The road to Brussels is open. According to latest advices, the French and Belgian armies are advancing rapidly towards Bruges and Ghent. The capture of Ostend makes it possible to land reinforcements and throw powerful forces against the extreme right of the Ostend makes it possible to land reinforcements and the wave of the vas attended for the possible to land reinforcements and the strenge regist of the content army.

 General von Arnim's army no longer is strong enough to sustain operations on the extended front from the French to the Dutch frontier. It is, therefore, reasonable to expect that its retreat across Belgium will be rapid and that King Albert will re-enter his capital earlier than was hoped.
 At the very moment the Flanders battle was won another offensive was started in the direction of Hirson and Vervins by Anglo-American and French forces. The object is to take the armies of the Crown Prince, under shelter of the Hunding line, on the flank and force them to an early retreat towards the Ardennes across the front of the powerful Allied right wing.
 The way back to Germany lies through two bottle necks, separated by the Ardennes—the one between Liegg and Dinant and the other between Montmedy and Verdun. The latter already is partially blocked.
 While it may be admitted that the Germans are fight ing well and conducting their retreat with great skill military opinion here is that the great German military and the other between Montmedy and Verdun. The latter already is partially blocked.

The advance also included U. S. Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, American Can, Studebaker, Ohio gas, and Sugars at gains of large frac-tions to 1 1-2 points. Of all the re-cent sppeculative favorites, Marines and ne failed to make more than nom-imal improvement. Oils extended their advantage in the first half hour-but elsewhere prices reacted moder-ately on profit taking: Toruche stelling for profits and a four-point decline in Marine pfd. provoked recations of one to three points from the war group, mainly Bethlehem and Crucible Steels and Baldwin Locomo-tive, yielded one to two points. In-cluded among the gains of the morn-ing were motors and utilities at ad-vances of one to four points. Re-coveries in Marines and U. S.
