MIGHTY TEUTONIC ALLIANCE, SHAKEN BY DEFEAT AND REVOLT, TUMBLING TO BITS AS AUSTRIA'S ARMY FLEES IN DISORDER

VICTORY SO BIG PRISONERS CAN NOT BE COUNTED

Lines Are Smashing For 100 Miles With Allies Rushing Forward in Great Leaps

London, Nov. 1.-Negotiations between the Italian and Austro-Hungarian military commanders for an armistice are proceeding, according to advices received in London this afternoon. Fighting already may have come to an end.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Official Rome dispatches to-day describing the victorious sweep AN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN of Italian and Allied armies that is demolished Every Nook of City and Counthe Austrian front, say the lines are moving forward in such great leaps that it no longer is possible to identify towns retaken or to count prisoners and guns captured or Italians liberated. With the Austrians everywhere in flight and the Italion armies on two wings about to unite, it is said to be impossible to foresee where the few enemy divisions will

The great Teutonic alliance, which for four years has carried a the greatest war in history and often seemed to have almost achieved success, is tumbling to pieces.

Turkey apparently has given up everything, agreed to the pening of the Dardenelles and the Bosphorus and thrown herself upon the mercy of the Allies arrayed against her. In this within a day or two. Assistance to Rumania and intervention in Southern Russia probably is a matter of bu: a brief period.

Austrians Face Disaster

Austrian armies fighting on Italian soil face a great military disaster, for the rush of the troops commanded by General Diaz has not been halted by Austrian appeals. Proposals made by plenipotentiaries from Vienna have been referred to the Inter-Allied War Council by the Italian commander, but the work of wiping out the stigma of the defeat of Caporetto has not been stopped. Fifteen Austrian divisions are reported to be trapped in the mountain sector between the Brenta and Piave rivers, while the Austrian forces between the sea and Belluno are in dire-peril of being annihilated. Over 50,000 prisoners have been Indictment in Aircraft Paptured by the Allies since the drive began.

Austria Scene of Anarchy

At home, Austria seems to be a seething hotbed of anarchy. Railroads of the most vital importance have been cut, rioting of a serious nature has occurred in many of the larger cities, and the imperial authorities at Fiume, Prague and possibly other cities have given up control to the Slavish and Czech national committees. Germany now seems to be virtually cut off from Austria by the action of the Czechs in Bohemia.

Berlin May Know Today

From Paris comes a report that the terms of the Allies will be made known in Berlin to-day. The shifting of the sittings of the Inter-Allied War Council from Paris to Versailles is viewed as an indication that the official, and, possibly, the final phase of the momentous meeting of entente representatives has been reached.
