

TECH TANKS ROLLED OVER LEBANON IN 13-0 SCORE; "LEARN TO SHOOT" PLEADS MARSHALL

AROUND THE BASES

"Donnerwetter!" gasped the latest German chancellor, as he woke up and read the morning paper. "There is our Gott. We lose our friends, and now here is an ally!"

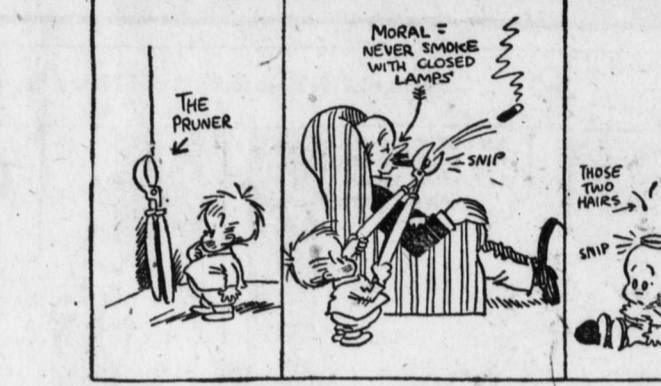

Colonel Ruppert had planned to present most of these dogs later to breeders in Europe, who are being compelled to work on the work of producing the St. Bernards during the war.

Country Club Golfers Finish First Round of Annual Tourney

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

THE GREAT HAGERSTOWN INTER-STATE Fair and Horse Show

Snoodles :-: :-: :-: By Hungerford

"Johnny Get Your Gun," Pleads Tom Marshall; "All Must Shoot"

The art of wing shooting was taught at an early date, when feathered game abounded in this country in such unlimited numbers that a bag limit was an unheard-of possi-

Country Club Golfers Finish First Round of Annual Tourney

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

ASKIN AND MARINE CO. You'll Learn sooner or later that there is nothing gained by paying spot cash for your clothing

Carl Beck Stars For Tech in Lebanon Game

UNCLE SAM JOLTS U. OF P. SPORTS

The Tech football athletes kept Harrisburg on the map yesterday in a magnificent football battle at Lebanon which resulted in a 13-0 victory, and satisfied the Harrisburg sharps who watched the event that Tech, under Coach Smith, has a championship team.

Country Club Golfers Finish First Round of Annual Tourney

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

John C. Herman & Company Manufacturers KING OSCAR CIGARS

Two Millersburg Men Die of Influenza at Camp

Millersburg, Pa., Oct. 12.—Robert W. Orndorf, a young Millersburg man, a private in the National Army, died at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., of Spanish influenza on Wednesday, and Robert K. Kline, a son of George W. Kline, of Center street, a limited service man, died at Camp Wrightstown, Dix, N. J., on Thursday of the same disease.

Country Club Golfers Finish First Round of Annual Tourney

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

John C. Herman & Company Manufacturers KING OSCAR CIGARS