No Relief in Sight For Berkks Countyseat

"Very slight prospects exirt for any early raising of the influenza ban in Reading, Allentown and other Eastern Pennsylvania cities not mentioned in the orders already issued," was the statement issued at the State Department of Health to-day, Reading had thirty-five deaths reported yesterday, Lancaster will be placarded if saloons and theaters open before the time set, and Chester will get a tastes of "drastic" action. These statements were made at the department to-day and further assurance given that not line was in sight for relief of Pittsburgh.

State Police and department agents have taken photographs of saloon side doors in operation in the anthractic field and may extend that work to other places.

OVER BY $100,000

Bond

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—Cumberland county oversubscribed its Fourth Liberty Loan quota by approximately $100,000, with over 14,000 subscribers, according to announcement made by George E. Lloyd, chairman Thirty-ninth Federal Reserves District. From all indications one out of about every four residents of Cumberland county will own a Fourth Liberty Loan Bond, and the average per capita subscription of those subscribing will amount to about $195.
The subscriptions cleared through the banks and the credits from Pennsylvania and the Cumberland Valley Rallroad Companies of employes' subscriptions amount to $2,699,00; making an excess of Cumberland county's quota of $59,000. With subscriptions of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company employes and credits from banks in other counties for subscriptions amount to $2,699,00; making an excess of Cumberland county's quota of $59,000. With subscriptions of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company employes and credits from banks in other counties for subscriptions and county, the amount in excess of the quota will be increased approximately $100,000.

It is remarkable to note that the citizens of Cumberland county does not have any large war industries which are a source of revenue in a subscription which are a source of revenue in a which are a source of revenue in a which are a source of revenue in a subscription which are the proposed when the proposed

Health officials explained that these burial certificates were issued in cases of deaths some of which dated back to October 21, and that one undertaker alone who had been unundertaker alone who had been unable to arrange for funerals because of the shortage of coffins, took out nineteen of the certificates.

All schools, churches, theaters, polrooms, soda fountains, saloons, wholesale liquor stores and other places closed in the city and the lower end of the county because of the influenza epidemic may reopen after noon on Tuesday, November 5. This announcement was made last night by Dr. B. Franklin Payer and comes from homes where any dis-case is known to exist, unless the child comes with a permit from the local medical inspector, Dr. W. E. Mowery. At a meeting of the Board of Health to-morrow evening, it will be decided whether the ban will be lifted from churches, Sunday echools, stores and places of amusement. Closing orders will remain in effect indefinitely in Millersburg. Lykens, Williamstown, Ellzabeth-ville and Gratz until the epidemic shows further improvement, Dr. Royer said. Local restrictions also will be continued for a short time at Hershey and Swatara.

The lifting of the ban on Tuesday at noon will not permit saloons to resume, however, as it is election day and a state law prohibits the sale of liquor then. It is believed that all other business places and the schools will open immediately, however.

That the epidemic is slowly decreasing was again intimated by Dr. Raunick, who also said it would be practically impossible to say whether it would abate sufficiently by next Tuesday to permit reopening of all closing restrictions in the Lykens valley district.

lifting of all closing restrictions in his city:

"I spent two hours with Dr. Royer and went over Pittsburgh conditions carefully. I found Dr. Royer insistent on not releasing or lifting the ban in Pittsburgh for a few days. His rea potent reason is that conditions in McKeesport, McKees Rocks, Homestead and some of the other surrounding towns, are such that if the ban is lifted it would mean that there would be a great influx of people into the city of Pittsburgh. Dr. Royer believes this would be very bad at this time because of the peculiar relation between Pittsburgh and the other centers of population. While Dr. Royer would not lift the ban at the present time, he gave me strong hope that within a few days he would set the time when we could

Yanks Set Trap With Bread and Tobacco; Capture 51 Germans

With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Oct 30.—Americans now count among their prisoners of ty-one members of the Second German landwenr, who are the most sadly disillusioned men from the German emperor's army. The men are convinced they were played a shabby trick in being taken prisoner, though they are quickly becoming reconciled to their lot by generous rations of food and tobacco. The Germans for several days had been coming unarmed out of their trenches, creeping forward to a point midway between the two lines, where they had been given bread and tobacco by the Americans. Their donors, they told an American intelligence officer, wore crosses on their shoulders.

The other day when they came over they were told that on the next visit each man would receive five sacks of tobacco instead of one sack. The glad news was spread. The operative treatment of the control o
