MONDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1918.

The bravest are the tenderest

The loving are the daring.

-Bayard Taylor.

PUNISHMENT FOR HUN

THERE is a rising sentiment among the Allied peoples favorable to an international military tribunal at the close of the war which will try every criminal from the Kaiser down who has been responsible for the horrible butchery and the untold agony of the last four years and more.

GO HELP THE FARMERS

THIS week, because of the influenza edicts, there are some hundreds of hefty high school students in Harrisburg and vicinity who will not be able to attend school.

CO-OPERATION AT HOME

ONE of the things that has come out of the war is the lesson of co-operation, and throughout every community, large and small, in this country the people are realizing the value of getting together and cutting out waste and inefficiency through overlapping of effort.

LET'S KNOW THEM

IT is true that men vested with authority are continuing to charge young men summoned under the national defense procedure to file questionnaires fees ranging anywhere from twenty-five cents to a dollar and a half for making out the questions asked by the War Department.

officials and some magistrates in refusing to accept a cent for taking acknowledgments is so commendable that by every example it ought to shame the men who charge a fee. It would appear that the boards of instruction named in the various draft districts have a field for investigation of such matters.

"ON TO BERLIN"

GERMANY is again bidding for peace. There are reports that the Kaiser's government is willing even to accept President Wilson's "fourteen points essential to peace"—if only the Allies will stop fighting and talk. That is the milk in the coccoanut. Germany wants to quit the war on terms favorable, at least in some degree, to herself, and an early cessation of the hostilities is her only hope.

Politics in Pennsylvania

While it will take several days to obtain complete information regarding the registration of voters in the cities of Pennsylvania for the November election, it is believed that the total will run far short of that for last November.

THE GERMAN PLIGHT

The surrender of Bulgaria means much more than the reduction of the Mittel-Europa forces by the number of the soldiers of Ferdinand's army. It means, first and foremost, the severing of German communications with Turkey and the East, and the fact that the Turks will now be left to fight out their own battle as best they may.

LABOR NOTES

Nearly all Japanese pearl divers are women. Copper workers are immune from typhoid fever. Toronto, Can., will organize a metal trades federation.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

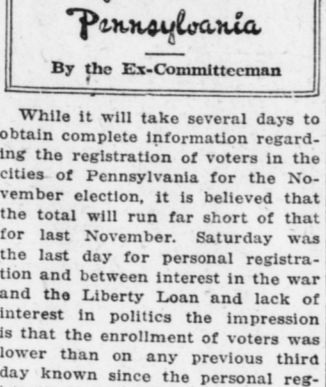

General William H. Rose, one of the Regular Army men promoted a few days ago, is a Lancaster man and a West Point man.

respect to all movements vital to the community. Harrisburg has grown and developed along all legitimate lines because the people have in the past stood together and co-operated intelligently on definite programs.

When a Feller Has a Friend

THE "KINGS OF WHOLE WORLD" Doomed on Armageddon Field Where the British Army Has Driven Out the Turkish Allies of the Kaiser, Battles Were Fought Many Centuries Before the Christian Era

THE END IN SIGHT

Germany's military might is beginning to crumble, and we see the first effects of it, not only on the western front, but in Palestine and in Macedonia. The process of disintegration is not likely to be rapid for a long time but there is conclusive evidence that it has begun.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

A WISH. I wish I was a landlord gay. My life would be content, for no one knows a n easier way To go and raise the rent.

Prohibition and Pessimism

Said the Pessimist to the Honest Man: "I can't do business by your plan. For there's a trick to every trade And by deceit all gains are made. None can deny it."

Why do you thus upset my plan?

My shops will close, my ships will sink; I still believe it the better plan. The policy best for every man— Then let us try it."

The Pessimist to the Sober Man:

Why do you thus upset my plan? My shops will close, my ships will sink; I still believe it the better plan. The policy best for every man— Then let us try it."

BILLIONS FOR THE BONDS

(From the New York Sun) No one of us shall doubt that the Fourth Liberty Loan can be subscribed to the full six billions of dollars.
