PUPIL BREAKS TEACHER'S ARM

Reedsville Boy Gets Off With Fine and Costs For Brutal Act

Lewisport, Pa., Sept. 23.—Charged with being an unruly pupil and with having struck Miss Livingston on her arm with such force as to break the bone, Dinamore Knepp, aged 13 years, was given a hearing before Magistrate Hamaker. He plead guilty and was released upon payment of a fine and the costs.

The attack on the teacher, who is employed in the Reedsville schools, occurred several days ago. The boy started to leave the schoolroom without permission and the teacher tried to detain him when he struck her.

JAPANESE CABINET RESIGNED

Tokio, Sept. 23.—The Japanese Cabinet, headed by Field Marshal Count Terauchi, which had held office since October, 1916, resigned Saturday.

Gettysburg Professor in American Red Cross Work

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—Prof. John K. Lamond, head of the department of mathematics at Gettysburg College, has been granted leave of absence for the period of the war to enable him to continue his work for the American Red Cross. Professor Lamond has been the Red Cross field director at Camp Colt this summer and will probably remain here until the camp is closed for the winter.

During his absence the department of mathematics will be in charge of Professor W. L. G. Williams, late of the department of mathematics at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, who has been secured to serve here until Mr. Lamond's return.

EXCUSED FROM JURY DUTY

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 23.—At the opening of Northumberland county criminal court today Judge Cummings excused all jurors engaged in farm work or mining, who asked exemption. The court has set down the principle that whenever a juror is needed for an essential occupation he will be excused, if possible.

Military Field Mass For Camp Colt Men

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Rev. W. W. Whalen, rector of St. Ignatius Catholic Church in the Buchanan valley, held a military field mass yesterday in the woods near the church, being assisted by soldiers from Camp Colt. St. Ignatius is one of the oldest churches in the Harrisburg diocese, the present structure being over one hundred years old. The Harrisburg diocese is just fifty years old, and Father Whalen took this way of celebrating the golden jubilee. The day was in charge of the Knights of Columbus and members of the order came from Harrisburg, Lancaster, York, Chambersburg and other towns along the line.

BIG POTATO YIELD

Martintown, Pa., Sept. 23.—From one acre of ground, William Barley of Martin township, got 140 bushels of potatoes, the largest yield in Lancaster county. He used no phosphate, but grew them with manure. In his estimation with a season as dry as the present one was, potato is more of a detriment than a help to the potato crop.

Cumberland Valley AEROPLANES FOR CARLISLE FAIR

Three Army Machines Scheduled to Fly in Interest of Fourth Liberty Loan

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Carlisle Fair, the oldest continuous exhibition of its kind in the country, will open tomorrow with patriotic features forming a big part of the program. Thursday will be the big day and on that date three aeroplanes from Mineola will fly in the interests of the Fourth Liberty Loan and there will be an address by Private Paul M. Jones, of Pershing's Army, in valedictory to this country.

In addition there will be a monster Liberty Sing led by massed bands. The Council of National Defense will be in general charge. At the fair the work of the Liberty Loan Committee and War Savings organization will be presented.

A novel plan will be introduced for the girls of the Carlisle Wings Stamps by the girls of the Carlisle and Lancaster Military Service Corps. Every purchaser of a stamp will receive a small card entitling him to some rank in the "Brigade Reserves," an organization to back up the boys at the front. These run from "private" for the purchase of one Thrift Stamp to "marshal" for any one buying the limit.

Y. M. C. A. Worker, Home From Camp, Fills Pulpit

THE REV. R. L. C. BAER

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—Before a crowded church, the Rev. R. L. C. Baer, former pastor of the Church of God, delivered the sermon yesterday morning from the text, "Thou Wilt Guide Me With Thy Counsel." The Rev. Mr. Baer resigned his pastorate to enter Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Dix, and at present is home on a furlough. He is enthusiastic in his work and a successful worker among men. Yesterday morning he taught his former Bible class in Sunday school in which are enrolled more than one hundred members. As it was Honor Roll service, a letter was read from a member of the school, Sergeant Robert Fish, of the Machine Gun Company, One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry, now at the battle front in France.

With the Rev. Mr. Baer was Mr. Robinson, general Y. M. C. A. director of Camp Dix, who assisted in the service and gave an interesting address. The choir rendered special music in church, where the service was in charge of the pastor, the Rev. J. Russell Bucher, and in the evening the edifice was again filled to overflowing, when the Rev. Mr. Baer addressed the congregation on "The Y. of the Y. M. C. A."

MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Emma Leas, a well-known resident of Mechanicsburg, has received an announcement of the marriage of her grandson, Sergeant Leas Loshbaugh and Miss Ida Mae Frann, both of Rifle, Colo. The young couple were married at San Diego, Cal., while Sergeant Loshbaugh was stationed at Camp Kearny. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crann and Mrs. Loshbaugh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Loshbaugh, the latter, formerly Miss Laura Leas, of Mechanicsburg. Sergeant and Miss Frann will live at Little Rock, Ark., where the former is stationed at Camp Pike.

WILL PICK APPLES

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—The local Red Cross women will be closed next week on account of being entirely out of gauze material. All gauze for Red Cross work must come direct from the Red Cross headquarters at Philadelphia, and the Waynesboro branch has placed an order for six thousand yards, but as yet it has not been received. The women are now closed for one week and a number of the Red Cross women say that they will spend the week helping the apple growers in this section.

FINED FOR STEALING PEACHES

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—Edward Hartman and Frank Byrd, both of Harrisburg, were before Justice Ferguson, Smithsburg, Md., and each was fined $10 and costs of $4.32 for which they paid. The two men went with a team to the orchard of S. Jason Geiser, north of Smithsburg, and took three bushels of peaches from the trees, but did not get away with them. One bushel they had placed in their wagon.

ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Rev. J. C. Coulson, who has been pastor of the Otterbein United Brethren church, this city, for the past three years, has been elected superintendent for the district comprising Franklin and Adams counties. This will possibly cause the Rev. Mr. Coulson to give up his charge here.

CASE OF PARALYSIS

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—A case of infantile paralysis has been discovered here. Willis H. Valentine, son of Mrs. S. C. Valentine, this city, is suffering from the disease. The unfortunate victim is 17 years of age, and both legs and one arm are affected. This is the only case in Waynesboro.

BIG LOAN QUOTA

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—The committee to launch the Fourth Liberty Loan drive here will certainly have to hustle to secure the amount as it will tax them to their limit. The allotment of Liberty Bonds to Waynesboro is given as being $1,380,000.

SERIES OF MEETINGS

Carlisle Pa., Sept. 23.—A series of patriotic meetings will be held by the Department of Four-Minute Men of the Cumberland County Council of National Defense next week. They will reach all sections of the county with special meetings to be addressed by Captain W. G. Vint, of the British Army, at Mechanicsburg, Shippenburg and Newville.

ANNVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blouch spent several days at Philadelphia. John Yocum, Mrs. John Livingston and Mrs. Frank Renno, of Harrisburg, spent a day here the guest of John L. Sayler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, of Hebron, spent a day here.

Miss Nancy M. Kreider, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider, left on Monday for Wellesley College.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowers received a letter from their son, Rush, who has made his eleventh trip across the ocean.

Miss Elizabeth Gallatin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gallatin, of this place, left for Romney, West Virginia, where she is one of the teachers in the high school. Miss Gallatin is a graduate of Lebanon Valley College, class of 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Lehman, of Detroit, Mich., who were the guests of the former's parents here, left for home on Friday.

The Home Study Circle of Annaville, was entertained at the home of Miss Mary Shunk and Mrs. Emma Ulrich, on Friday.

William E. Herr, connected with the Navy Y. M. C. A. at Hopewell, Virginia, is spending some time here as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Herr, of College avenue.

Miss Louise Kreider has been appointed preceptor of the women's dormitory at Lebanon Valley College to succeed Miss Reba F. Lehman, who has accepted a government position.

Miss Kathryn Boltz, of Lebanon, spent several days here the guest of her parents.

Misses Anna and Elizabeth Clauser, of Washington, D. C., spent a short time here.

Congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider and daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, have returned to their home here after a week's stay at Washington, D. C.

MILLER FAMILY GIVES ELEVEN

Two Sons in Service, Two in Deferred Class and Seven More Register

New Oxford, Pa., Sept. 23.—This little town now claims to have the record of a family of more sons eligible for Uncle Sam's service than almost any other in the land. On the twelfth of this month seven stalwart sons of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller presented themselves for registration and enrollment in the great fight for democracy. In addition to these seven, two sons are now in the service, with two others under deferred classification, making a grand total of eleven.

Lieutenant Warren Miller has been overseas for some time and is now wearing the glorious stripe which indicates wounded in action. Sergeant Cloyd Miller expects soon to get into real action as a sharpshooter. Guy and West Miller are married and have been given deferred classification, the former being employed by the Pennsylvania Electric Company and Harold Miller has yet to reach manhood, but are over eighteen and they are keen to get a shot at the Hun. The other five sons to enroll are Frank, Charles G., W. Haber, Mark and Ralph W. Miller.

Father and mother are proud of their boys, which they have a perfect right to be. Not to be outdone by their brothers, the Misses Eliza and Lydia Miller and Mrs. Nina Faulkner are just as busy as they can be sewing for the Red Cross.

BRAKEMAN LOSES LEG

DR. HOCKER FILLS PULPIT

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Rev. Dr. M. P. Hocker, of Middletown, occupied the pulpit of Trinity Lutheran Church yesterday, owing to the absence of the pastor, the Rev. H. Hall Sharp in Philadelphia in the interest of war work.

HOME FROM WASHINGTON

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 23.—Miss Mena D. Mentzer, for seven years stenographer and bookkeeper in the office of the Daily Herald, this city but now employed at Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Mentzer.

Sunbury to Vote on Purchase of Light Plant

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 23.—Sunbury Council, at a special meeting, decided to put to a vote of the people at the November election the matter of taking over the Northumberland County Gas and Electric Company's electric plant here. The sum of $225,000 must be borrowed to finance the proposition, according to a physical valuation made by a firm of electrical engineers. They also reported that they were refused admission to the monopoly's plant and asserted that at present income rates would be reduced from ten cents to seven cents a kilowatt and that the plant would be free of debt in twenty years at present rate of income, not including normal growth of business. Sunbury Businessmen's Association are backing the movement.

DELEGATE TO CONVENTION

Hummelstown, Sept. 23.—Albert H. Hummel has been elected the delegate and Adam G. Shope the alternate of Zion Lutheran Church to attend the seventy-seventh convention of the East Pennsylvania Synod, which will be held at St. Mark's English Lutheran Church at Trenton, N. J., over October 7-11.

GREAT OLD REMEDY FOR SKIN DISEASES

S. S. S. Clears Skin of Eruptions, Drives Poisons From the System

Get it fixed in your mind that skin eruptions, Scrofula, Eczema, burning, itching skin, and all skin diseases are due entirely to impure and infected blood. If the trouble was on the outside of the skin, by simply washing and keeping it clean you could obtain relief—not even ointments, lotions, and salves would be necessary. Agree with us in this belief, and your trouble can be relieved—you can be entirely restored to health. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable treatment that you can secure from your own druggist—it is a blood tonic that will purify your blood and cause a most decided

ARNOLD-MENGLE WEDDING

Liverpool, Sept. 23.—A home wedding was celebrated on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mengle, in Front street, when their daughter, Myrtle, was married to B. Arnold by the Rev. G. H. Knox, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride was a member of class '18 of the local High school, a talented musician and prominent in the social circles of town.
