

Keystone State Youths Make Up Big Percentage of Yanks Taken by Huns

Washington, Sept. 24. — Included among the names of sixty-seven Yanks located in German prison camps, announced late yesterday by the War Department, are twenty-two Pennsylvanians. Central Pennsylvanians who have been taken by the Huns and sent to camps include Private William Dever, Jr., of Shippenburg, who is at Camp Dornum, near Erters, York county, who is located at some unknown camp. The full list of Pennsylvanians with the names of the camps at which they are located, is appended.

TEACHERS ARE NEEDED AT HOME

State Authorities Seeking Deferred Classifications For Them From Army

The State Board of Education has asked the military authorities to have military deferments given to teachers under the draft because of what is termed "the serious educational situation arising in the State." It is claimed they are not only needed now because of the shortage of teachers, but will be required to help meet conditions arising after the war.

The board is also preparing bills to be presented to the next Legislature calling for a $20,000,000 minimum appropriation for the common schools and arrangements to permit a 25 per cent. increase in the salaries of teachers as well as allowances for the teachers' retirement fund and for school consolidations.

Attended Funeral—Colonel John B. Patrick, of the State Department and treasurer of the Meade Memorial Monument Commission, has returned from Philadelphia, where he attended the funeral of Colonel John W. Frazier, secretary of the commission, who died suddenly on Tuesday. Colonel Frazier was the originator of the project for the Meade memorial statue in Washington, for which the sculpture model was recently approved by the Fine Arts Commission. Work will soon be started. There is much regret that the colonel did not live to see the memorial completed.

Uniform Accounts—As the result of a conference held here between representatives of water companies operating in Pennsylvania and Coleman J. Joyce, chief of the bureau of accounts of the Public Service Commission, the state authorities will issue a series of suggestions to the companies for starting the uniform system of accounts arranged by the commission to start on January 1. Every water company in the state is to start the new system on the first of the year, when it is also hoped to have electric and natural gas companies install uniform systems. The final details of the system for the natural gas companies have just been read and will be issued by the end of the month by Mr. Joyce, who is in conference with representatives of the companies in this state, Ohio, New York and West Virginia. The electric companies have filed a brief in regard to the system suggested for that class of service.

Want More Police—Efforts are being made by the State Police Department to enlist men for each of the four troops as the membership in that organization has fallen to one of the lowest points because of the men going to war. Most of the men whose terms of enlistment have expired the last year have entered the military service or become special policemen for corporations and municipalities.

Subpena Refused—The Public Service Commission has refused to issue a subpena to permit the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company, to examine books of the Philadelphia Electric Company, in the complaint against the electric company's new rates, but gives the complainant the right to look over them at Philadelphia. The issuance of a subpena would have meant bringing many books and papers here.

Separate Fund—Under an opinion rendered by Emerson Collins, deputy attorney general, it is held that the State National War Industries Fund is not required to have disbursements made from premiums for compensation insurance submitted to the auditor general.

Rates Await Up—Complaint was made to-day before the Public Service Commission by the borough of Frackville that the new rates of the Mountain City Water Company, were unreasonable. It was alleged that the increase for 672 customers amounted to 66 2-3 per cent. and for 259, 46 per cent. The commission will require an answer. The borough of Edgeworth complained of the new rates of the Edgeworth Water Company.

To Boss Police—Myron E. Simons, district attorney of Wayne county, has been made superintendent of State Police for that county.

Uncle Sam to Inspect—Highway Commissioner O'Neil announced to-day that the National War Industries officials had arranged to send an inspector to Pennsylvania to discuss projects for road construction and to make some inspections of proposed improvements in this state which the Highway Department is anxious to undertake. The situation in Pennsylvania was submitted yesterday at Washington by Mr. O'Neil and George S. Oliver, of Pittsburgh, in charge of regional matters in western Pennsylvania.

To Open Meeting—James Sweeney, state chief of standards, will open the sixth annual convention of inspectors of weights and measures tomorrow at the capitol. The convention will last three days and discuss present conditions, national regulations, experiences of inspectors and proposed legislation.

Nine in Field—With the filing of nomination papers to-day for supreme court election by Judge John W. Kephart, of the superior court, and J. J. Kintner, of Lock Haven, there are nine candidates for the two seats on the appellate bench. They are Justices E. J. Fox and Alexander Simpson, Jr., A. V. Dively, J. W. Bouton, Henry Budd, Edwin M. Abbott, Charles B. Lenahan and the two who filed to-day. The time for filing ends on Thursday. Each voter can cast a ballot for but one person and the non-partisan supreme court ticket will appear on the regular ballot, but in a separate space from party tickets.

Fares Go Down—The Sayre Electric Company operating in Bradford county, has filed notice of increase of rates, including twenty per cent. added to both the service charge and the kilowatt charge for residential classes, while the Johnstown Traction Company, has filed notice of elimination of transfers on some lines and various changes in fares, including one ten cent fare instead of six and a decrease from six to five on all points on all city lines.

Nominees Change—Fletcher W. States to-day filed a withdrawal as Washington party candidate for Congress in the Bucks-Montgomery district. He is still the Prohibition nominee, having received fourteen votes as Democratic candidate for Congress in the 17th district. George R. North, East Brandywine township, Chester county, has been substituted as Republican legislative candidate in that county for Captain S. A. Whitaker, who is in France with his battery and Philip H. Crockett as Republican legislative candidate in the 25th Philadelphia district to replace Harry A. Fricke, who withdrew.

Kun to Argue—Deputy Attorney General J. L. Kun has been designated to represent the state at the hearing in Philadelphia to test the right of building and loan associations to invest surplus in Liberty bonds. The state filed a petition to intervene in the proceedings and the hearing will be held Friday.

State Work Endorsed—The Commissioner of Health is in receipt of a letter from Doctor I. D. Metzgar, secretary of the Homeopathic Medical Society of Pennsylvania, advising him that their society under date of September 19th unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing the activities of the State Department of Health with reference to the control and prevention of venereal diseases.

Jersey Voting Today For High Place Ticket

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 24. — New Jersey's voters are voting to-day to select Republican and Democratic candidates for United States Senator, Congress, state senators, assemblymen and many county and municipal officers.

The greatest interest centers in the United States Senatorial situation. The campaign has been a most unusual one, both Governor Edge and George M. La Monte, former Banker and Insurance Commissioner, who has the support of the Democratic state organization having had active opponents while neither took the stump in his own behalf.
