Ball Club to Look

When the baseball races were shut down by the government on September 1 of this year, it was predicted that several big league clubs would be unable to with-stand a period of war idleness and would go under financially. The first crack is likely to take piace in Boston, where the National League club is about to go on the rocks.

State College Makes Athletics CompulsoryFor 1500 Students

State College, Pa., Oct. 11.—Par-sport is now required of the 1,500 members of the Students' Army Training Corps at the Pennsylvania state College. Massed athletics, long a pet theory of physical education experts, but with few instances of practical application, this week took concrete form at Penn State when the military authorities compelled favorite sport for daily exercise. Taking the S. A. T. C. as-a work-ing vasis, competing teams have been organized in each military compary. They are now swarming practice for contests with rival com-pany teams. The physical education depart-ment of the college, which is co-operating with the military author-ities, prepared a list of ten elective

German, would you consider it un-due violence to spank the promo-ter? That is what Wladez Zbyszko told arraigned upon the charge of strik-ing Lewis Meyer, of Mount Vernon, a promoter of sporting events. The big Polish wrestler said that he was in the office of Jack Curley, the modest violet of sportdom, in 1482 Broadway, and Meyer came along and called him a German. "That go the scrambled alphabet for a name, "as I am 100 per cent. Amer-ican, so I picked him up and spank-ed him, When he fell his head struck a cuspidor."

ministrator, said last night there is no necessity for people denying themselves heat during chilly weath-er because of the coal shortage. He said homes and apartments come first on the priority list of the War Industries Board, and that it is not necessary to jeopardize the health of a family to save the coal which would insure a safe temperature in the living rooms of a family. a cuspidor." Magistrate McQuade wanted to see some marks of the encounter and when Meyer could not show any he dismissed the case.
