Dauphin, Cumberland and other southern central counties have been called upon by Uncle Sam to furnish a number of men for Camp Lee under the call for 9,000 to start in the five-day period commencing October 7.

Harrisburg No. 1 will send 20, No. 2, 39 and No. 3, 49; Dauphin, No. 1 is called upon for 36, No. 2, for 42 and No. 2 for 40. Cumberland, No. 1 will send 13 and No. 2, 24; Fullon, 13; Juniata 16, and Mifflin 56. Lebanon, No. 1 will send 62 and No. 2, 48 men.

Lancaster, York, Schuylkill, Huntingdon and other counties are also called upon for many men.

RESERVE REORGANIZATION Company A of the Harrisburg Reserves, is being reorganized under command of W. L. Keller and some vacancies can be filled by men of draft age. Company B is filled up. All men on the active list of the Reserves are requested to be at the Armory to-morrow night with measurements.

men of the 169th and 119th.

"While they have seen some Mr. Hickok along with the other front line service, they have been doing much work on the second line, important work, and have been agarding against flank attacks, and in this capacity they have done really hard work.

"The Harrisburgers together with all Pennsylvanians have been acquitting themselves honorably. That their work has been well done is the least that can be said for them. To mention particular deeds of any one of the Harrisburg lads would be unfair to the others; all of them are performing valorously."
