INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS What the Y. W. C. A. Does Girls' High School Club For the Army and Navy Meets in Boyd Hall The Y. W. C. A. War Work Coun-cli has puts 'is resources at the serv-ice of the War Department Com-mission on training camp activities. The council maintains ninety-one hostess houses in Army, Navy and aviation earnps, thirteen of them for colored troops. It makes a "bit of home within the camp," off hours for the men, visit-ing days for mothers, friends and babies. Special aid to the foreign-born in their home tongues helps cheerful service beneath the fag: The Girls' High School Club will hold its regular meeting to hight at the Y. W. C. A. in Boyd Hall. Some of the girls who were at Camp Negah-win during the month of June, will give reports this evening. Miss Grace Peake, president of the club, will speak about "Morning Worship:" Miss Margaret Martz, "Flagraising;" Miss Ferne Hoffstot, "Delegation Commit-ce;" Miss Katherine Bitner, "Bible Classes." Reports will also be made on "vesper service," "recreation," and other features of the camp life. LOCAL GIRL WEDS IN CALIFORNIA

ALL ARE WELCOME TO CONFERENCE

Industrial Committee of the Y. W. C. A. Schedules Meetings With Timely Topics

A conference is planned by the industrial committee of the Y. W. C. A., with Miss Lois G. Scott, secretary, to be held in the Y. W. C. A. building, Fourth and Walnut streets tary, to be held in the Y. W. C. A. building. Fourth and Walnut streats the streat in the conference is in the edity interested to them or cordial lives. The industrial committees of York, Hershey and Lancaster Y. W. C. A.'s have been invited to the conference.

The program includes: Thursday, October 3, 5 p. m., 'Making Both, The streat and Mrs. Adolph Kapner, of the industrial committee of the conference.
Make Cronise Jones, chairman of the industrial committee of Y. W. C. A.'-that was addentee of Y. W. C. A. 'Thursday, October 3, So Clock: 'The Relicious Appeal of Industrial Work,' Miss Lace, the adaption of the streat on the with the tothe was the origin. The streat manual states, the industrial Work,' Miss Lace, the adaption of the streat on the with the tothe mark the relies of the first were chasen and was, September 25, an Francisco.
Mas A Esterna, Y. W. C. A. Thursday, October 3, So Clock: 'The Relicious Appeal of Industrial Work,' Miss Lace, in the streat and Mas, September 25, an mere adaption of the streat on the wint at the hotel brains of the P. B. P. So cleaty of 18 initiated three '19 girls at the streat streat the Hotel P. B. P. So cleaty of 18 initiates New Members at the hotel of the streat the the streat the streat the hotel of the streat the hotel work and Viola Showyers of the prevention in the streat streat of the streat on the streat of the streat of the streat on the streat stread company. Pitts and the streat stread company. Fitts and the streat stread the stread stread the stread the stread stread the stread the stread the stread the stread the stread stread the stread the stread stread the stread the stread stread the stread stread the stread stread the str

Have Your Old Clothes Ready For

The French and Belgian Relief Committee

308 Market Street

strich's

SET.

Honor Guest at Party

Miss Mary Harris, of 221 North Second street, entertained Saturday night at her home at a card party in honor of Miss Caroline Roth, who leaves this week for her new home, in Buffalo. The guests were: Miss Caro-line Roth, Miss Virginia Wallis, Miss Emily Sites, Miss Mary Frances Rockefeller, Miss Virginia Wallis, Miss Florence Frank, Miss Ellen Har-ris. Miss Mary Harris. They spent the evening with cardis, and prize-winners were: Miss Caroline Roth, Miss Florence Frank and Miss Mary Frances Rockefeller, A lafe luncheon was sedved to the girls. White cards, engraved with service stars, were used as place-cards.

For Miss Haverstick

Farewell Dinner Party

Penna. R. R. Women Clear Large Sum For War Work

By the liberal contributions and patronage of friends and members of the Women's Pennsylvania Rail-road War Relief and the Red Cross road War Relief and the Red Cross Society, a chicken cornsoup supper held at Hoover's Park, Rockville, Saturday evening, cleared $177.50. Mrs. James W. Miller and her effi-cient committee are proud to hand over this amount, part to the local Red Cross and part to the Woman's • Relief for their wool fund. The committee included Mrs. Felty, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Kauffman, Mrs. Miller Miss Adams and Mrs. Rudy.

and the party will spend the week at The Dennis, in Atlantic City. YOUNG LIEUTENANT VOITS Lieut. John R. Ross, of Clarion, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Patrick, 817 North Second street, was in the city for a few days on his way home after attending the Platts-burg officers training camp. Lieut. Ross was a student at Harrisburg Academy two years ago and last year was a student at State College. He is only 20 years of age and came away from Plattsburg with a lieu-tenant's commission in his pocket.

 Missionary Convention at Fifth Street Church
The Philadelphia Branch of the Work wents Foreign, Missionary Social invitation of the work wents Foreign, Missionary Social invitation is set terized in the Attached to Ease Hospital No. 70.
Miss Martha Irwin, of this city, has received notification of the safe poral John W. Swartz. Corporal wartz enlisted in the aviation corps here December, 1917, leaving time. hare december, 1917, leaving time hare tables at hows, Paxtonia, left to-day for New york for a university where sheat as playing the role of "Liftle Butter top," in "Pinafore" when present as playing the role of "Liftle Butter top," in "Pinafore" when present as playing the role of "Liftle Butter top," in "Pinafore" when present top," in " TAKES NEW POSITION The State Department of Health in the State Department of Health is possible to the Hotel Weimer, in Leb-by the Central High School class of in, at Mt. Greena last Sammer. INJURED BY FALL Mrs. Harry

TO TEACH IN INDIA

Miss Edna Engle, of 2039 Green street, a member of the faculty of Central High school for several years, left yesterday for the Pacific coast. She will sail soon for India to teach in a mission school. Miss Engle has signed a seven-year con-tract.

TO ENTER OBERLIN COLLEGE

RETURN HOME

ARRIVES OVERSEAS Lieutenant G, L. Laverty, formerly of 404 North Third street, cables that the has arrived safely overseas. He is attached to Base Hospital No. 70.

Paris, Sept. 24. — When John D. "Brien, 1927 Master street, Philadel-hia, who recently arrived in France or field service with the Knights of human strength of the service with the the strength of the service with the service with the service roots nurse, who was not provided vith a reservation, he did not intend o get into the "hero" class, but the 'rench journals have learned of the ncident and O'Brien and twenty other figlings of Columbus secretaries, who mulated his example, are obtaining lmost as much publicity as General "och."

when twenty-one Red Cross urses, who had been provided with omfortable berths for the voyage, rrived in France, they presented to ne twenty-one Knights of Colum-us secretaries, who had slep on deck, yolume of Tennyson's Idylls, with is inscription: "To the finest men of France, who all the Red Cross urses love." The presentation was made by The presentation was made by delen claffrey, in charge of the Red Cross unit.

HELD FOR THEFT

Harry Nelson, 1111 North Seventh street, is in the toils of the police on the charge of stealing a suit of clothes from Mrs. Nathan, who conducts a pawnshop and a second-hand store in Aberdeen street. He was given a hearing this afternoon.

COME TO THE PYTHIAN

HOME COMMITTEE

GRAND BAZAAR

October 24 and 25

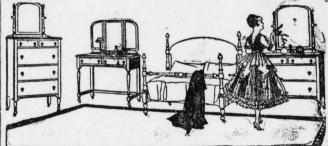

AT THE ARMORY Second and Forster Streets Guaranteed Furniture At Cut-Rate Prices

is what you get when you buy here. We will refund your money if not satisfied with any purchase. And as to the cut-rate price-no other store except such as ours with low-running expense could even compare prices with ours. We save you at least 20 per cent. on every purchase. We have saved many customers as much as 50 per cent. in some instances.

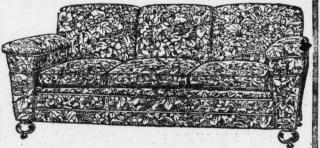

The following are specials for this week:

American Walnut Bedroom Suite, William and Mary Period, with either poster bed or panel bed, 4 pieces, elegantly finished. $150.00 Special

Overstuffed Tapestry Davenports, loose spring cushions, deep spring seats, backs and arms; 78

A Sale of Serge Dresses at $15^{.00} A Record Value-Giving Event

> While we do not quote comparative values, the very fact that we do say "Sale" speaks volumes. Included in the lot at the low price of $15.00 are plain-tailored and braided models-accordion-pleated styles with basque effects-box panel models, as well as the new collarless creations.

Braid and buttons embellish many of these elegant Dresses.

Of course, the color is Navy. Some few are combinations of Serge and Silk or Satin.

AWonderfulArrayof Women'sSuitsats25

A number of friends gave a fare-well party last evening for Miss Faye Haverstick, who leaves Wednesday morning for Cambridge to enter Sar-gent Physical Training School. They motored to Grantville, where a chicken and waffle supper had been prepared. Chicken and where: Miss Faye Hav-In the party were: Miss Faye Hav-erstick, Miss Mildred Runkle. Miss Helen Runkle, Miss Fannie Benson, Miss Pauline Miller, Miss Margaret Hassler, Miss Grace Robinson, Mrs. Morris Fernsler, Mrs. A. R. Haase, Mrs. Edward Haverstick and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Runkle. LETTER CARRIER FALLS W. H. Band Jr., of 151 Balm street, letter carrier, 32 years old, has a broken arm received in a fall "ipping over a water pipe at the Post Office.

GUESTS OF SOLDIER Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Reel, their daughter, Miss Emma Reel, of 1435 Berryhill street and Miss Harriett E. Bricker, 1905 North Seventh street, have returned home after a week-end visit with Private C. Irvin Reel, who is stationed at Camp Holabird, Maryland. BROMOTION IN ARMY The many friends of Chester M. Martin will be pleased to hear of his promotion to first lieutenant in the San Atonio, Texas. He was a gradu-ate of the Officers Training Camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., in November, 1917.

Miss Annetie Alger Balley, of Front and South streets, leaves early next week to attend St. Timothy's school, Catonsville, Md. Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings and her daughter, Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, Jr., of Bellefonte, have taken the Hickok residence, 508 North Second street, for the winter. C. Linford Scott, who was quite ill at his home, 802 North Seventeenth street, is able to be out and attend to business again.

Knights of Pythias and Friends

INJURED BY FALL Mrs. Harry Aucker, 2724 Jefferson the several weeks ago stepped in a hole in the ground, badly spraining her ankle and tearing the ligaments to such an extent, that she is com-pelled to walk about the house on crutches. Her many friends hope for for her speedy recovery. NURSES ADD

Takes Daughter to School

on Way to Atlantic City

Mrs. Frank Payne, of 1901 North

Front street, accompanied her daughter, Miss Nelle Powell Payne, who will attend Shipley School this year, to Bryn Mawr to-day. The Misses Ruth and Katharine Payne and Miss Elizabeth Knisely, of Front and Maclay streets, will meet Mrs. Payne in Philadelphia Wednesday and the party will spend the week

YOUNG LIEUTENANT VISITS

Not a Suit in the lot but what was made to sell at much higher prices. Suits of Poplin, Serge and, Velours-ripple-back and plain tailored conceptions, with many style innovations to please every taste.

All are elegantly tailored. Green, Navy, Black, Grey, Taupe, Burgundy and Checks.

Georgette Blouses at $5.98

New arrivals-square-neck models with collars of filet lace-plain-tailored and high-neck styles-vest effects with Val. lace trimmings-all styles in white and flesh.

Also a charming new creation in Navy, with white satin collar- round neck model.

Crepe de Chine Blouses at $5.98

A wonderful showing of them-square neck model, with sailor collar and large tucked front-beaded and embroidered models and plain-tailored effects with convertible collars that can be worn either high or low-each of these styles in white or flesh.

We also mention specially a new model in Gray and Navy-round neck, slip-on effect-embroidered.

.

Ar. Severance for an extemporaneous talk. He again impressed in the stu-dent body the necessity of 100 per cent. subscriptions from every room. Election of officers for the first term of the Senior class will be held to-morrow. Those on the present ticket for class officers are Ross S. Hoffman, George Pulas and Alton Smith, who are running for president. Miss Frances Todd, Miss Eleanor Eby and Miss Elizabeth Brown are after the office of secretary. Ross S. Hoffman will entertain the H. A. Soclety of Central to-morrow night at his home, ' 210 Hamilton street. At present the society con-sists of only the six charter members, but four new men will be taken in. Those to be initiated to-morrow night are Louis Riner, Alton Smith, Dick Quigley and Robert Crist.

RIGHTLY

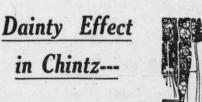

GLASSES Correctly fitted glasses means areful adjustment to your nose. The center of lenses and eyeballs just be in perfect alignment.

An Important Factor In Our Expert Optical Service D.O mal Eyesight Specialist 26 NORTH THIRD STREET Schleisner Building

FUNERAL FLOWERS FITTED

LT. WILLIAM F. HOY

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Hoy, 318 South Seventeenth street, received word from their son, William F. Hoy, who was first class sergeant in the Q. M. C., stationed at Camp Han-cock, Augusta. Gæ, that he has received the commission of sec-ond lieutenant and has been trans-ferred to Camp Sheridan. Montgom-ery, Ala. Lieutenant Hoy is a gradu-ate of Central High School, class 1911, and the Wharton School of Fi-nance, 1917.

cretonne, etc., especially suited for the guest room. Here the guest in seeking a quiet hour, finds opportunity for reflection upon the artistic points as well as the physical comforts of the room.

Our assortments cover a wide range in all the latest styles and most dainty effects, and the prices are no more than you would pay elsewhere.

> THE BLAKE SHOP Interior Decorations 225 North Second St.