Cumberland Valley

EPIDEMIC TOLL REMAINS SAME

Number of New Cases in Car- Reports From France Show lisle Drops, but Deaths Continue Unabated

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 19.—There is hope that the influenza epidemic in this section may have reached its peak, following a day when the repeaa, following a day when deep ported cases in Carlisle and vicinity fell to less than 200. However, the death toll remains the same. In one morgue at Carlisle there are nineteen dead bodies. Physicians and nurses are being rushed to the limit. Pneumonia is developing in some instances.

Pneumonia is developing in some instances.

Dr. Harvey B. Bashore reported a slight decrease in the Lower End. Shippensburg and Newville situations remain about the same and at Bowmansdale and Grantham the disease is disappearing. Barber shops have also come under the ban and must close at 6 o'clock while barbers are forbidden to go to homes to shave influenza patients.

barbers are forbidden to go to homes to shave influenza patients.
One of the latest deaths was that of Frank L. Coffey, a Carlisle school teacher, who succumber to paeumonia following an influenza attack. He was formerly a resident of Shippensburg and was principal of the Hamilton and Penn buildings here. His wife, formerly Miss Blanche Railing of Shippensburg, and a uyong son survive.

Other deaths from the disease in this section include: Rachel Hub-ley, aged 14, Carlisle; Richard Best, Newville; Mrs. John Koskt, 75, New-ville; J. Austin Mickey, Newville; Miss Blanche M. Tenn, aged 20, of FIRE AT DAUPHIN HOTEL Dauphin, Pa., Oct. 19. — What ccurred early yesterday afternoon night have resulted in a serious fire, the "Folger Inn," Dauphin's only totel, when a fire started on the orch roof and penetrated into the dies of the house before discovery. porch roof and penetrated into the sides of the house before discovery. The fire is thought to have been started by a spark from a passing engine igniting a pile of leaves on the roof. By the use of extinguishers, the fire was speedly brought under control. The loss is comparatively small according to the proprietor of the hotel, Walter Folger.

HAUGHEY-JEWELL WEDDING Columbia, Pa., Oct. 19.—Miss Nellie E. Jewell, who was engaged as newspaper correspondent for several Lancaster papers and who is well-known in social circles, was married Thursday night to Harry C. Haughey, a well-known young locksmith. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of Trinity Reformed Church, by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Pannebecker. A reception for the immediate families was held at the newly-furnished home of the couple, 430 Locust street. The couple were attended by Miss M. Bertha Jewell and Charles A. Corrigan, sister and uncle of the bride. HAUGHEY-JEWELL WEDDING

HARVEY P. HESS DIES Halifax, Pa., Oct. 19.—Harvey P. ess, aged 33 years, died yesterday torning at his home on Market Hess, aged 33 years, died yesterday morning at his home on Market street, after a four days' illness of pneumonia. He was a member of the & O. S. of A. and the Odd Fellows. He is survived by his aged mother, two sisters, Mrs. H. J. Campbell, of Halifax; and Mrs. C. M. Louden, of Millersburg, and two brothers, Charles Hess, of near Enders; and William Hess, of Halifax. Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Ira D. Lowery, of the United Brethren Church. Burial will be made in the Methodist cemetery.

EIGHT DEATHS AT COLUMBIA Columbin, Pa., Oct. 19.—Eight more deaths were added to the toll of the influenza epidemic in this place with-in the past twenty-four hours, the influenza epidemic in this place with the past twenty-four hours, the names being: John Welsh, aged 29 years; William L. Collier, aged 15; ter Anna, of Alexandria, Va., who have been spending several months at New Cumberland, returned home Clarence Forney's family, of two years; Samuel S. Kurtz, aged 22, and Charles James, colored, 38 years and Charles James, colored, 38 years cold.

reported missing in action in July, is in a German prison camp. He was among the first to go to the front, with the old Pennsylvania National Guard, and saw service on the Mexican border before the United States entered war with, Germany.

Suburban Notes

WILLIAMSTOWN WILLIAMSTOWN
Charles Morgan left for Philadelphia, where he has accepted a position as an electrician.
Miss Blanche Uhler, of Lykens, spent Thursday with friends here.
Miss Elizabeth Moss is recovering from an attack of influenza.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis has returned to Philadelphia, after a vist at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller.
Mrs. Albert Neuer has returned

Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Albert Neuer has returned to her home at Wilkes-Barre, after visiting at the home of William Row. Jay Snyder, of Harrisburg, visited his family here this week.
Misses Aline Zellers and Pearl Foltz, of Harrisburg, visited relatives here this week here this week.

Edgar Snyder, of Trenton, N. J., was a recent visitor here with his family, who are visiting Mrs, Sarah Shumaker.

Shumaker.

Miss Louise Meaney, of Camden,
N. Ja. spent Tuesday here with her grandmother, Mrs. Louisa Stailey.
Miss Susie Shumaker, of Harrisburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs.
Jacob Giest.
Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ritter and granddaughter, of Middleburg, and
Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ritter and son, of Shamokin Dam, were recent visitors with Dr. W. G. Morris and family.

family.

Miss V. M. Knisely, who has been nursing at Paoli, is home taking care to her mother. Mrs. J. B. Knisely, who is ill.

CARLISLE CO. IN HARD FIGHTING with the disease, but are now said to be recovering.

One brother, Charles Hall, a member of the Fifteenth United States Field Artillery, who was gassed and partially blinded in battle in France, was home a short time ago and is now recovering at the government hospital at Cape May, N. J. Recently he has also been ill with individual to the control of the control

PASTOR AND WIFE ILL New Cumberland, Pa., Oct. 19.— The Rev. C. H. Heiges, pastor of the Church of God and his wife, are still very ill with pneumonia at the parsonage in Reno street.

GIRLS MAKING MASKS New Cumberland, Pa. Oct. 19.— The Girls' Military Service Corps is assisting the Red Cross in making

Personal and Social Items of Towns on West Shore

MRS. M. E. SCHEGEL DIES MRS. M. E. SCHEGEL DIES
...Thompsontown, Pa., Oct. 19.—
Mrs. M. E. Schlegel died at her home in West Main street, at noon yesterday of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and four small children, the baby only two days old, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Domart and two sisters, Mrs. Seebold, of Millintown, who is critically ill of pneumonia, and Mrs. Hull, of Thompsontown, and a brother, John Domart, in France.

THOMPSONTOWN WINS FLAG THOMPSONTOWN WINS FLAG
Thompsontown, Pa., Oct. 19.—
Thompsontown has again gone over the top in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive. This little village of 300 inhabitants was allotted $12,208 of the habitants was allotted $12,208 of the county allotment of $300,000. The entire amount $12,208, with sixty subscribers, has been raised and the good people of the town will receive their honor flag.

Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd at Fahnestock Hall on December 6. Miss Shepherd, once a choir singer, in sacclaimed by the New York Evening Post as a "soprano of unusually pleasant quality. With Miss Shepherd Alma Grade, planiste and Sara Gurowitsch, violincelist are to appear. The concert is to be under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Miss Gurowitsch won the Mendelssohn prize in 1906 and has made many successful appearances in the great musical centers of Europe.

An excellent choir singer and solosist died when Samuel H. Shively, apepared in many evangelistic meetings in conjunction with Evangelist Hughes, a Welsh exhorter who traveled through Central Pennsylvania about three years ago. Mr. Shively was a Pennsylvania man, having been born in Fayetteville, Franklin county. Two years ago he left the evangelistic field and went ato business.

Onc of the most faithful choir singers of the state is Miss Catherine in the Zion Church. His fore-bears probably were organizers of the scene probably were organizers of the zonarion church. His fore-bears probably were organizers of the scene probably were orga SOLDIER DIES AT CAMP SOLDIER DIES AT CAMP Hummelstown, Pa., Oct. 19.—Word has been received of the death from pneumonia, at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., of Martin Rath, a former resident of town. Mr. Rath has been in the army only six weeks. The body will be brought here for burial.

SET FIRE TO MATTRESS
Columbia, Pa., Oct. 9.—Going to bed with a lighted cigar or cigaret is attributed as the cause of a fire Thursday night that called out nearly the entire fire department, and when they reached the scene it was found that only a slight blaze was started in the mattress.

ANNVILLE

George Houser spent a day at Schafferstown.

Clarence Lutz is, ill at his home, in Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmuck angounce the birth of a daughter.

LIVERPOOL STORES CLOSE

Liverpool. Pa., Oct. 19.—In accordance with the order of Chief Burgess H. E. Ritter, all merchants of town will close stores promptly at 6 p. m., on account of the prevailing epidemic of Spanish influenza.

INSTITUTES ARE

For First Time in Years Some of Them Will Not Be Held in Pennsylvania

Governors Welcome Them and the state of the state Capitol a week or so ago, were state of the grand total to almost 30 tons.

Wounded Soldier to Return Home to Find His Mother Dead

John Brownawell, 342 Brooks street, who was recently wounded in France is expected home for a furlough in several weeks. When he reaches Harrisburg he will receive the sad news that his mother, Mrs. Lillian Brownawell, aged 42 yearrs, died yesterday morning from pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. E. E. Curtis, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

by years: Samuel S. Kurtz, aged 22, and Charles James, colored, 35 years.

David B. Shellenberger died at his home from a complication of discases, aged 65 years.

VIOLATED GAME LAWS

Liverpool, Pa., Oct. 19.—D. Maurice Shuler, of Liverpool, game warden of Perry county, made two arrests this week for illegal hunting. Sham E. Strawser, of Tuscarora township, paid a fine of $10 for killing a gray squirrel and Charles Lightner, of Shalers Violated and costs amounting to $29.05 for killing a wild turkey out of season.

SOLDIER IN PRISON CAMP

Marietta, Pa., Oct. 19.—Word reached Marietta that Guy Breckline, reported missing in action in July, is in a German prison camp. He was among the first to go to the front, with the old Pennsylvania National Guard, and saw service on the Mexican border before the United States

Fourth and water streets, New Cumbrated on the front, which had been and the prison of the influenza discovery precaution addition in the latest victims of the influenza epidemic and charles Lightner, of Shaeffer's Valley, paid a fine and costs amounting to $29.05 for killing a wild turkey out of season.

SOLDIER IN PRISON CAMP

Marietta, Pa., Oct. 19.—Word reached Marietta that Guy Breckline, reported missing in action in July, is in a German prison camp. He was among the first to go to the front, with the old Pennsylvania National Guard, and saw service on the Mexican border before the United States

Fourth and worder before the Sales of age, has been such the Rev. J. H. Morting this week.

Mrs. William Rishel and Mrs. Peffer, of Washington Heights, visited fre, of Washington Heights, visited fre, of Washington Heights, visited free, as result of the influenza folion in the constitution of the influenza to death about the season of the seaso This little message of reassurance has been sent by the Rev. J. H. Mortimer, pastor of Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist Church to his congregation as a result of the influence or production.

30 TONS OF CITY'S |22 PENNA. MEN NOW GIVEN OVER CLOTHING SENT TO THE BELGIANS

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

Reports From France Show That Ranks of Command Suffered Heavily

Carlidae, Pa., Oct. 13.—That Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily and the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as when the streem of the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Tworth Regiment suffered wheavily as the control of the Company C., of the One Hundred and Company C., of the One Hundred and Company C., of the Company C., of th

Mail-Carrying Airplanes May Stop at Harrisburg

May Stop at narrisburg

Harrisburg has been put on the map by the postal authorities who are planning the aerial mail service between New York and Chicago and in the very near future is expected to see the first of these high-powered, speedy machines built especially for mail mail-carrying purposes.

The air mail route across Pennsylvania as tentatively provided for will pass through Lehighton, Harrisburg, Sunbury and Bellefonte and thenne to Clarion and on to Chicago the sunbury and Bellefonte and thenne to Clarion Seyond Assistant Postmaster Otto Praeger, requesting that he consult the State Forestry Department as to what it can furnish in the way of survivors and lapdings. Emergency landings are needed near Sunbury, and also just west of Bellefonte. These landings, if possible, will be on state forest lands.
The matter will be taken up immediately by Mr. Sites and State Forestry Commissioner Conklin.

Corp. Beshore Dies of Wounds Received in France

Information has reached relatives in this city that Corporal J. Harry Beshore, 252 Harris street, who had previously been reported wounded in action August 8, had died of wounds. Corporal Beshore saw service on the border before he sailed overseas early last May. He was 21 years of age, and, being an orphan from youth, was raised by an uncle. Theodore Beshore, of this city Surviving him is one brother, Corporal E. A. Beshore, one brother, Corporal E. A. Beshore, Spartanburg, S. C., and a sister, Mrs. Harry Yeager.

MRS. MARY DUPLER DIES

DAUGHTER DIES IN ALABAMA

Hummelstown, Pa., Oct. 19.—

and Mrs. B. E. Rohrer received word of the death of their daughter, Mrs. Morford Mays, in Alabama. The body will be brought here for burial in the Hummelstown Cemetery.

With Choir and Organist

Singers of the city will be inter-, years was employed in the Pennsyl ested in the coming appearance of vania State Library in this city. For

One of the most faithful choir singers of the state is Miss Catherine Heyser, who is a member of the choir of the historic Zion Reformed Church at Chambersburg. For many years Miss Heyser has not missed a rehearsal. She is a daughter of the late Jacob Heyser, who for many

Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd at probably 40 years he was the ru

Fahnestock Hall on December 6. elder in the Zion Church. His fore

FALL IN BATTLE; 1,117 ON LISTS

Great Boxes Are Shipped to 247 Killed in Action; 380 Are enter county.

Anthony Stepanauvrch, Scranton.

John G. Walter, Lancaster.

DIED OF WOUNDS

Major

Benjamin F. Pepper, Philadelphia.

Private

Walter H. Harvey, New Britain,

ucks county.

DIED OF DISEASE Sergeant Wilson Lloyd, Chester. Corporal Corporal
Anthony Ryder, Altoona,
Wagoner
Robert G. Deemer, Lebanon.
Privates
John A. Haney, Riverview.
John Adam Hartman, Watsonown.

OWN.

George Kareha, Jessup.

DIED FROM ACCIDENT AND

OTHER CAUSES

Privates

Thomas E. Graney, Pittsburgh.

Whitmer R. McGregor, Kittan
ing.

Whitmer R. McGregor, Kittaning.
Leo A. McLoughlin, Phoenixville.
Raymond J. Martin, Pottsville.
Fattick J. Mullarkey, Scranton.
John H. W. Smith, Washington.
William F. Smith, Philadelphia.
John Francis Tierney, Pittsburgh.
Fred B. Trescher, Jeanette.
Paul Vigerges, Jeanette.
Joseph E. Webster, Newton.
Harry Wegman, Reading.
Andrew A. Yadnock, Pottstown.
John D. Ziegler, Pottstown.
John D. Ziegler, Pottstown.
Samuel Watson, Chester.
John F. Whalen, Irvin.
Clifford L. Wien, Pottstown.
Eden O. Womer, Portersville.
Stanley Kenneth Woods, Allenown.

SLIGHTLY WOUNDED IN ACTION Guy R. Day, Washington. WOUNDED (DEGREE UNDETER-MINED)

Daniel P. Lafferty, Philadelphia. Sergeant
Metro Roadside, Coaldale.
Corporals
John C. Hendren, Philadelphia.
William F. Miller, Pottsville.
John P. Munro, DuBois.
Dudley Atherton Wright, Forks-

James A. Sailey, Tower City. Charles W. Bauer, Philadelphia.
Thomas E. Biddle, Philadelphia.
Anthony Butcher, Wendering.
Louis Calderne, Easton.
John E. Calboun, Norristown.
Anthony Coderony, Hazleton.
Charles H. Cool, Fairfield, Liberty

Charles H. Cool, Fairfield, Liberty ownship.
Austin D. Fahr, Reading.
Mathew Fertizel, Tarentum.
George W. Freyer, Pittsburgh.
John W. Johnson, Lewistown.
John D Jurkanis, Nanticoke.
Giraid Leuzzio, Philadelphia. *
Charles Lohmiller, Philadelphia.
Stanley Lowry, Philadelphia.
Marshall Lundy, Montoursville.
Harold E. Moyer, Clark Summit.
Leo M. C. Wanner, Kittanning.
Kimber E. Whary, Lewistown.
Horace W. Weigelt, Collingdale.
MISSING IN ACTION
Sergeant

William H. Cannon, DuBois.
Privates
Maurice P. Crusemire, Philadel-Howard Evans, Brandywine Summit.

John P. Fahey, Old Forge.
Charles R. Houser, Pottsville.
Wilson H. Leiter, 2246 Atlas street,
Harrisburg.
Joseph N. Lendeman, Philadelbeen caught in the influenza epi-demic in the city have been quite a number of musicians. Had services been held as usual there would have nia. Asaph Leon Marther, Union City. Phillip E. Schultz, Philadelphia. Clarence Wright, Erie. Following are the casualties issued

> KILLED IN ACTION KILLED IN ACTION
> Lieutenant
> Cleo Jepson Ross, Titusville.
> Sergeants
> Lewis G. Droyer, Honesdale.
> Graham McConnell, Philadelphia.
> Privates
> Frank Bowden, Philadelphia.
> Valentine Davis, Weston.
> Thomas J. Flannery, Darby.
> John Leightheart, Philadelphia.
> Charles Francis Mahon, Manazunk.

yunk.
Albert Martin, Philadelphia.
Howard W. Shue, Schaefferstown.
Boyd E. Wilson, Meadow Lands.
DIED FROM WOUNDS RECEIVED IN ACTION
Privates

John J. McMackin, Philadelphia.
Mark Walsh, Scranton.
Benjamin F. Kelth, Philadelphia.
Roland G. Whiteley, Yeagertown.

DIED OF DISEASE
Corporal
Amos E. Deiter, Tremont.
Privates
James B. Reynolds, Philadelphia.
Samuel Joseph Taylor, Philadelbia.

DIED OF AIRPLANE ACCIDENT
Private
Charles A. Bebont, Washington.
WOUNDED SEVERELY Robert E. Mohn, Reading.

Robert E. Mohn, Reading.
Sergeants
James H. Lindsay, Greensburg.
Clinton G. Wenrich, Cressons
Linton county.
Harold D. Whyte, Rogersville.
Corporals
James H. Cross, Elizabeth.
Wesley M. Greer, Pittsburgh.
Clement A. Kietzly, Oakmont.
Clair E. Meeder, Zellenople.
Anthony Strom, Pittsburgh.
Earl Stufflet, Pottstown.
John N. Werntz, Philadelphia.
Philip E. White, Phoenixville.
Joseph B. Y. Wilson, Wayne.
Bugler Joseph B. Y. Wilson, Wayne.

Bugler
George W. Best, Derry.

Musicians
William D. Lohr, Ligonier.
Walter H. Veile, Punxsutawney
Raymond G. Washabaugh, Or

William F. Schuman, Millvale.

Privates

William Alward, Pittsburgh.
Joseph Cox, Phoenixville.

John Danknich, McKees Rocks.
Herman D. Dawson, California.
Michele De. Riggl, Pittsburgh.
Hiram Keim, Pottstown.
Mike Lacelle, Pittsburgh.
Joseps McCabe, Norristown.
John Henry McKee, Pittsburgh.
Satries Mantas, Elwood City.
Charles W. Mason, Chester.
Walenty Niemenski, Jeannette.
Benjamin Rosenbaum, Philadelphia. Cook

phia.
Frank Skelly, Norristown.
Charles A. Smith, Pottstown.
Harry Specter, Philadelphia.
WOUNDED (DEGREE UNDETERMINED
Sergeants
Joseph M. Hufnal, Morton.
Albert L. Taylor, Pittsburgh.
William R. Wallace, Water Gap.
Verne S. White, Stroudsburg. Corporals
Horatio W. Haas, Stroudsburg.
Joseph L. E. Kerns, Addingho Delaware county. Louis B. Kerns, Warrington, Bucks

Louis B. Kerns, Warrington, Bucks county,
Nichol Lung, Philadelphia.
Raymond Moser, Warren.
Bugler
Samuel West, Chester.
Cook
Sherman T. Beatty, Arnold.
Privates
Thomas Beam, Stroudsburg.
Ignac Belan, Monessen.
William E. Bertles, Doylestown.
Thomas Bradley, Philadelphia.
William F. Donatt, Barren Hill,
Montgomery county.

ontgomery county.
Frank Fatsie, Hazleton.
Gus C. Faulkner, Philadelphia.
Harry A. Fleming, Manheim, Lan-

Harry A. Fleming, Manheim, Lancaster county.
Alfred Hellerman, Doylestown.
Norris Hicks, Philadelphia.
Bernard C. Horan, Philadelphia.
Edward Howey, Dixon City.
Samuel J. Kennedy, Ogontz.
Harold D. B. Kite, Hazleton.
Lowry F. McDowell, Grove City.
Guiseppe Marioni, Morgan.
Polimando Olivieri, Blairsville.
John B. Patterson, Mercer.
Joseph A. Petrone, Pittsburgh.
Lawrence A. Quehl, New Castle.
George E. Bedfern, Philadelphia.
John Reinek, Cheltenham.
John J. Rowland, (Norristown.
Frank J. Russell, Philadelphia.
James N. Saunders, North East.
Thomas A. Scott, Doylestown.
Robert A. Singer, East Stroudesburg.
Hamilton L. Sutfer, Indiana.

Robert A. Singer, East Stroudesburg.

Hamilton L. Sutter, Indiana.
Oscar C. Transue, Shawnee-onDelaware, Monre county.
Frank Turanek, Carnegie.
John Walters, Pittsburgh.
Alphonus Mullen, Pittsburgh.
William J. Neuner, Pittsburgh.
Charles Parker, Philadelphia.
Fred H. Seddon, McKeesport.
Clayton F. Shadle, Tar City.
Arthur F. Svedberg, McKeesport.
Daniel Williams, Scranton.
John B. Wood, McKeesport.
MISSING IN ACTION
Licutenant

MISSING IN ACTION
Licutenant
Donald Johnston, 1714 North Second street, Harrisburg.
Corporals
George Hancock, Pittsburgh.
Charles J. Hayden, Latrobe.
George T. Olson, DuBois.
Privates
Millard M. Alderton, Reynoldsville.
Luty Belski, Shamokin.
Giovanni Capocetta, Sharpsville.
James H. Henry, Philadelphia.
Harry Lanehart, Saxton.
Lester Leaman, Lancaster.
John Nédzelski, Erie.

Penbrook Red Cross Has Xmas Mail Orders

Has Xmas Mail Urders

The Penbook branch of the Red Cross has ready for distribution the pamphlets containing instructions for sending Christmas boxes to our soldiers overseas. Any person expecting to receive a Christmas parcel label from a soldier overseas can have a copy of these instructions by applying to Postmaster Hoover or Miss Emma C. Nisley.

The Penbrook branch will be glad to supply the families living in Progress and vicinity with these instructions, and the same can he had by applying to H. A. Loeser, and Froviced of the same can be a proviced by the same can be a proviced of the same can be a proviced

MILTON ELDER DIES

Marietta, Pa., Oct. 19.—Milton Elder, 59 years, died yesterday from cancer of the liver after a long illness.

He was employed by the Marietta Hollowware and Enameling Company. He leaves a brother, Jere Elder, two sisters, Mrs. Ida Baldwin and Mary Elder. He was born at Baltimore, but has lived in Marietta for fifty

WAR WORK WEEK RED CROSS MAKES IS ANNOUNCED SOLDIERS HAPPY

Governor Issues Proclamation Ladies Provide Refreshments Urging That More Support Free to 3,800 in One Be Given Agencies Day Here

The week commencing November Yesterday was the record day for

Be Given Agencies

The week commencing November 19 was to-day proclaimed as "United War Work Compaign week" by Governor Brumbaugh in a proclamation issued from the Governor's office to day. This proclamation which is the fifth from the executive department this week commends the efforts of the seven agencies which are at work as "the largest, finest volunteer service that has ever challenged the thought of men and given hope and help to the worthy."

"Whereas, The purposes and potency of this government in the world was are now manifest throughout twoorld. Two million Americans are in Dunge. They are the first the subting of nations. They seek no territory. They ask no gain at the cost others. They carry with the flag are there to guard the spiritual desting of nations. They seek no territory. They ask no gain at the cost others. They carry with the flag when possible. Altogether it is the sublimest spectacle God has yets spread before mankind. It is not as when possible. Altogether it is the sublimest spectacle God has yets spread before mankind. It is not as when possible. Altogether it is the sublimest spectacle God has yets spread before mankind. It is not as when possible. Altogether it is the sublimest spectacle God has yets spread before mankind. It is not as when possible. Altogether it is the sublimest spectacle God has yets spread before mankind. It is not as the spread before mankind in them any perform their duties suprembly well it is vital to maintain in them are proved agencies are their most enduring and emobiling gift to the cause they serve, and the well, we approved agencies are the lift of the world.

"They represent American manhood the proposed approach the well and the world was a completed to go to their relatives are their most enduring and emobiling gift to the cause they serve in the submitted of the world.

"They represent American manhood the proposed approach the well and the world was provided the proposed approach the well and the world.

"They represent American manhood in the p

Lemoyne patriots fighting the Hunthins Republic should be in the army of support to them.

"Now, Therefore, I, Martin G. Brumbaugh, Goyernor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do here by designate the week beginning November tenth, 1918, as United War Work Campaign Week, upon which dates I am confident every man, woman and child worthy of this Commonwealth and residing in or passing through it will gladly seek out the constituted committees set for the receipt of funds for this cause and make liberal, gracious and sacrificing gifts to this, the largest, finest organized volunteer service that has ever challenged the thought of men and given hope and help to the worthy."

LA. SLOAD DIES

NEW TRAFFIC RULES AT FOURTH AND CHESTNUT

J. A. SLOAD DIES

Annville, Pa., Oct. 19.—J. Abraham Sload died at his home, on Wednesday following an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Sload was employed at the Kreider Shoe factory, and was aged 32 years. He is survived by his wife, who prior to her marriage, was Miss Annie Crowe, of Annville. Funeral services were held to-day.

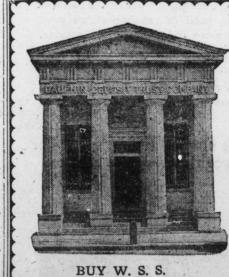

Bilious

That had taste in the month; that foul breath; that furred tongue; that dull headache; that disturbed sleep; that depression; that yellowish skin— all tell the story of biliousness, a disorbiliousness, a disor-dered system, and are fundamental in their action, they go down to the root of the trouble, restoring liver, stomach and bowels to a healthy condition; giving quick relief from bilious attacks, indigestion, headache, heartburn, flatulency, depression of spirits-and affording absolute freedom from these disorders. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are tonic, therefore they form no habit. PLAIN OR SUGAR COATED

SCHENCKS MANDRAKE

PROVED FOR MERIT BY 80 YEARS' CONTINUOUS SALE DR. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Philadelphia

WE WISH to thank our customers and friends who have made it possible for us to exceed our quota for the "fighting" FOURTH LIBERTY

All of our applications have now been turned over to us and we are prepared to deliver club card, receive payments and arrange details of your subscription with you.

Dauphin Deposit Trust Co.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Herrisburg.Pa.