

Supper Raises $260 For Penbrook Red Cross

Two hundred and sixty dollars were cleared from the chicken corn-soup supper served in the basement dining room of the Lutheran Church of Penbrook for the benefit of the Penbrook Red Cross. The residents and farmers nearby contributed to the success of the supper with corn, chicken and home baking. As the hall was not large enough to accommodate the crowd, it was necessary to serve the supper from 4.30 until 9.30. The following committee was in charge:

Mrs. Anton Benson, chairman; Mrs. A. L. Shope, Mrs. John Rolland, Mrs. Cora Stouffer, Mrs. J. O. Kelly, Mrs. M. S. Turner, Mrs. C. L. Small, Miss Elizabeth Rauch, Mrs. Sarah Garverich and Ida Gilerist.

LT. COL. PATTERSON HERE FOR A SHORT VISIT Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Paterson recently returned from a tour of inspection of the battlefield, was a Harrisburg visitor last week, as the guest of his brother, Andrew S. Patterson, president of the Union Trust Company. He praised the work of the troops in France and was optimistic about the outcome of the great struggle. Lieutenant Colonel Patterson is a graduate of the Harrisburg High school and of West Point. He is now in the Coast Artillery Corps, but is detailed with the Inspector General's Department.

PENBROOK RED CROSS IN NEW QUARTERS

The Penbrook Chapter of the Red Cross recently moved into new quarters above the Council chamber and is conducting a very aggressive campaign in behalf of the soldier boys. The officers are: Miss Emma Nissley, president; Mrs. A. L. Shope, vice-president; Miss Speas, secretary; Miss Tilda Zarker, treasurer.

ORCHARDS WILL BE LISTED NOW

State Will Take a Census of All in the Commercial Line

For the first time the state is undertaking a census of the commercial orchards of Pennsylvania and it is estimated that there are between 2,500 and 3,000 perhaps more. Men concerned with conditions in every county have been asked to furnish information on every commercial orchard of 300 trees or more to the statistical bureau of the State Department of Agriculture. This information will be tabulated and made the basis of a special report this winter to show the fruit industry of the state.

Plans are also being made to obtain on October 1 on the yield of wheat and other grains in every farm in Pennsylvania. Crop reporters and other men familiar with situations have been asked to get the figures. The following month a similar report will be compiled on corn, buckwheat, potatoes and other late crops and then on the fruit yields.

For Short Periods Only—The Public Service Commission has approved an application from the Montourville railroad for permission to make a crossing and siding on a state highway near a quarry in Lycoming county, but has limited the permission to a period of two and a half months. This policy is likely to be pursued in similar applications. The Commission also granted petitions for the Montour railroad to establish some grade crossings for the purpose of facilitating shipment of coal. The Connoquessing Bridge Company, was given the right to bridge the river of that name to provide access from Ellwood City to a tract to be built with homes for men engaged in war industries in that community.

Pennsylvania Well Up—Figures issued by the state draft headquarters show that between February 10 and July 13 Pennsylvania inducted 75,649 under operations of the selective service law and 62,018 were accepted, 3,222 being rejected or 5.52 per cent. New York and Illinois, in the order named, inducted more than Pennsylvania, Ohio ranking fourth, Michigan is fifth and Texas sixth.

Push Road Repairs—More road rollers and other machinery have been sent to the Lincoln highway to get it into first class shape for the big fall movement of army truck trains from western states. For weeks there has been a gradual assembling of all available men and machinery to this highway which is to be extensively used and preparations to fight snows and permit movement of truck trains in all weathers are under way. The next six weeks the State Highway Department will have the highway zone over from end to end. Men are now being concentrated on the stretches in Fulton, Franklin and Bedford counties and steps to improve roadways in various boroughs through which the highway passes are being taken. The emergency work in western counties, especially near the Ohio line is moving along. Every man that can be secured is being put to work on road maintenance.

New Local Companies—A charter has been granted to the Harrisburg Rail Co., Harrisburg, capital $5,000; incorporators, John B. Fox, A. G. Eden and John R. Geyer, and to the Lykens Motor Car Co., Lykens, capital $25,000, incorporators James D. Heil, Harry D. Hall, Lykens and Charles E. Uhler, Millersburg. Supreme Court Papers—The time for filing nomination papers for the Supreme Court will expire tomorrow night and the time for filing a withdrawal will end on Friday at 4 p. m. There are now nine candidates in the field for the two seats to be filled at the November election. (Lebo Withdraws—William C. Lebo, nominated on the Prohibition legislative ticket in Perry county, has withdrawn.

Hearing Plans—Public Service Commission hearings have been arranged for tomorrow in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Erie, with sessions at Scranton and Pittsburgh on Friday. Executive sessions will be resumed on October 8.

Eighty Charters—Overly eighty charters, the largest number acted upon in a single day in years, were approved today. In the number were sixteen coal companies, nine chemical or iron manufacturing, six automobile concerns, five land, two housing, four hosiery and two banking companies with four building and loan associations, one of the latter being named for President Wilson.

Erie Visitors—Ex-Auditor General A. E. Stanton and ex-Judge Gordon, of Erie, were at the Capitol today.

In Philadelphia—Major W. G. Murdock, chief draft officer, was in Philadelphia meeting military men connected with the draft administration.

Meeting Chiefs—Governor Brumbaugh spent most of today meeting heads of departments and discussing administration matters which have accumulated since he went away.

To Begin Work—State draft headquarters has received word from Provost Marshal General Crowder directing that general classification of registrants of September 12 be started at once, but that until boards are familiar with new regulations regarding draft officials, policemen, firemen and government officials and employes nothing is to be done with those classes.

Raiding Aliens—Further raids on aliens who have been harboring dogs and keeping firearms about premises have been made in coal regions by State Game Protectors. The fines imposed have been evidence of activity of officers.

Police Visit Hill—Chiefs of police of various places here for the meeting yesterday visited the offices of the State Police Department yesterday and discussed matters with Superintendent Lumb.

Work to Go Ahead—The work of the State Council of National Defense in regard to agricultural advisers is to go right ahead until the coming of December. The service has been very valuable and there is a big demand for the men.

Borough Objects—The borough of Norwood today entered complaint before the Public Service Commission against the gas rates of the Philadelphia Suburban Gas and Electric Company, charging that the quality of the gas had also been diminished. The commission was asked to suspend the new rates and to authorize issuance of excess payment certificates. Claim of overcharge of $15,687.19 was made by W. E. Crow and J. B. Palmer, receivers of the United Lumber Company, against the Utrina and North Fork Railway and the Susquehanna Lumber Company, charged that Belgin & Co. wanted to charge $1 per loaded car handled on a siding at Nanticoke instead of 25 cents offered by the lumber company which also stated that it had been refused a siding. The controversy between local telephone companies over alleged invasion of territory in Bedford and Fulton counties, which involves charter rights, was heard by Commissioner Kitting.

Can't Employ on Streets—Attorney General Brown has given an opinion to the Department of Labor and Industry that it would not be lawful "to employ a male minor under fourteen years of age to distribute merchandise on the streets or other public places, under the provisions of the child labor law. If it is unlawful to employ such a minor in a store it is unlawful to send him out on the streets to sell or distribute.

Governor Meets Heads—Governor Brumbaugh, who has just returned from his summer vacation, today assembled the heads of departments of the state government under the executive and asked that during the remainder of the present emergency they maintain the same standards that have prevailed during the summer. The Governor said that he desired his administration to close with the same activity as at present and that there should be no "letting down." He especially asked that everything possible be done to support the nation in the war and complimented them upon what Pennsylvania has done since the struggle began.

Thorn Goes Up.—The appointment of George D. Thorn, chief clerk of the state department, to be acting deputy secretary of the commonwealth, succeeding Fisher, a department man who has been commissioned a captain in the Ordnance Corps of the United States Army, is expected to be announced in a few days. Mr. Thorn is a resident of Adams county and has been chief clerk for years.

Influenza About.—Reports of outbreaks of influenza at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, where a number of men are in the camp hospital, and at points in Chester county reached the State Department today. To-day military inspectors will co-operate with Army officers. Inspection to determine causes of typhoid outbreaks in Delaware, Clearfield, Clinton and other counties are under way.

Inquiry On.—State health officers are looking up an outbreak of typhoid fever near Parkersburg, which is one of several in that section.

To Inspect Roads.—Arrangements were completed here today for an inspection by Government officials of road-building projects which the State Highway Department deems essential.

2,000 Masterpieces—all 10c!

FROM simple, delightful "Flower Song," to deep, thrilling "Il Trovatore"—you'll find the world's famous masterpieces in the Century Edition of Sheet Music for piano, violin and piano, mandolin and guitar.

And they're all 10c a copy—the Century price. Ten cents for music printed on the best of paper, with beautiful title pages—every note certified and guaranteed to be correct. Ten cents for such wonderful selections as Anvil Chorus, Barcarolle, Con Amore, Rigoleto, Fifth Nocturne, Humoresque, La Paloma, Setette from Lucia, Shepherd's Dream, Star of Hope, and such popular pieces as Alpine Flower, Album Leaf, Angel's Serenade, Awakening of the Lion, Carmen, etc., all authentic, certified interpretations of the masters who wrote them.

Why Century Certified Sheet Music is only 10c a copy

How can we offer you these great pieces at 10c—a fraction of what other editions cost? Because the music is the music of the world, on which there are no royalties to pay—because Century buys paper in carloads and sells millions where others sell thousands.

Remember, through Century you can build up a great music library at a fifth the cost of another edition—through Century you can study and enjoy five pieces of music at the cost of one in another edition—take it over with your teacher. Insist upon Century at your dealer's. If your dealer doesn't carry Century, send his name and get complete catalog free.

Century Music Publishing Co., 235 W. 40th Street, New York City

Music Teachers: Century Music is sold only through stores. The low price at which it is retailed does not permit us to sell to you teachers for less than ten cents a copy. While there is nothing in it for you to sell Century, your pupils are greatly benefited because they can afford to buy and learn many more pieces. Thousands of successful teachers use Century Certified Music exclusively because they know parents appreciate the saving and realize that it identifies them as having the pupil's interest conscientiously at heart.
