Navy Recruiting Stations to Open October 1st

The Navy has been allotted a quota of fifteen thousand men a month; six thousand five hundred of which will be individually inducted, that is, those men who are expected to attend training at the Naval Recruiting Station, and if found physically and technically fit will be inducted through their local board. The remaining eight thousand five hundred men will be inducted through the regular run of the draft.

A provision has also been made through which young men who are pursuing a technical course in college may enroll in the Naval Section. Naval officers will be detailed to all colleges for the purpose of examining and enrolling all applicants. This work must be completed by October, or as soon thereafter as possible. These men after being entered as apprentice seamen will don the uniform of the United States Navy and will receive a military and educational training along lines prescribed by the Navy Department. They will receive $32.00 a month and allowances for subsistence and tuition not to exceed $2.00 a day, but such allowance will conform to the amount in force for subsistence and tuition in the Army and the institution concerned. Navy Information Bureau composed of civilians have been formed in every county. Lieutenant Commanders Newton Mansfield and many others are in the process of formation. The object of these committees is to disseminate information and generally acquaint applicants with the activities of the Navy.

RUSSIAN SECRET DOCUMENTS SHOW HUN PLOTTINGS

Destructive Agents Ordered to U. S. to Employ Terrorists For Kaiser

Washington, Sept. 21.—Another convincing link in the proof that Germany was preparing to start a war of world conquest at least six weeks before the assassination of the Austrian heir apparent at Sarajevo concludes the amazing series of disclosures which the American Government has given to the public through secret documents it brought out of Russia. Two authenticated documents are included in the final chapter of the story, which began a week ago, with evidence removing any doubt that may have existed that the Russian Bolshevik government, headed by Lenin and Trotzky, is a tool of the Imperial German government. One of these is an original circular from the German general staff, dated June 9, 1914, directing that all industrial concerns be notified to open their secret instructions for industrial mobilization. Anarchists For Bomb Plots Another, dated November 20, 1914, is from the German naval general staff, and reveals that within four months after hostilities began in Europe "destruction agents" were ordered to Canada and the United States to hire anarchists and escaped criminals for the bomb plots and work of terror which finally played a part in drawing the United States into the war.

In addition to this authenticated evidence, Edgar Sisson, who obtained the papers for the Committee on Public Information, offers a remarkable group of circulars put out in Russian text at Petrograd last winter purporting to be copies of documents taken from the archives of the counter-espionage bureau of the Kerensky government, supplemented by some from the files of the same bureau before the fall of the Czar. Some of this matter has been published previously in France and in this country. The circulars tell of German arrangements six months before the outbreak of war, for the establishment of the financial agencies in bordering neutral countries which later furnished the money for the operations of the Bolsheviks; of orders to German banks to establish close and secret relations with American and Finnish banks; of the launching of revolutionary propaganda against the Czar's government in Russia as early as November, 1914, and of instructions to German diplomats in all neutral countries to co-operate with agencies set up in those countries for stirring up social unrest, strikes and sentiment against war within the enemy states. Socialist Leader Involved The name of Scheidemann, the German Socialist leader, already mentioned as involved in the dealings with the Bolsheviks, appears attached to one of the unauthenticated documents. It is a note announcing that 150,000 kroners have been placed to the credit of a Russian newspaper, and asking that Vorwarts (the name of Scheidemann's organ at Berlin) be advised of what appeared in the subsidized journal. An appendix to the concluding installment is what purports to be a transcript of an unique telegraphic conversation between Tchitcherin, now Bolshevik foreign minister at Petrograd, and Trotzky, at Brest-Litovsk last February, a few days before Trotzky made his notorious "no-peace-no-war" play. Tchitcherin is quoted as promising a separate peace by which Russia would not cause a rupture with the Allies and saying that England and America are "playing up to us separately."

SEVEN BRITISH HOLD POSITION FOR TWO DAYS

By Associated Press

London, Sept. 21.—A British detachment of seven men was surrounded and believed to have been captured when the Germans took Moeuvres. Their post was in the northern part of the village and they held it with great gallantry for two days, during the German occupation, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. When the village was retaken the entire party rejoined its unit without loss.

INTERESTING MEETINGS

A series of evangelistic meetings is being conducted at the Grace United Evangelical Church, Enola, by the pastor, the Rev. H. M. Buck and assisting ministers. There is good singing and a practical sermon each evening, touching things of vital interest to all. Frequent reference is made to the spirit and teachings of the present day. Time of meetings are 7.30.

Brisbane Financed For Protection of Brewers

New York, Sept. 21.—C. W. Felts, enspan, president of the United Brewers' Association, last night made public a letter to Senator King, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on the judiciary, in which he "frankly and freely confessed" that the association furnished Arthur Brisbane funds to finance the latter's chase of the Washington Times.

He further admitted that the association and the brewing interests generally, have maintained lobbyists at Washington and in various state capitals, "whose business it was to try, where possible, to protect us and checkmate those representing the opposition to our industry." He denied vigorously, however, charges of dilatory or pro-Germany methods personally and on behalf of the association, and asked that he be permitted to appear before the subcommittee for questioning, without limit, on all the charges involved in the communication regarding the purchase of the Washington Times sent to Senator King by Arthur Brisbane, alien property custodian. He "frankly and freely admitted" that the brewers, in common with every other industry and every other business in the country, have tried to get before the public every fact that we felt fairly favored the preservation of our business, even to the extent of supplying the finances for the initial payment on the Washington Times.

Seven Candidates For Supreme Court

Charles B. Lenahan, of Wilkes-Barre, and Edwin M. Abbott, of Philadelphia, to-day filed nominating petitions to be candidates for the Supreme Court vacancies to be filled in November. Mr. Lenahan's papers, which were filed just before the office closed for the week, were signed by residents of fourteen counties throughout the state. Mr. Abbott had also a number of counties beyond the number required. These two filings increase the number of candidates to seven, those having filed being: Justices Alexander Simpson, Jr., and E. J. Fox, Henry Budd, A. V. Dively and J. W. Bouton.
