

GRIP EPIDEMIC EXACTS HEAVY TOLL

nine deaths in Harrisburg, the majority of them caused by pneumonia, in many cases developing from influenza. A comparison of this death rate shows that during the entire month of October, 1917, there were only seven more deaths than were reported last week.

Drastic action will be taken, Dr. Raunick said, to enforce the order that funerals are to be private. "A number of violations of this order will be investigated and if the practice of permitting a large number of relatives and friends to attend the service is not stopped prosecutions will be brought as every undertaker knows his duty. Undertakers who are dangerous to the health of the people, the order concerning private funerals is that only adult members of a bereaved family may attend and it must be obeyed."

16 Die in 48 Hours Sixteen deaths have been reported in the last twenty-four hours by pneumonia or influenza. One of the latest deaths reported is that of Dr. Hyman R. Wiener, 234 State street, who died this morning at the Harrisburg Hospital.

The number of patients at the hospitals is increasing but with the aid of the present medical force, as reported by Director General McCado's men to have the Fourth loan go over the top. "While there may be slacks," said a rail man this afternoon, "the country is not in a panic. The need of trucks to carry the ambulances is increasing. Dr. Raunick said to-day that a large number of motor trucks large enough to hold stretchers would fill the ambulances. Nurses and orderlies are wanted also, particularly the latter and it is preferred that men volunteer for this service. No medical experience is needed."

Church is Offered Another church was offered for hospital purposes yesterday when the health officials were notified they could use Memorial Lutheran building at Fifteenth and Shop streets. It is not thought that any emergency hospital will be needed at present, but the epidemic continue to spread plans will be made for opening another building.

So far no violations of the order closing all stores on Saturday night have been reported to Dr. Raunick, with the exception of drug stores. Every other store has closed promptly at 6.30 o'clock, many of the smaller ones, such as cigar stores, remaining closed yesterday also.

At the Courthouse the clerks in the county commissioners' office are ill; and the force of men employed by the janitor has been depleted to the extent that he is doing all the work, four others being confined to their homes.

BRAKENEM CALL FOR BONDS

Tell Passengers President Expects Honor Flag in All Home Windows

Railroad men are doing their utmost to boost the Fourth Liberty Loan. Not only are they subscribing for bonds themselves, but they are urging the riding public to buy.

Passengers on incoming trains today have witnessed this assertion. Acting under instructions from the Pennsylvania, all brakemen on all divisions are urged to call out:

"President Wilson expects every home to have a four-stripe honor flag in the window. Get busy and buy a bond."

The commendation was made in crowded train and during runs between stations.

Word from the shops and stations today told of a "compe being exerted by Director General McCado's men to have the Fourth loan go over the top. While there may be slacks," said a rail man this afternoon, "the country is not in a panic. The need of trucks to carry the ambulances is increasing. VOICE OF PROTEST AGAINST THE FOE

Confession to every German army. If, however, it shall appear that Mr. Wilson's laudable desire for peace has led him to prefer diplomatic conference to victorious advance it may become the duty of each state to defend its citizens respectively.

advise him that that event will have mistaken the spirit of the American people.

"The pacifist and conscientious objectors who have been in retirement during the fighting may be counted upon to clamor loudly for armistice. Therefore those that can speak for Americans who have hid in battle and for the millions who are ready to die, would be bound to protest effectively if the power of the United States were used to force upon our Allies an unwelcome interruption of a victorious advance.

"I hope that your council will give its best consideration to this vital subject and will be vigilant until the President's next official utterance gives us the assurance that we may again breathe freely."

Following closely on the receipt of this telegram, Mr. Gilbert wired Chairman Pepper the following response:

"Your telegram to the state councils throughout the United States meets with hearty and earnest approval. Pray God no mistake is made just at this critical time."
