED FIFTEEN YEARS.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. William Dettlinger, of Marietta, are married fifteen years to-day. Mr. Dettlinger is core manager at the National Castings Company.

WORKERS READY FOR LOAN DRIVE

Perry County District Chairmen Name Corps of Aids to Conduct Campaign

Newport, Pa., Sept. 20.—Newport people are becoming active in the interest of the approaching fourth Liberty Loan drive and promise to break all records. L. W. Brimmer, general chairman for Newport and surrounding townships, and Mrs. Edith Barton, local chairman of the Women's Committee for the same district, are making preparations and have just announced the names of their assistants.

Mr. Brimmer will have the same corps of workers under him as he has had in the three previous campaigns. They are: P. K. Brandt, First National Bank; J. B. Wilson, Citizen's National Bank; W. S. Raudenbush, Juniata Furnace and Foundry Company; J. E. Fleisher, Newport planing mill; E. M. Budington, Newport hosiery mill; J. K. Sauer, Newport shirt factory; H. A. Moore, Oak Extract Company; G. F. Bieding, Elk Tanning Company; W. T. Hanley, Pennsylvania Railroad; G. W. Barnitz, Newport schools.

Mr. Brimmer will have the same corps of workers under him as he has had in the three previous campaigns. They are: P. K. Brandt, First National Bank; J. B. Wilson, Citizen's National Bank; W. S. Raudenbush, Juniata Furnace and Foundry Company; J. E. Fleisher, Newport planing mill; E. M. Budington, Newport hosiery mill; J. K. Sauer, Newport shirt factory; H. A. Moore, Oak Extract Company; G. F. Bieding, Elk Tanning Company; W. T. Hanley, Pennsylvania Railroad; G. W. Barnitz, Newport schools.

SALE OF PROPERTIES.—Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Several properties here were sold this week, they were: the brick dwellinghouse of Harry L. Snyder, located in East Main street, for the sum of $2,500. Mr. and Mrs. Gray are going to Washington, D. C., where they will reside.

SON KILLED IN FRANCE.—Chamberburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. William Luckett, 46 West Liberty street, have received word that their son, Arthur, was killed in action in France. They are without particulars other than that he met his death in action. The young soldier enlisted in the army about 23 years old. Beside his parents he is survived by a brother, Robert, of Chamberburg, and several other brothers and sisters.

BEANSHELLING PARTY.—Dillsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—A beanshelling party was held at the home of Jacob Quitt in Franklin township on Wednesday evening. Those present, beside Mr. and Mrs. Shultz were: Park Shultz and family, of Franklin township; Mr. and Mrs. H. Shultz, M. E. Shultz and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Elrich, of Dillsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, of Harrisburg.

INDUSTRY FOR SHIPPENSBURG.—Shippensburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Another industry is planned for Shippensburg. It will be known as the Shippensburg Apparel Company and will manufacture men's, women's and children's clothing. It will be located in the Holler building, East King street, formerly occupied by the Angle Brothers, knitting mill.

Suburban Notes.—MILLERSTOWN.—Kenneth Ush, who has been in training at Plattsburg, N. Y., is hunting for several weeks, after which he will pursue his studies at Lafayette College, Easton, where he will also take military training.

DAM NEARLY COMPLETED.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—The large dam constructed across the Susquehanna river, just above here, by the York Haven Power Company will be completed in a few days. It is a massive piece of work, 300 feet in length, 100 feet wide at the base, three feet wide at the top and eight feet high. It contains more than 2,000 cubic feet of concrete. Forty thousand dollars was expended in its erection.

18,000 TONS FOR PERRY.—Liverpool, Sept. 20.—County Fuel Administrator announces that Perry county's allotment of coal for the year is 18,000 tons. Only about one-fourth of this amount has as yet been delivered to dealers, but hopes are entertained for larger shipments before cold weather arrives. Wood will aid greatly in solving the fuel problem in Perry county.

NEW RURAL CARRIER.—Halifax, Pa., Sept. 20.—The United States Post Office Department at Washington, D. C., on Tuesday announced the appointment of J. Arthur Hoffman as the new carrier on rural route No. 1, running out of the Halifax post office. Mr. Hoffman will assume his new duties on Monday, succeeding J. Clark Zimmerman.

BENJ. B. WELSH DIES.—Columbia, Pa., Sept. 20.—Benjamin B. Welsh died at the Columbia Hospital early Thursday morning, aged 55 years. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Margaret Fisher, and three brothers: Samuel and Scott, of Columbia; David, of Harrisburg; John, of Philadelphia, and William Welsh, of Spring Mills.

TRAINING CLASS TO GRADUATE.—Columbia, Pa., Sept. 20.—The teachers training class in Salome United Brethren Sunday school will graduate members at special exercises to be held on Sunday. Eight others will be graduated in normal lessons, making a total of sixteen who will receive diplomas.

TWO SONS WOUNDED.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Adam Sweet, of Rowenna, has received word that her two sons, Earl and James, have been gassed and wounded in France. Her stepson arrived safely overseas the day after the mother received word of her sons' misfortune. One of them will be brought to this country to recuperate.

COMMISSIONED LIEUTENANT.—Millerstown, Pa., Sept. 20.—Charles Kenneth Ush, who attended the officers training camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., just closed, has received an appointment as second lieutenant. Lieutenant Ush is a son of A. H. Ush, of Millerstown.

MRS. E. MELLINGER DIES.—Marietta, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Elizabeth Mellinger, aged 77 years, of Hahnstown, died Tuesday. She was a member of the Trinity United Brethren Church, and taught many years in the Sunday school. Five children, three sisters and a brother survive.

LATE NEWS FROM THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

INSTITUTE HELD AT U. B. CHURCH

Pennsylvania Branch of Missionary Association Meets at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Yesterday afternoon and evening a successful and interesting missionary institute of the Pennsylvania branch of the Woman's Missionary Association was held in the First United Brethren Church. The principal speaker of the evening was Miss Elsie Hall, general secretary of the Oberlin Guild, a girls' organization of the missionary association. Other speakers in the afternoon were: Mrs. Washington Topham, branch president; Mrs. Hostetter, of York, one of the Women's Summer School delegates, and Miss Amy Clippinger, branch secretary; Mrs. J. C. Lambert, president of the local society, presided at the meeting. Among the churches represented were the Dillsburg charge, Shiremanstown and Shepherdstown. The Missionary Association of the Dillsburg charge was well represented as the officers were present as follows: Mrs. J. C. Baker, president; Miss Anna Kinter, treasurer; Miss Alma Arnold, secretary; and Mrs. William Larue, secretary of literature.

Promoted to Major on General Staff of Army

MAJOR BOYD LEE SPAHR

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Captain Boyd Lee Spahr, of the Ordnance Department at Washington, D. C., has been promoted to the rank of Major and detailed to the General Staff. Major Spahr was a former Mechanicsburg boy and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Spahr, South Market street. Two other sons, Major Richard B. Spahr and Lieutenant Murray H. Spahr, are also in the United States service in France.

WILLIAM DICK BURIED.—Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Funeral services for William Dick were held this morning in the north Middletown Church of God and burial was made in the cemetery adjoining. Mr. Dick who was a well-known farmer of Silver Spring township, died on Tuesday afternoon. He was aged 48 years and was a member of the Church of God. His wife and the following children survive: Samuel Dick, James Dick, Harry Dick, Jacob Dick, Mrs. Jane Mellinger and Mrs. Lizzie Quiggley, all of North Middletown township and Nancy Dick and Tillie, at home.

CLASS ORGANIZES.—Shippensburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—The sophomore class of the normal school met and organized by electing the following officers: President, Marcus A. Mackley, Warfordsburg; vice-president, Edward S. Horton, Shippensburg; secretary, Rosa Barnhart, Shippensburg; treasurer, Alice McClean, Shippensburg.

Graduate of Princeton Called to Fill Pulpit

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—At a congregational meeting of the Church of God, the Rev. J. Russel Bucher was elected pastor of the church and it was agreed to give him an unanimous call. The Rev. Mr. Bucher has been filling the pulpit since the resignation of the regular pastor, the Rev. B. L. C. Baer, who is in the United States service. The Rev. Mr. Bucher is a forceful speaker and energetic pastor. He is well qualified for the work, and was graduated from Princeton College, O., and Princeton, N. J.

WINKS-ARNSBERGER WEDDING

Dillsburg, Pa., Sept. 20.—Joseph Winks, of Steelton, and Clara Arnsberger, of Dillsburg, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride on Church street, by the Rev. George H. Evieler, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Church. Mr. Winks

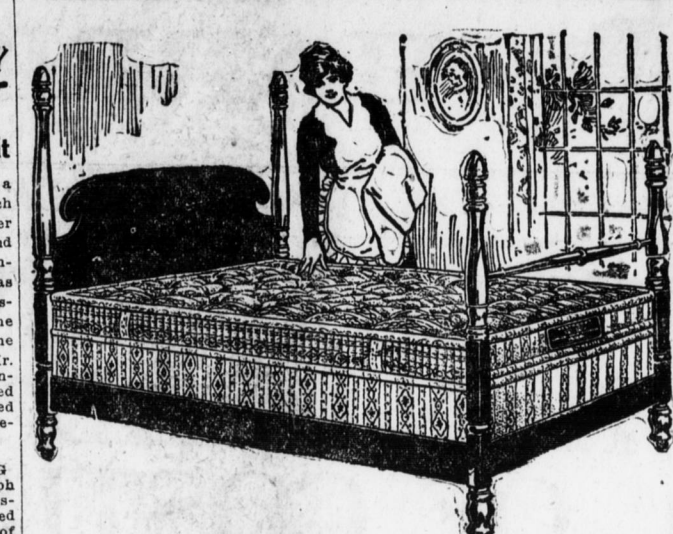

Miracle Alone Saved Him, Is Firm Opinion

Toolmaker of This City Tells of His Unexpected Recovery

"I regard my recovery as nothing short of a miracle," exclaims Henry G. Schuessler, an expert toolmaker, of 89 North Seventeenth street, Harrisburg, Pa. "I had been troubled for a long time with constipation and rheumatic gout. I finally determined to try Tanlac. Now I date my recovery from that day, for I am now free from all my ailments. My bowels are regular, my headaches are gone, my stomach has been so strengthened that it digests my food without trouble. But what delights me most is that my feet no longer bother me. The pain and swelling have gone and I am able to be up and about my work. Tanlac certainly has done wonders for me and I will never forget it."

Tanlac is now being introduced here by Gorgas' Drug Store. Tanlac is also sold in Carlisle at W. G. Stevens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Charles B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy; Mechanicsburg, H. F. Brunhouse.

left yesterday for the home of his mother, in Maryland, having received a message that she is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Winks will move to the Jacob Lehmer home on the East River road near Franklintown.

WILSON'S "RESTGOOD" SANITARY CURLED HAIR MATTRESS

THE finest of materials are used in the manufacture of the "Restgood," and it is made and guaranteed by Wilson & Co., Chicago, the world's greatest manufacturers of curled hair.

The "Restgood" weighs forty pounds and contains all new sanitary curled hair. The covering used is of the best material and can be had in stripes or art patterns.

The sides of the "Restgood" are triple stitched, and it is finished in an Imperial roll edge, features that greatly add to the wearing quality and the durability of the mattress.

Call and let us show you the "Restgood." Let us show you how it surpasses all other mattresses, and why it is the most economical mattress for you to buy.

GOLDSMITH'S North Market Square

EXTRA

A Colored Map of Russia

In this week's LITERARY DIGEST—September 21st—there is a fine, full-page colored map of Russia. This map shows in details all towns, rivers and railway lines. By its aid you can visualize the territory where the American and other allied troops are engaged with the Russian Reds.

At this moment, when events in Russia are taking on such critical importance, this map will be of great service. Accompanying the map is drawn from various sources, which will give the reader a clear understanding of the chaotic conditions in that country today. Other striking news features in this week's "Digest" are:

A Comprehensive Article On The Russian Situation

Germany's Back To the Wall

A Gleaning of German Papers, as Quoted In This Article, Shows That the Enemy Has Now Lost His Bluster and Is Protesting Loudly That He Is Flourishing His Trusty Sword Merely to Protect Himself

Sniping at the New Tax Bill

Canada's Mighty Arm The War as a Life-Saver The One-piece House at Last? Making a Stream Build Its Own Dams Back to Old Music Loves Books Our Soldiers Must Not Read The Kaiser as a Church Liability A Message to School Teachers From President Wilson

Current Poetry

Newspaper and Finance

Many Illustrations in Half-tone, and Reproductions of the Most Striking Cartoons

Read "The Digest" and Keep Up to Date

No matter how busy you may be, no matter how little time you have to spare from the rush of affairs that presses on you afresh every day, there is one duty you owe to yourself, there is one thing you can not afford not to do. That is to read THE LITERARY DIGEST faithfully every week. You can't pretend even to skim half the magazines published nowadays, but here is one it is actually vital to you to read with care. It won't take long—a couple of hours perhaps—

September 21st Number on Sale Today---All Newsdealers---10 Cents

The Literary Digest SAVE W.S.S. SERVE FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY (Publishers of the Famous NEW Standard Dictionary), NEW YORK