

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS.

SON: Dead, Father and Sister Ill With Influenza
Columbia, Pa., Oct. 15.—Alphonse Edward Bittner, died in a hospital at Trenton, N. J., where he was employed. His father, Conrad Bittner, Jr., who went to accompany the body home, was compelled to take his bed upon arrival at Columbia, and is now lying seriously ill with pneumonia. His only daughter, Catherine, is also ill with the same disease. Mr. Bittner is proprietor of Hotel Bittner here.

BARBER GIVES RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR
Telis How to Make a Home-Made Gray Hair Remedy
Mr. A. E. O'Brien, who has been a barber in New York City for many years, made the following statement: "Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home."

Vigorous Men and Women Are in Demand
If your ambition has left you, your happiness has gone forever unless you take advantage of H. C. Kennedy's magnificent offer to refund your money on the first box purchased if Wendell's Ambition Pills do not put your entire system in the condition and give you the energy and vigor you have lost.

EPIDEMIC GAINS IN CUMBERLAND
Several Deaths and Many New Cases Badly Cripple Industries of Valley

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 15.—Day by day the influenza epidemic in this section grows worse instead of better. The number of cases reported is increasing and the total of deaths is mounting. Among the latest victims are Hewitt G. Zullinger, a prominent manufacturer of Mount Holly Springs, and Miss Margaret Kline, of Chestertown, Md., who died while on a visit to relatives at Craighead's station.

GOOD RECORD FOR PLANT
Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 15.—The Landis Tool Company, the big manufacturing concern on the south side of town, is the first to go over the top in subscribing for Liberty Bonds. Saturday it scaled the heights with a grand total of $153,700 or $5,700 above its allotment. Not only is the factory over the top but it shows a clean 100 per cent. score in every department. This means that every workman and every office employee is a subscriber to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

URIC ACID
TRY THE WILLIAMS TREATMENT
75c Bottle (32 Doses) FREE

Just because you start the day worried and tired, with aching muscles, aching back, aching head, burning and bearing down pains in the back—worry out before the day begins, do not think you have to stay in that condition. Be strong, well and vigorous, with no more pains from stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic suffering, aching back, aching head, burning and bearing down pains in the back—worry out before the day begins, do not think you have to stay in that condition.

TRAGIC RESULT OF CELEBRATION
Skidding Automobile Dashes Into Marchers at Lewisburg and Causes Man's Death

Lewisburg, Pa., Oct. 15.—Lewisburg's celebration over Germany's acceptance of the United States peace terms had a tragic ending about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, when Peter Stahl, a restaurant keeper, was struck by an automobile driven by Louis Banks and injured so badly that he died in a doctor's office a half hour later.

Following the receipt of the news here of Germany's acceptance of the peace terms, the fire alarm sounded, whistles were blown and church bells were rung. People gathered in the streets in throngs, including many students from Buckle University, to take part in an impromptu parade headed by the flags of the Allied nations and the Citizens' Band.

Carlisle Soldiers Reported Missing in Action in France

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 15.—Mrs. E. E. Minnich, of Carlisle, last evening received a telegram stating that Sergeant Frank Shenk, of Carlisle, has been missing in action since September 1. He was a member of Company G, of the One Hundred and Twelfth Regiment, formerly the old Eighty, and was in service on the Mexican border in 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bigler, have also received word that their son, Manning Bigler, also in the One Hundred and Twelfth, has been missing since September 9. Charles Lewis, also of Carlisle, in the One Hundred and Twelfth Regiment is also missing in action.

BOOSTING LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS
Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 15.—The Liberty Loan campaign in Cumberland county took a boost as it entered the final week. Many persons are increasing their subscriptions and others are falling into line.

MRS. WM. DOUGLASS DIES
Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Ann, wife of William Douglas, a member of the faculty of the Mercersburg Academy, died at her home in Mercersburg, from influenza, which was 32 years old and is survived by her husband and two children.

1,000 NEW CASES AT COLUMBIA
Red Cross Members Volunteer as Nurses; Physicians Work Night and Day

Columbia, Pa., Oct. 15.—Martin J. Rice, who died Sunday evening was the eighth victim of pneumonia in this place since the outbreak of influenza. He was 63 years old and was ill only a few days. The secretary of the board of health reports about one thousand cases in the borough, but of this number comparatively few are serious. There is a shortage of nurses and among the women who volunteered their services are Mrs. H. M. North, Jr., chairman of Columbia chapter of the Red Cross, and Mrs. George P. Cooper, a former trained nurse. The medical force is handicapped by the illness of two local physicians with the disease and the remainder are kept at work almost day and night.

Suburban Notes
LIVERPOOL
H. E. Bair spent the weekend at Dalmatia.

Misses Mary and Gertrude Lester, of Millersburg, were recent visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. S. Shuler. William Albright, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend here with his sister, Mrs. P. K. Brink.

HALIFAX
Miss Helen Loudmilk is the new clerk in the Halifax post office, succeeding Miss M. J. Brink.

Miss Helen Loudmilk is the new clerk in the Halifax post office, succeeding Miss M. J. Brink. Miss Helen Loudmilk is the new clerk in the Halifax post office, succeeding Miss M. J. Brink.

MIDDLETOWN
Influenza Claims New Victims in the Borough

The funeral of Mr. Marion Barth Lingie was held yesterday morning, the body arrived on the noon train over the Pennsylvania railroad from Philadelphia and was taken to the Middletown cemetery where short services were held. The pallbearers were: A. R. Hoffman, T. B. Boyd, A. B. Cresler, H. E. Smith, J. S. Ulrich, and B. V. McNair; Rev. James Cunningham officiated.

EDITOR DILLSBURG BULLETIN DIES
W. M. Elicker Was Widely Known as Publisher, Banker and Temperance Worker

Dillsburg, Pa., Oct. 15.—W. W. Elicker, editor of the Dillsburg Bulletin, died at his home in South Second street, on Sunday evening at 11 o'clock, after an illness of three months. He was 41 years old. He was born near Franklintown, July 27, 1877, and has been living in this section most of his life, except for several years that he spent at York in a printing office.

Liverpool People Cutting Wood For Winter's Fuel

Liverpool, Pa., Oct. 15.—Due to the scarcity and high price of coal there will undoubtedly be a large amount of wood burned in Liverpool and vicinity during the coming year. For years past at the request of the government timber has been conserved, but fearing a repetition of the conditions of coal shortage similar to last winter and in accordance with instructions received from the Council of National Defense the people of this community are laying in a good supply of timber and will thus conserve the coal for less fortunate towns.

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM In a Very Few Days

It is an established fact that a small dose of Rheuma taken once a day has driven the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics during the last seven years. Powerful yet harmless, quick acting and inexpensive, Rheuma gives blessed relief almost at once. The magic name has reached nearly every hamlet in the land and there is hardly a druggist anywhere who cannot tell you of almost marvelous cures.

RHEUMATIC TORTURE

Take "Neutrone Prescription 99" and the Pain and Aching Will Vanish. Rheumatic misery is now a thing of the past. It matters not how sore your joints are, or how swollen and painful, one bottle of "Neutrone Prescription 99" will make you feel fine and comfortable.

BOYS PICKING APPLES
Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 15.—Apples by the thousands of bushels are now being gathered in this section. Large forces of men, women, boys and girls are employed daily in the large apple orchards of D. M. Wertz, the Kedy orchards, Edward Nicodemus, U. W. Harshman, D. L. Miller, Aaron Newcomer, Rauhauser, and others.

ILL EIGHTEEN YEARS
Columbia, Pa., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Dolly M. Smith, widow of Samuel Smith, a well-known colored man, died yesterday afternoon after an illness of eighteen years, aged 88 years. She was one of the oldest members of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM In a Very Few Days

It is an established fact that a small dose of Rheuma taken once a day has driven the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics during the last seven years. Powerful yet harmless, quick acting and inexpensive, Rheuma gives blessed relief almost at once. The magic name has reached nearly every hamlet in the land and there is hardly a druggist anywhere who cannot tell you of almost marvelous cures.

DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL

DIAL 4016 ENTER ANYTIME BELL 694-R
Two Night Schools: Monday, Wednesday, Friday Nights—Tuesday. BECKLEY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE THE OFFICE TRAINING SCHOOL 121 MARKET ST. CLOSED TEMPORARILY By Order of Board of Health WATCH PAPERS FOR REOPENING DATE

Store Hours
OPEN 9:00 A. M.
CLOSE 5:30 P. M.
SATURDAY
9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

The New Store of WM. STROUSE LEADER SINCE 1894

Show Your Patriotism Buy More Bonds
Here Are the Results of Months Of Thought and Planning
When you come to our store (as we hope you will without delay) you will see an imposing array of

Stratford Clothes Overcoats and Suits

Every style, every pattern that the most exacting and discriminating taste can demand. For many months the STRATFORD "Tailoring Shops" have been planning and working to produce these clothes—not only to produce them, but to make them far and away better than any other line of clothing on the market.

Overcoat Special $16.50 to $50
Suit Special $25.00 to $45
Special for Youths $22.50 and $25

WM. STROUSE THE NEW STORE OF

ANNVILLE
The Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Arndt, of Adamstown, spent several days here.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos announce the birth of a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Adam Barnhart spent a day at Lebanon. Miss Emma is spending some time at Shellsville.

MILLERSTOWN
Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Spangler and family, having closed the summer season of their show, have returned home.

Harry Branyan was at Philadelphia last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Raleson, of Lewistown, spent several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fry.

400 CASES AT LEWISTOWN
Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 15.—In two days 247 new cases of influenza were reported. Mrs. J. Leeds Clarkson, of the Red Cross nursing bureau, and Miss E. L. Felker are keeping track of the number of cases. Fifteen young women from the various Red Cross nursing classes have volunteered their services during the epidemic. A temporary hospital is being fitted up.

DILLSBURG
John A. Grove was brought to his home here yesterday from the Harrisburg Hospital, where he had been since September suffering from the results of a fall at Marsh Run. S. H. Klugh and William Grove bought his home on a lot in Mr. Klugh's auto truck.

G. C. Fishel has resigned his position at the Dillsburg Hardware and Furniture Company and has accepted one at the Deitz grain elevator at Mechanicsburg. Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Reierick spent several days at Chambersburg.

Next Time Your Coffee doesn't suit you why not try Instant Postum

When you stop to think that tens of thousands of families now use it in preference to coffee, you must realize—There's a Reason! Needs But Little Sugar.

MUSLIN COMMITTEE PLEASED
Liverpool, Pa., Oct. 15.—The chairman and muslin committee of the local Red Cross are much pleased with the splendid response to their appeal for muslins and it is expected that Liverpool has once again "gone over the top."

The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

The Middletown borough council, which meets second Monday of each month and which was to have met last evening has postponed same in accordance with the ruling of meeting in the year 1917, he again resigned his position as chief of the board of health, few cases so far have developed, but the board decided to take all precautions of spread of same.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rewalt is visiting her son, Dr. Robert Rewalt, at Williamsport for two weeks. Eight members of the family of Frank Meislar, South Wood street, are down with the Spanish influenza.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Middletown has a total of $241,300 in Liberty Loan sales up to late last night, it was announced today. The quota of the borough is $284,610. In order to raise the remainder, a Liberty Loan meeting is being held this afternoon in the markethouse on Emaus street. It is believed by officials that at the meeting enough subscriptions will be secured to pull the town over the top.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Prof. Klugh, who is in the army service at Washington, and Maude Klugh, of Hershey, spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Klugh. W. H. Klugh, of Lemoyne, visited friends here on Saturday.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.

REMAINS OF HELEN ELIZABETH DAPP
The remains of Helen Elizabeth Dapp the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dapp, who died at the home at Camden, N. J., were brought to town and burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crane was a visitor at Harrisburg on Saturday. A son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Caldwell, in Higginum, Conn., on October 12. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Jennie Ush, of Millerstown.