Camp Hill Civic Club Will Plant Memorial Trees For Each Lad in Service

The Camp Hill Civic Club held their first fall meeting in the clubroom. The committees' reports showed interest and enthusiasm.

The Emergency Aid reported splendid with for the summer and fail months. The educational committee hopes to carry on work with the schoolchildren in connection with the school library. The club donated $10 towards a fund for reference books for the High school.

The municipal committee proposed plans for signs for motors at the schoolhouses and a light at the end of South Bowman avenue.

The out-of-doors committee suggested planting honor trees on Arbor Day, one for each Camp Hill man in the service. I. W. Woods has offered to donate the trees. The plan was unanimously adopted.

Delegates elected to attend the Pennsylvania State Federation of Clubwomen were Mrs. Cyrus Harding and Mrs. I. H. Dennis, with Mrs. John Sweeney, alternate.

After the business, tea was served

Home Craft Week

Why envy your neighbor's home, when you can have one just as enviable?

Home is Dearer Than Ever

Home grows closer to the hearts of our people as the realization of those devastated homes over in Europe is being borne in upon us.

We look with newly opened and grateful eyes on all that goes to make up that dear place called HOME!

And the thing that appeals most is the daintiness, cleanliness, freshness, that lulls the fancy to peaceful, happy wanderings and soothes the tired nerves and aching heads by the mere suggestion of quiet and beauty and comfort.

This important step in attaining this charm of the

This important step in attaining this charm of the Home is in the choice of the window curtains. There lies the misty, dainty, joyous charm—the white filmy, graceful essence of the Home!

During Homecraft Week call at our drapery department and see our remarkable display of curtains and other window lace.

Before he could pull the trigger, however, a quick-witted American sergeant plunged his bayonet through the German's heart. The German's act was condemned even by his captured comrades.

New Animals Reach Zoo: Elephant Gives Place 0-0

Philadelphia. — Two baby ele-phants, one male and one female. two sloth bears and a Malayan sun bear, the latter a rare specimen, have arrived at the Philadelphia zoo, an unusual collec-tion of animals to arrive at the same time.

tion of animals to arrive at the same time.

The elephants were captured in India by Albert Meins, who bagged eight, which have been sent to various institutions. The two sent here are each three years old and are four feet high. They have already made themselves known to zoo visitors. One of them escaped from the elephant inclosure yesterday morning and gave his keepers a chase before being driven back.

The Sumatra tigers received at the zoo also came from Albert Meins. These animals are little more than cubs, being but two years old and are unusual and interesting specimens. The animals arrived in New York from the Far East Friday.

Compulsory Health Insurance in California

San Francisco. — California is to vote this year on a constitutional amendment which would establish compulsory health insurance. The amendment is being vigorously opposed by members of "the California League for the Conservation of Public Health. It is held that compulsory insurance would at once cost the people of the state from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000, of which 40 per cent. would be paid by the workers, 40 per cent by the employers, and 20 per cent. by the state.
