Britain Is Revengeful For German Atrocities While Asking For Peace

London, Oct. 14.—Unconditional surrender is rapidly gaining popularity with the average citizen as a response to the German document, and many would not be satisfied with anything less.

This feeling is accentuated by the German attempt to destroy Cambrai and the razing of villages by the enemy in his great retreat, as well as by sinking of the Linstor—all these being acts from which no military advantage could be gained.

The sinking of the Linstor gave a stunning blow to whatever feeling existed in England for a peace of reconciliation. The affair caused more indignation than any submarine exploit since the sinking of the Lusitania.

Prince Max's benevolent utterances and Germany's day by day military and naval policies is the text for most of the newspaper sermons on the situation.

Manheim Claims Danger From Fire

The borough of Manheim, Lancaster county, to-day declared in a complaint to the Public Service Commission that it was in danger of fire because of the water company.

The borough, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in a dress of cream colored georgette and crepe de chine and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

After a brief journey, Mr. and Mrs. Winn will reside at 1413 Zarker street.

C. P. Rogers, Jr., chief of the bureau of accounts of the Auditor General's Department was called to Wilkes-Barre by serious illness of the nephew, Auditor General Snyder, who was unable to come here to-day because of illness of Mrs. Snyder.

The Public Service Commission is in executive session to-day for the first time in two weeks and no decision in cases may be taken.

Governor Brumbaugh to-day approved a requisition from the Government for $4,000 for return to Donner of Charles A. Ward alias Clarence Allen, under arrest in Philadelphia and accused of working a confidence game for $10,000.

Fred M. Muller, of Altoona, to-day complained to the Public Service Commission that the Penn Central Light and Power Company, had refused to extend its lines as asked by a number of residents of Pleasant Valley avenue district.

The Susquehanna Traction Company, operating in Lock Haven and vicinity has fixed an advance of fares from five to seven and ten cents in certain cases and establishment of new divisions.

German Paper Openly Demands Kaiser Quit

Zurich, Switzerland, Oct. 14.—In an extraordinary outspoken article the "Frankische Tagespost," the Nuremberg Socialist organ, to-day demands the abdication of the German Emperor.

It declares that the responsibility for the present situation rests on him and says that as the military system is about to collapse, he must be the last of the military monarchs.

AUTOMOBILE WRECKED

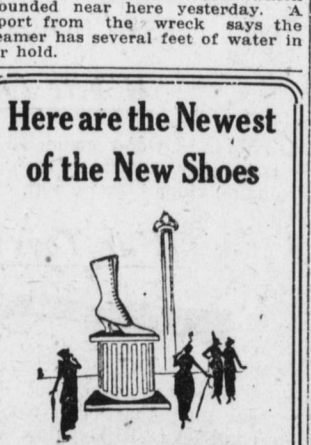

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 14.—Rainy weather and consequent wet streets caused the delivery car of A. L. McLane, proprietor of an East Main street meat store, to skid while coming down Main street, near Arch on Saturday. Mr. McLane was driving the machine, which spun around and finally dashed full force into a tree, the sudden impact almost entirely wrecking the car.

The top was torn off, rear wheels demolished, the wind shield smashed and other parts badly damaged. Mr. McLane escaped with slight injuries.

STEAMER GROUND

A Canadian Pacific Port, Oct. 14.—Passengers were removed to-night from a Canadian steamer which grounded near here yesterday. A report from the coast guard says the steamer has several feet of water in her hold.

Names of Six Local Soldiers Carried on Official Casualty Lists

The names of six local soldiers were reported on yesterday's casualty lists as wounded in action. All had been carried before in the official list. They are: Lieutenant Richard J. Miller, Ceylon Samuel McIlhenny, Alimento Magnelli, Ira C. Schaeffer and Harry B. Burner.

Lieutenant Miller, son of Harvey O. Miller, cashier of the Merchants' National Bank, residing at 2321 North Third street, attached to the Sixth Earl of Chester Battalion, an English medical corps, was wounded severely September 4, when eleven of his companions were struck down by an exploding shell and he and neck. At the present time he is in a base hospital in France, but expects to be taken to England soon, and from there home.

Private Ceylon Samuel McIlhenny, who was wounded severely on August 25, is the son of Mrs. T. H. Schaeffer. He enlisted in the old

Pneumonia Jackets Are Made by the Red Cross

That stricken sufferers from influenza might live, forty Harrisburg women worked at the local Red Cross workrooms Sunday, making dozens of pneumonia jackets, which were used in allaying the pain.

This fact was made public this morning and is cited by Red Cross officials as an illustration of the verity that Red Cross workers are ever ready to help all suffering.

Another salient point in the fight against influenza is that in every case when the Red Cross was called

Hewitt G. Zollinger Dies in Mt. Holly Home

Hewitt Grove Zollinger, aged 27 years, died at his home in Mt. Holly Springs Saturday night according to word received here. As chairman of the Democratic committee of Cumberland county, a member of the Borough council, Cumberland Star Lodge of Masons, Carlisle Lodge of Elks, and Mt. Holly Spring Odd Fellows Lodge, he was widely known in the entire Central Pennsylvania region.

He was district chairman of the Council of National Defense and borough chairman for the Liberty Loan campaign. Death was due to pneumonia.

Private funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Zollinger, formerly of Harrisburg, was Miss Ethel Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Davies, 2009 Green street.
