SOLDIERS AND SAILORS ENJOY WEEK-END AT HOSTESS HOUSE

The Civic Club is beginning to be regarded as a week-end home by the soldier boys who have taken advantage of the hospitality of the Hostess House. The dances and entertainments are quite a diversion from the every-day routine of a "Sammies" and "Jackies" life, and the refreshments, contents of the cooky jar presided over by Mrs. William Jennings, and supper served at the club, are also quite different from any rations.

Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. Edward L. Dunlap, assisted the host tesses, Mrs. William E. Balley, Mrs. Edgar F. Everhart, of Lemoyne, and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe were the hostesses Saturday night. Miss Anaic Maria Fletcher, Miss days Bradley, Mrs. Walter Gaither and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe were the hostesses Saturday night. Miss Anna Gay Bradley, Mrs. Walter Gaither and Mrs. Sanford D. At the Dance

A number of girls were invited to help entertain at the dance. When the whistle blew everyone joined hands and formed a circle for a rousing "Paul Jones." Very soon all restraint or bashfulness, if any was felt, had flown to the winds and the young people had a jolly social time. Among those invited to the dance were:

Is Seriously Wounded in Action With 112th

Robert Anthony Martin, 266 Calder street, was seriously wounded in action August 8, according to a message received by his mother, Mrs. G. W. Martin, to-day. A letter dated August 10 was recently received by Mrs. Martin in which her son said he was in rest camp for a few hours. He praised the work of the boys, saying they were doing finely.

Martin was a first-class private in the Machine Gun Company of the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry, enlisting in May of last year and camping at Mount Gretna and on the island here. He was transferred to Camp Hancock last year and several months ago went across to France. He was a machinist at the W. O. Hickok Manufacturing Company and had many friends in the city. Another brother is in the service also. he was in rest camp for a few hours.
