Few Voters Enroll in City in Pennsylvania's Minority Party

Reports compiled to-day from the returns of the city registrars show that of the 12,018 city voters who have qualified to vote on November 5, 3,852 are Republicans; 2,965 Democrats; 258 Nonpartisan; 81 Prohibitionists; 68 Socialists; 51 Independents, and 3 Washingtonians. County Controller Gough has calculated that 52,178 ballots will be needed for the November election. Orders have been placed as follows: City, 14,523 official ballots; 3,621 specimens for the polling places, and 1,446 official and 355 specimen ballots to be reserved for emergency uses.

There will be 24,299 official and 6,098 specimen ballots for the county polling places and an emergency reserve of 2,428 official and 610 specimen ballots are provided in case any one or more districts exhaust their ballot supply.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and a chemist's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MANY PRIESTS STRICKEN
Boston, Oct. 9.—More than 50 per cent of the priests of the greater Boston diocese are sick with influenza and many are on the danger list. In a number of parishes every priest has been stricken. The demands on the priests for attendance on the sick have been tremendous.

KEYSTONE STATE OFFICER CAUGHT IN A GAS ATTACK
Tells of Hun Bombarding; Penna. Soldiers on Firing Line For Five Days

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—There are no quiet days on the American front, as the experiences of the One Hundred Eleventh and One Hundred Twelfth Regiments of Infantry, composed of up-state and Philadelphia boys, show. These units relieved the One Hundred Ninth and One Hundred Tenth Regiments in the early part of August, and none but the finest type of men could have withstood what they did during the time they were in the front-line trenches.

How the Huns "strafed" these two regiments is told in a letter from Lieutenant Theodore W. Easton, of the One Hundred Eighth Machine Gun Battalion, supporting the Infantry in the front line, to his parents in Norristown.

"Don't be worried when you see my hospital address," he writes. "We were at the front for five days and nights, working like blue devils, with very little sleep or food, and I tell you we were mighty worn out."

"Last Monday morning (August 12), we put down three barabages, and I am told were doing lots of execution. Some enemy planes came over our way and spied us. In a few minutes the Boche artillery began to open up on us hot and heavy.

"I was in the entrance of my dug-out when a shell hit us square. My sergeant and runner were inside, and I got both the poor fellows. I was buried in the debris, and, of course, knocked out. They got me out and I came to an hour later. I was extremely nervous and shell-shocked.

"While I was at the dressing station, unconscious, the Germans sent over some gas, and before they could get my gas mask adjusted I got a little of it. I hope to be at them soon again, though the doctors say not for six months."

Lieutenant Easton attended the Pennsylvania State College and was commissioned at Fort Niagara.

Many men from the One Hundred Eleventh and One Hundred Twelfth Regiments continue to be included in the casualty reports. Lieutenant Marcel van Beresghy, of Lebanon, of the One Hundred Eleventh Infantry, died of wounds. Private Edward O'Laughlin and Jeremiah Zerbe, both of that city, were killed in action. Private George K. Rodenbaugh, of the One Hundred Eleventh Infantry, whose home is in Conshohocken, is severely wounded.

YANKEES FIGHT FIERCELY WITH FRENCH TROOPS

Face German Machine Gun Fire and Force Foe to Retire

By Associated Press
With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 9.—American forces drove forward yesterday on the east side of the Meuse and occupied Charney in company with the French they captured the villages of Consenvoye, Brabant, Baumont and Beaumont. They drove the enemy well beyond these towns and are pushing the enemy northward in a desperate fight.

In the day's operation more than 3,000 prisoners were taken, of whom 1,600 were captured by the French east of the Meuse. During the past few days over 4,000 prisoners and sixteen heavy mortars have been captured by the French.

In the operations yesterday between St. Etienne and Orfeuil, American units captured 400 prisoners and four Austrian field guns. There was fierce fighting in this area, the Germans using machine guns and a few light field pieces. French and American heavy guns, and the Germans finally withdrew to the northward.

The Germans attempted a counter-attack at noon. The troops concentrated in the region of Machault in great force but were repulsed by the French and American heavy guns. The Germans later made a vain attempt to reach the ravines south of Machault. Observers reported that the allied artillery fire caused disorder among the enemy forces which, at last accounts, were withdrawing, leaving rear guards to cover their retirement.

There was an intermittent bombardment of Somme-py, as well as cross roads and areas back of the Allied lines to-day.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate the urine; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Light Frost Nips War Gardens This Morning

Father Harris rolled out of bed this morning to find his pumpkin and bean vines nipped a trifle by two nights of heavy frost—the first of the season. Both mornings the temperature slid down to a depth of 9 degrees. However, local war gardeners can find comfort in forecaster E. R. Demain's statement that to-night there will be a return of warmth.

Cloudiness is predicted for this afternoon but to-morrow the sun is going to shine in a perfect blue sky, says the forecaster. However, fall is officially registered in Harrisburg. Evidence of this is produced in showing that roasted chestnuts are now on sale along the streets.
