Vote on Woman Suffrage Waits For LaFollette; to Be Taken Saturday Senator Townsend Criticises

By Associated Press

Washington, Sept. 26.—Plans for a vote by the Senate to-day on the federal woman suffrage amendment virtually were abandoned in the midst of debate. Chairman Jones, of the woman suffrage committee; Majority Leader Martin and other leaders of both factions joined in private statements that the resolution would go over until Saturday.

Put Vigor and Ambition into Run-Down, Tired Out People.

FOR THE BELGIANS! A contribution of a dollar came from an old soldier wearing the bronze button of the G. A. R.

A gray-haired mother came into the clothing campaign head-quarters, Fourth and Market streets, early this morning, giving a small bundle of clothing. "I don't feel that is enough." she said," so I want to give this dollar. I'll get it back. I always get my bread back when it is cast upon the water."

Belgians will wear clothes from the Governor of Pennsyl-vania. A second bundle was brought to the rooms this morn-

While the Senate debate was under way with crowded galleries awaiting the final test, Chairman Jones made the following statement to a representative of the Associated Press:

"It now appears likely that novote will be taken and that the resolution will go over until next Saturday, when Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, is due to arrive."

New polls taken by the suffrage leaders to-day are reported to have shown one or possibly two votes short of the two thirds necessary to wim. They decided, therefore, to delay the vote until every possible vote could be mustered.

"It now appears likely that no vote will go over until next Saturday, when Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, is due to arrive."

Senator Townsend charged the administration with inexperience, in-efficiency and vacillation, and declared that although President William (Congress politics had adjourned. Democratic politics never was more active than when the President sent for Henry Ford—a man, he said, "who opposed war and who felt soldiers were murderers"—and invited him to become a candidate

To-night and to-morrow night at the Technical High school, this city, one of the most extensive and spectacular patriotic pageants in the history of Harrisburg's colored churchmen and women will occur when "Our Country" is produced by members of the Second Baptist congregation and members of that Sunday school for the benefit of the handsome new edifice proposed for that body.

The personnel of "Our Country," beside assuming roles representing all of America's allies in the war, bears the names of many states in the union, in addition to some of its island possessions and territories. In the long list of characters, Uncle Sam, the Goddess of Liberty and Miss Liberty all wave prominent parts. The pageant will be given at both entertainments of the church, and comes near the end of a fine musical and literary program.

Following is the full program for both evenings:

BELGIAN CALL GLADLY HEEDED BY HARRISBURG

Second Bundle of Clothing Is Sent to Headquarters From Executive Mansion

Harrisburg has been so generou in gifts of clothing for the Belgians that the three rooms at Fourth and Market streets contributed by the United Cigar Stores Company through the efforts of Samtel Friedman, have been filled. Through the courtesy of William Strouse, a large storeroom at 28 South Fourth street has been opened for the use of the committee and Charles Adler has offered the rooms at 504 Market street. It is believed the influx of clothing will be so great that these rooms will also be filled.

Volunteers Called For
An appeal for immediate aid by volunteer workers was sounded this morning by Mrs. W. G. Gipple, receiving chairman of the campaign. "We need women and smen to assist in sorting, in packing, in nailing boxes and preparing them for shipment." The rooms will be kept open until a late hour to-night while the workers are busy preparing the garments for shipment. Market streets contributed by the to the aid of the workers with dozens of packing boxes which will be quickly filled. Incidentally more boxes are urgently needed.

Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh, wife of Pennsylvania's Governor, brought a second bundle of clothing to the headquarters this morning. Several financial contributions were also received.

Man Who Slurs Escapes

When a man walked by the headquarters this morning, slurring the workers and saying that he'd like to check up the goods now and check it up again when it got to Belgium," Al. K. Thomas boarded his automobile and rushed to capture the man. The offender escaped but police are on the lookout for him A big truck on its rounds of collecting, broke down and Mr. Thomas commandeered his big Packard, driving it himself. He made a number of trips coming back with huge loads of clothing.

Actress Volunteers Services Miss Florence Timponi, who is appearing at the Majestic theater the last half of the week, is engaged in the collection of canes and old leather of or the boys in the service. When she arrived in Harrisburg this afternoon and learned of the clothing campaign she volunteered her services. At every performance she gives at the Majestic, Miss Timponi will make a straight-from-the-shoulder appeal for clothing. She will work with the Red Cross women and on Saturday morning will sing for the cause.
