GERMANS RESIST

The machines were in the Lebanon-Reading district to-day and yesterday, and out about Middletown to-day folks hearing strange sounds skyward turned their eyes upward and off in the east saw the Havilland fours scattering American propaganda material.

Just where the three war planes will land to-morrow after their evolutions over the city the committee in charge will not say, because it does not want to have the large parking place filled with a mob which will hinder the landing of the three machines. It is an easy matter to land one machine, but with three it's different.

More Than Thousand Prisoners Taken; British Advance Near Inchy

By Associated Press

With the British Army in France, September 29.—Since the operations of Tuesday near St. Quentin, the British, with the French on their iright, have made good progress. The enemy still is resisting on the outskirts of Pontruct with machine gun rear guards. They also fough hard against the British at Selency and made strong counterattacks near Gricourt, but were repulsed with many killed or wounded.
The prisoners taken by the British in their sector now aggregate more than a thousand, and many machine guns also have been captured.

Elsewhere on the British front there has been no great activity, except near lnchy, west of Cambral, where the British at Selency and many killed or wounded.
