don't know how to do anything but heat. The sins of smoking and smelling have been banished from their make-up long ago. They stand in a corner, out of the way, ready to make any room in the house warm and comfortable whenever you want it so.

Your Perfection will be economical to operate because it burns kerosene, but don't make the mistake of using any kind of kerosene. For perfect results always use Atlantic Rayolight Oil. It is different from the others-so scientifically refined that it must give its full quota of heat and all without sputter, smoke or smell.

Best of all, a Perfection is safe. You can depend on it. It's impossible to turn the wick too high. And with ordinary care your Perfection will last for many years. Priced $5.65 to $10.00. Ask your dealer.

It is written in history that the Roman emperor Claudius thought so much of a certain horse that he was on the point of making him a Roman Consul and he did build him a palace to live in. An equine just as popular to-day in many parts of America with patrons of light harness racers is the big trotter, Ima Lay, 2.04½, with which the owner, Harvey Earnest has been winning consecutively durin four years. Ima Jay made her first appearance on the half-mile tracks of Ohio and Michigan in 1915, and after showing that she was above the average, Harvey prepared her for a genuine series in 1916 over the two-lap courses, as well as a few of the mile-tracks. When the season opened she bumped into Wilkes Brewer and these mares trotted a number of races that are still considered the best that were ever seen over the double ovals. Hedits were not only trotted below 2.10, which is something out of the ordinary among the two-lappers, but no one ever knew who was going to win the odd heat until it was finished.

That year Ima Jay also appeared That year Ima Jay also appeared at Hartford in the Charter Oak purse. She took the word in the memorable event that St. Fris-Oak purse. She took the word in the memorable event that St. Frisco won sfter a six-heat battle with Mabel Trask. Ima Jay went lame in this race and was drawn. Harvey Errest, at the time, however, advised the association that he would come back in 1917 and win it. When the entries for 1917 closed, his was one of the first received, and Ima Jay was returned as the winner. At the same time Ernest also advised the association that a 2.06 class would suit him in 1918, and when the $5,000 Battle Royal purse for 2.06 trotters was announced his entry was the first received.

On September 4 Ima Jay scored up again at Hartford, and was anin returned as a winner. Also before the decision was announced Harvey Ernest asked W. H. Gocher, the treasurer of the Connecticut Fair, for a 2.05 class in 1919, so that he could ive the people in Connecticut an opportunity to see Ima Jay perform again before she joins the free-for-all brigade.
