Army in France Looks to Folks at Home to Back Them Up With Loan Bonds

First Lieutenant Paul A. DeHuff, a nephew of Mrs. Rosanna Gitt, 2329 North Third street, writes his parents, in Pasadena, Cal., a letter that is full of importance to people of America.

"We have cause to be optimistic. Paris is optimistic as are London and Rome, but over here we appreciate the gigantic proportions of the task before us.

"We've reached and passed the crisis in this titanic struggle. Our preliminary successes promise a decisive and speedy victory. We who are here and those who are joining us know that the means to that end is a constantly increasing pressure on the Hun, and with your support we cannot but win."
