

SUPERIOR COURT CONTEST LOOMS

Fight For Two Places Over-shadows State Governatorial Race

Interest in the contest over the election of two members of the Superior Court threatens to overshadow the gubernatorial fight, which so far has been marked by apathy.

There are four leading candidates for the two places which will be filled by the voters at the election Tuesday, November 5.

The vote for the Superior Court justices is cast on the nonpartisan ballot, which is separate from the ballot on which the names of party candidates appear.

Because of an old clause in the State Constitution at the same election each voter is entitled to vote for only one candidate.

The four leading candidates for the two Superior Court places are Superior Court Judge John W. Keppart, Charles E. Wilkes-Barre, lawyer, and Alexander Simpson, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Edward Fox, of Easton, the two present justices who were appointed by Governor Brumbaugh to fill vacancies caused by death.

Judge Keppart is believed by those familiar with political conditions to have the best chance of the four. It is expected that he will receive the support of the active Republican organization workers over the state.

Justice Simpson, the other Republican, will receive the vote of the Philadelphia to start with Justice Simpson will have a strong advantage over the two Democrats, Mr. Lebanon and Justice Fox.

Should anything in the normal Republican vote be polled there is a strong possibility that both Judge Keppart and Justice Simpson will win, exclusive of Philadelphia. In that contest totaled more than 210,000.

SERVING NATION AT HOME AND ABROAD

Orno B. Oren, Arthur B. Morris, Herman B. Smith, Albert Langlets

Word was received here that Arthur Bruce Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Morris, 444 West Main street, Lykens, a former Telegraph Linotype operator, who entered the service June 26, 1918, received the promotion of corporal on September 18.

Corporal Morris tried to enlist shortly after the war broke out, but was rejected for minor physical disqualifications. He is company clerk for Company A, First Provisional Guard and special duty training battalion at Camp Lee, Va.

The parents of two other Harrisburg boys have received word recently of their sons' arrival safely overseas. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith, 2174 Brookwood street, received word that their son, Herman Russell Smith, arrived safely overseas after a course of training at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., and Camp Upton, N. Y. He left the city September 5.

Another Harrisburger ready to "go over" is Albert Langlets, Trindle Road, Camp Hill. He is stationed with the Thirty-ninth Hospital Corps at Camp Greenleaf, Ga. Langlets reports himself highly pleased with the army life.

Cleveland, O.—Friends of Samuel D. Sinclair, Cleveland boy, located at an officers training camp at Leon Springs, Tex., believe he is the youngest commissioned officer in the American forces. Sinclair is a first lieutenant and is but seventeen years of age. He has won a medal for rifle practice, and is now an instructor in bayonet and rifle drills.

Sinclair was in a military school when war broke out and immediately tried for enlistment in the aviation corps. Later he was sent to an officers training camp.

MIDDLETOWN

Middletown Red Cross Rooms Reopen Today

Miss Susie Pisalski, aged 19, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Yaros, Fisher avenue, Sunday afternoon. She came here from her home at Danville to visit her sister and became suddenly ill. She is survived by her parents; five sisters, Mrs. Mary Bujhos, Ellen, Pauline and Edith Pisalski, Danville, and Mrs. Andrew Yaros, of town. Funeral services were held this morning from the home of her sister at 9:30 o'clock, the Father Jules Pohn, rector of the St. Mary's Catholic Church, officiating. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery, East Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nissley, of North Spring street, received word that their son, Leonard Nissley, who is stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky., is ill with influenza.

The Red Cross room in the Rambler building, corner Union and Mill streets, which has been closed for the past three weeks, owing to the influenza epidemic, was allowed to open by the local board of health. The board of health ordered that no one may come if cases of influenza are being treated at their homes. The rooms will be open as usual, every Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 5 o'clock, and work on emergency supplies will be rushed, as these supplies are nearly exhausted.

The funeral of Virgil Breneman, who died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Breneman, Saturday evening from bronchial pneumonia, was held from the home in Hoffman avenue this afternoon, with services at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. E. A. G. Bossler, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, of town, officiated. Burial was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Numbers and two children, who spent the past three weeks in town as the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ettle, Ann street, returned to their home at Philadelphia, accompanied by Mr. Numbers, who spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. D. H. Palmer and son, Daniel Palmer, of South Wood street, were called to York yesterday on account of the serious illness of the latter's wife.

Miss Jeannette Wallace is spending the week at Gardner, Adams county, with friends.

First Lieutenant Croll Nissley, of Camp Humphries, Acotink, Va., is home on a ten days' furlough, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nissley, North Spring street. He had been quite ill with influenza.

John Albert Baschore, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baschore, died at the parents' home in Adams street, Hoffer's Extension, yesterday from pneumonia. Besides the parents, he is survived by one sister, Rebecca Baschore, and one brother, Oscar Baschore Jr.

The body of John Yuponic, who died at the Harrisburg Hospital last Friday morning, was brought to town Sunday afternoon. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery, East Middletown.

W. H. Clemens has returned home from a week's trip to Berwick. Thomas Stipe, who was sent to Fort Thomas, Ky., by the Steelton draft board, has returned home as he did not pass the physical examination.

Miss Charlotte Weidner, a trained nurse who was secured by the local board of health and the Red Cross, has done splendid work for her first week, but there is still need of first-aid nurses, and any one who wishes to assist should report at the drug store of C. S. Few.

Minotto Reveals Plot to Put Caillaux in Power

New York, Oct. 29.—Startling disclosures regarding the alleged negotiations of Joseph Caillaux, one-time Premier of France, and Count von Luxburg, former German Minister to Argentina, intended to re-establish Caillaux in power in Paris in 1915, and bring about a separate peace with Germany, have been made to Deputy State Attorney General Becker by Count James Minotto, an interned enemy alien, the state official announced here late yesterday.

The deposition of Minotto, who is a son-in-law of Louis Swift, of Chicago, has been forwarded to the French Ambassador at Washington, Mr. Becker said, and a summary of it has been cabled to France for use in the trial of Caillaux for high treason, which opens to-morrow. The full text also is on its way to Paris by a fast steamship.
