

SOLDIER TO SING AT STEVENS MEMORIAL; RALLY DAY AT MANY CITY CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS ARE ACTIVE IN THE NAVY
Many Notes of Interest to Endeavorers Are Recounted; Workers Busy

REV. J. G. ELLER

will be the topic for discussion by Endeavor Societies at the meetings on Sunday evening. Thousands of hymns have been written by authors who have become famous, and various aspects of the songs and hymns now studied by the Endeavorers.

Miss Margaret Scheadley will make the meeting interesting at the Covenant Presbyterian society on Sunday evening. Everybody is urged to attend and take part in the service.

Park Street United Evangelical Leaguers will be led by Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Thos. Kroons at the meeting to-morrow evening.

Bethlehem Lutheran Endeavorers will have a bright, interesting and helpful meeting on Sunday evening. Miss Bessie Leslie, chairman of the Social Committee will have charge of the service.

At the Harris Street United Evangelical Church Leaguers will study the regular topic of the evening, "The War in the East." W. L. Bailey, a prominent member and active worker will have charge of the service.

Berk's County Endeavorers are making big preparations for the entertainment of the State C. E. Union Executive Committee which will meet at Reading, October 10 and 11. A program with "pep" is being prepared.

Mrs. Sheffer, chairman of the Music Committee will lead the Endeavorers in a social evening. The first Congregation Society of this town has been earnestly engaged in entertaining the boys for more than a year. After the Sunday evening service there is a social hour with refreshments which gives the boys a touch of home life. Beach parties and hay-rack rides are also for the benefit of the sailor boys. There are many Endeavorers among the enlisted men, and they attend the Endeavor meetings in goodly numbers and take part very freely. There are also a surprising number of presidents and local officers. President Arthur Wrigley is a chief petty officer in the veteran branch of the navy reserve. Other society members who are at the Great Lakes Training Station will be looked up and the local Endeavorers will gladly keep them in touch with Christian Endeavor.

C. E. NOTES

The Rev. J. G. Eller, of El Paso, Ill., one of the popular pastors and Endeavor workers of the Illinois Conference of the United Evangelical Church, always finds the Christian Endeavor Society to be essential and a valuable asset to a congregation.

Rev. Eller will attend the General Conference session of the M. E. Church at York next week. He attended the State and the International C. E. Convention at different times. For four years he was secretary of the Illinois Conference. Endeavorers will be interested in his address to the training school at the annual meeting.

WANTED—Hundreds of persons are wanted daily in the Endeavorers' ranks. Get into the training school and have your talents developed for a good cause. Apply to the president of any Endeavor Society.

Mrs. Earnest May will be the leader next Sunday at the Century United Brethren Society, "Steel-ton." She is an able speaker and we are looking for a good time. The topic is "Lessons from Favorite Hymns." Sunday nine juniors were transferred into the senior society.

DO YOU KNOW THAT
Christian Endeavorers may feel a pardonable pride in the fulfillment of their prophecy that America would be "a saloonless nation by 1920?"

John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Church, said: "Make all the money you can honestly; save all you can prudently; give all you can possibly!"

"God can bear you if you say your prayers in bed." But how many persons are too lazy to say their prayers and put themselves in a humble position before God?

Market Square Presbyterian Endeavorers are planning for a campaign to be held October 31st.

FIVE POINTS ON THE TOPIC
Topic: "Lessons from Favorite Hymns." Acts 16: 22-25; 2 Chron. 5: 11-14.

"Brighten the Corner Where You Are" is now a Chinese laundress, and he sung it again and again in his fearful fight with the opium habit.

According to 2 Chron. 5: 11-14, are "Choirs" of modern origin?

If you would sing well, turn your face to the light—the light of God's promises, the light of faith and hope and love.—Aunon.

Probably "Rock of Ages" is the most popular hymn in the English language. It was a favorite of Mr. Gladstone and of Prince Albert, the consort of Queen Victoria.

There is comfort in song. Our faith in song will lead to worship in song.

Good Citizenship Day will be observed by many societies of the Endeavor movement on Sunday, October 20th. A suggestive program has been outlined by the Rev. Daniel A. Poling, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.

MARKET SQUARE RALLY DAY MEET

Plans Laid For Big Celebration at Busy Down-town Church to-morrow

To-morrow the Market Square Presbyterian Sunday school observes Rally Day, Promotion Day, and Service Flag Day, all in the Sunday-school. It is expected that many teachers, parents, and even scholars in class. Children will be promoted from one grade to another; and from one department to another. Some go from Kindergarten to Primary; some from Primary to Junior; some from Junior to Intermediate; and some from Junior to Senior. Then, a most interesting feature of the day is the joint meeting of the Primary and the Senior Departments. The extremes are to meet. The little folks try to unfurl. Behaviors, Stars are on this flag for every father, brother of any child in the department. Some of these little folks are giving more than older ones for their services. The father whom they may never see again. It is believed that the joint meeting of these two departments will crowd the room.

Following the Sunday-school hour the congregation will assemble in the auditorium where the minds of the people will be directed to an up-to-date service, musical, devotional, and worshipful. Dr. Hawes will speak on "Some Modern Opinions about Jesus Christ."

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES
Do you know what made Fanny Crosby? She should know it. Every day should know the life story of the blind hymn-writer who helped thousands to a life of faith. Read "Fanny Crosby's story of Ninety-four Years."

Field-Secretary Evans, of the Kentucky C. E. Union, reports the testimony of the editor of one of the largest Southern daily papers. Said this editor: "Until recently I owned a saloon; but one night attended a Christian Endeavor meeting, and there the stock was caused to loup up before me. The consequences of that one meeting."

The annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Home and Foreign Missions of the United Evangelical Church, was a well-attended and interesting four days' session at Williamsport, this week.

Since the Rev. G. W. Hartman, pastor of the St. John's Reformed Church, has gone into War, Y. M. C. A. work, the pulpit has been occupied by a member of prominent college workers and ministers.

The Men's Bible Class of the Harris Street United Evangelical Church held a delightful social and business session in the social hall on Thursday evening. A big time is anticipated for Sunday when the annual rally day will be observed.

PRESBYTERIAN

Hundreds of pounds of peach seeds collected for planting.

Plan Observation of Feast Day at St. Andrew's

On Sunday, September 29, the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, the parish branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, will make its corporate communion at the 11 o'clock service in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and present its offering for St. Mary's House, Japan, which is to be erected as a memorial to the foreign missionary Daughters of St. Andrew.

The services on St. Michael and All Angels Day will follow: 9:45, church school; 11, Holy Communion and sermon on "The War in Heaven," Revelation xii, 7:13; 7:30, evening prayer and sermon.

Camp Curtin Memorial's Unique Service Plans

To-morrow will be held at Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, a service a little out of the way of the conventional.

Each member has been furnished with a large envelope, practically placed in red in which is to be placed by each member on the altar for emergency needs of the local church.

It will be interesting to see the envelopes pile up on the altar before the congregation.

The outcome will be looked for with considerable curiosity and the church will be happy over the success that attends.

DR. MUDGE WILL TALK ON SWORDS

Pine Street Pastor Will Open New Sermon Series To-morrow Night

Sunday evening at the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, will deliver the first of a special series of sermons. These sermons will all be "Sword Sermons," the texts in every instance being a passage of Scripture relating to the use of the sword. The subjects of these sermons will be delivered as far as possible on successive Sunday evenings are as follows:

"Where Swords First Flamed," Genesis 3:24; "When Sword Shattered," Joshua 7:20; "Battling With Borrowed Swords," 1 Samuel 21:5; "How to Handle the Sword," 2 Samuel 23:10; "Not Peace But a Sword," Matthew 10:34; "Put Up Thy Sword," John 18:11; "Pierced By the Pillars of the Sword," Luke 2:35; "The Terrible Sword of the Lord," Hebrews 4:12.

These sermons will all deal with such war topics as should be considered in war times. Their object is to promote the loftiest patriotism and the deepest spirituality.

A special effort will be made to have the always excellent music of the Pine Street quartet more uplifting than ever and the whole of each service just as helpful as possible.

IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

Evangelistic campaigns, revivals, protracted or prayer-meetings, whatever title is given to the work of the church and its workers, ten weeks, and will be a union campaign of all churches in Chambersburg, on October 27th. He will be assisted by Albert G. Fath, gospel song pianist of note and Christian worker.

The Gideons, evangelistic workers of wide influence, who supply books with Bibles, are represented by 11,000 members out of 600,000 traveling salesmen of America. At least 4,000 of these are active Christian workers.

Synonymous with the name J. Raymond Hemminger in recent campaigns, goes the word "Power." There is a wonderful power and inspiration in the music of big choruses of gospel singers which Prof. Hemminger directs. At first glance one is visibly impressed. As he takes his place on the platform, facing the choir, his big powerful build inspires confidence—he is the dynamic member of the choir, every nerve is tense and ready. The source of his power is soon seen as he reverently invokes Divine blessing upon the singing of the morning or evening for the salvation of souls. The everything is attention, as with arms raised a genial, contagious smile, he utters words to inspire confidence, you hear the familiar "Come on now, choir, everybody together, and away goes that choir, nether organized in a day or week time, following him in his movement, as he seems to be pumping some lift into them by his maneuvers and making them perform their best.

The listener is thrilled; varied feelings tag up and down his spine, he seems lifted of himself into a new element as the choir begins "In loving kindness Jesus came, My soul in mercy claim." The tired workman is rested, the jaded housewife and mother is refreshed; the young people catch the thrill of action and the dance music is cheapeared and forgotten. The contagion of "Praising God" spreads until it's a case of "We'll sing it all day long, we begin to understand the exhortation of Psalmist, as he calls on us to "Come, sing unto the Lord, make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation."

Prof. Hemminger is Christian in his attitude in his church, in his choir teaches the audience is "When I survey the wondrous cross, on which the Prince of Glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my joys. We shall never forget those familiar lines.

Between the choir of over 200 and sometimes 500, and an audience of nearly 5,000, the sound waves of song would go up with a shout. During the first appearance of Evangelistic Nicholson-Hemminger party in the Harris Street United Evangelical Church and then followed with other big meetings in the Grace Methodist Church and many other meetings throughout the state and other places thousands of people from this city and vicinity were in attendance.

State Sunday school workers will meet in annual convention at Johns-town October 10-12. The Acley brothers song book will be used during the sessions.

The Rev. H. B. Hartzler, D. D., editor of "The Evangelical," Harrisburg, has added another poem to his long list of contributions in regard to the title of the poem is "Treasures For the Master."

Special attractions at the annual convention of the York County Sabbath School Association in session at the Trinity First Reformed Church, York, this week, were singing, under the direction of the Acley brothers, Philadelphia. Bentley D. Acley was formerly with the famous singing "Sunshine." Addressed by the Rev. Dr. W. N. Yates, Harrisburg, subject, "The Way Out"; the Rev. W. E. Peffley, Harrisburg, subject, "The Training For Service," and Dr. William T. Ellis, Swarthmore, subject, "The War's Big Idea From Bible Lands—Patriotic, Missionary and Sunday School." Other prominent speakers were on the platform.

Theodore Devshor, of Reading, Junior Christian Endeavor superintendent for thirty-three years in his home church, spoke at the C. E. Rally last Sunday evening at Wind-sor.

Eighty-eight delegates were in attendance at the sessions of Westminster Presbytery, which were entertained recently at Chancelor Presbytery Church. The sessions of the Presbytery will be held in the First Church, York.

Thirty-eight German Methodist Episcopal churches in the Kansas City district are dropping the German language. Nine have abandoned it altogether.

State Sunday school workers will meet in annual convention at Johns-town October 10-12. The Acley brothers song book will be used during the sessions.
