HOW OTHERS MAY BENEFIT

These statements may reem strange some folks, because nearly all sufferers have all along been led to beferers have all along been led to be-lieve in the old "Uric Acid" humbug. It took Mr. Ashelman fifty years to find out this truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders and re-cover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries," a remarkable book that is now being distributed free by an au-Mysteries," a remarkable book that is now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this trouble. If any reader of the Harrisburg Telegraph wishes a copy of this book that reveals startling faets overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a postcard or letter to H. P. Clearwater, 127. A Street Hallowell, Maine, and it will be sent by return mall without any charge whatever. Send now you may never get this opportunity again. If not a sufferer yourself, hand this good news to some afflicted friend.

With Choir and Organist

Word of the death of Miss Maude Sproule, a well-known Philadelphia contralto soloist, has been received here by a few friends who had known her. Miss Sproule, because of her unusual fitness, was selected on several occasions as soloist at the famous Bach festivals in Bethlehem, and it was here that Harrisburg musicians came to know her. For many years she sang in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Overbrook, and later in the West Walnut Street Presbyterian Church. She possessed a voice of rare quality and had done much oratorio work in Philadelphia and in other cities.
