

BORIS, KING OF THE BULGARS, IS OFF THE THRONE

Stambulivsky, Chief of the Peasants and Agrarians, Is New Ruler

Copenhagen, Nov. 2.—King Boris, of Bulgaria, who ascended the throne on October 18, has abdicated. A peasant government has been established at Tirnova under the leadership of M. Stambulivsky, who has been the chief of the peasants and agrarians of Bulgaria for some time.

M. Stambulivsky, who is reported to be the head of the new government in Bulgaria, is said to be in command of a republican army of 40,000 men, according to a Zurich dispatch to the Central News.

Colonel House, Texas Politician, Ranks With Statesmen of Europe

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out a statement relative to the Republican attitude regarding Col. House as official representative of the United States at the peace conference in Paris.

"To what depths has the United States fallen?" says the statement, that its 110,000,000 people must have their views expressed through a Texas politician, personal friend of the temporary occupant of the White House, a man who has never held any public office and who has never taken the oath to support and defend the constitution, as required by every regularly-appointed ambassador at foreign courts.

England and France have sent their best men, in Lloyd George and Clemenceau, says the statement and continues: "Let us contemplate history. The War of the Revolution ended in 1783 by the treaty of Paris. Our representatives at the peace conference were John Jay, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and Henry Laurens. Comment is superfluous.

"In 1793 the United States was having difficulties with France which were in imminent danger of leading to war. President Adams sent to Paris a commission of three, John Marshall, Elbridge Gerry and Charles C. Pinckney. Again, comparisons with the present situation are vain.

TURKEY MUST OPEN PORTS TO ENEMY VESSELS

Immediate Demobilization of Ottoman Army One of the Terms of Armistice

London, Nov. 2.—The terms of the armistice granted by the allied powers to Turkey follow:

First: The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus to all Allied war vessels. Second: Maintenance of all mine fields, torpedo tubes and other obstructions in Turkish waters to be removed. Third: Information concerning mines in the Black Sea is to be communicated.

Fourth: All Allied prisoners of war and interned persons are to be collected in Constantinople and handed over unconditionally to the Allies. Fifth: Immediate demobilization of the Turkish army except such troops as are required for surveillance on the frontiers.

Sixth: The number of effectives and their disposition to be determined by the Allies after consultation with the Turkish government.

Seventh: The surrender of all war vessels in Turkish waters of water occupied by Turkey. These vessels are to be placed in the Turkish port or ports as may be directed, except such small vessels as may be required for police and similar purposes in Turkish territorial waters.

Eighth: The Allies have the right to occupy any strategic points in the event of any situation arising which threatens the security of the Allies.

Ninth: Free use by Allied ships of all ports and anchorages in Turkish waters, and denial of their use by the enemy. Similar conditions are to apply to Turkish merchant shipping for the purpose of trade and the demobilization of the Turkish navy.

Tenth: Allied occupation of the Taurus tunnel system.

Eleventh: Immediate withdrawal of Turkish troops from northern Persia to behind the pre-war frontier, all guard posts to be closed and will be carried out.

Twelfth: A part of Transcaucasia already has been ordered to be evacuated and the remainder to be evacuated if required for the security of the Allies.

Thirteenth: Wireless, telegraph and cable stations to be controlled by the Allies. Turkish government messages to be intercepted.

Fourteenth: Facilities are to be provided for the shipment of coal, oil fuel and naval material from Turkish sources after the regular ports of the country have been met. None of the above materials are to be exported.

Fifteenth: The surrender of all Turkish officers in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica to the nearest Italian garrisons. The Italian army agrees to stop supplies and communication with these officers if they do not obey the order to surrender.

Sixteenth: The surrender of all Italian, Greek, Russian, and other allied troops and personnel in Turkish territory, except those necessary to maintain order as will be determined under clause 6.

Seventeenth: The use of all ships and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and anchorages.

Eighteenth: The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica, including Misirata, to the nearest Allied garrison.

Nineteenth: All Germans and Austrians, including their civilians, to be evacuated within the month from Turkish dominions, and from the districts as soon as after that time as may be possible.

Twentieth: Compliance with such orders as may be conveyed for the disposal of equipment, arms and ammunition, including the Turkish armaments.

Twenty-first: An Allied representative to be appointed to the Turkish side to safeguard Allied interests. This representative is to be furnished with all necessary information.

Twenty-second: Turkish prisoners of war are to be released by the Allies powers. The release of Turkish civilian prisoners is to be considered.

Twenty-third: An obligation on the part of Turkey for the Allied powers. In case of emergency the Allies reserve the right to occupy any part of the country.

Twenty-fourth: Allied troops are to be evacuated from Turkey and cease from local, local time, Thursday, the 31st of October, 1918.

CUTTING THE TURK SUPPLY LINE

Advancing 185 miles north of Damascus, the British forces under General Murray, have occupied the Hedjaz and Berlin to Bagdad railways, cutting off supplies for the Turkish armies in Mesopotamia. The solid line indicates the new battle position.

DR. HARRIS OUT FOR MR. SPROUL

Anti-Liquor Chieftain Speaks in Behalf of the Senator From Delaware County

Dr. John Royal Harris, state superintendent of the Dry Federation of Pennsylvania, issued a statement to-night in which he urges the dry voters to elect Mr. Sprουλ and to oppose the liquor interests.

"Now is the time for all good men to get behind Mr. Sprουλ and to oppose the liquor interests," said Harris.

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

"The liquor interests are the only ones who have not been organized to support the liquor interests."

TAFT CALLS ON NATION TO ELECT PARTY CONGRESS

Republicans Best Qualified to Determine Problems Following World Peace

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 2.—Former President William H. Taft, in an address here, called upon the people to elect a Republican Congress next Tuesday.

"That Congress will begin to exercise its power on the fourth of March, 1919," said Mr. Taft, "and will have to face the most difficult of the most important issues this country has ever had in its history."

The Germans for fifty years have spent their time in creating a magnificent military machine, and while all can see the handwriting on the wall there still is formidable resistance to be overcome.

"This war has not been fought by the United States alone, it has been fought by the Secretary of War only. It has not been fought by our armies in the field alone."

"Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value."

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

"The proclamation is as follows: 'Whereas, this is the season of forest fires, where irreparable loss may result from carelessness or negligence with reference to fire, the Commonwealth has in its own right more than one million acres of forest lands, and the acreage is constantly growing in size and in value.'"

Test of Representative Worth

Having Served all the People With Fidelity, Congressman Focht Calls For the Support of All Parties

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30, 1918.

To the Voters of the 17th Congressional District: The whole country is discussing the partisan action during this war time of the President, who has called for the election of Democrats to Congress as the only fit men to support the Government now and during the vital reconstruction period.

Fully concurring in the universal expressions of disapproval at this gross impropriety on the part of the Chief Executive, who should be President of the whole country and have faith in the patriotism of Republicans who have supported all war measures, and not descend to partisanship when all the people are helping win the war, no force or factor opposed to me can point to a single act while serving as your representative that will disclose other than the sacred discharge of my duty and helplessness to ALL THE PEOPLE of my district, REGARDLESS OF POLITICS.

Every man, woman and child, no matter of what creed, color or political adherence, has had PROMPT RESPONSE from me to EVERY CALL with the best results my extended legislative experience could produce.

These responsive things I have done and will continue to do for all who seek help or guidance in matters falling under my jurisdiction, although all well know, I AM AN AVOWED, DECLARED AND DEPENDABLE REPUBLICAN in my advocacy of protection and every economic principle that will safeguard our industries, the laboring men and women, and that will add to the encouragement of our great agricultural enterprises.

Notwithstanding the unworthy allusions made to me by my opponent on the Democratic ticket in his card of announcement, when he ascribed to me "MEAN PARTISANSHIP AND NARROWNESS OF SOUL," I would not stoop to anything so ignoble as making personal allusions to him. The issues now involved in the election of Congressmen this year reach far beyond the personal ambition of any individual, and take in every hope within the heart of the soldier, the Patriotic Societies of which I am a member, the working man, the farmer and every branch of business and industry.

Nevertheless, it might be timely, since we are sacrificing so much for "world democracy" and "the consent of the governed," to suggest that my place on the Republican ticket was secured by an expression of the will of the people at the ballot box in a POPULAR PRIMARY ELECTION, and by a most decisive if not sweeping majority. On the other hand, the most "worthy Democrat who was regularly nominated by the voters of his party of the 17th Congressional district, WAS FORCED TO WITHDRAW, and was supplanted by the Democrat now opposing me, who was "appointed" a candidate by a coterie of Democratic bosses and job holders headed by two of these rulers of fat jobs, Palmer and McCormick, while not one of the twelve members of the committee making the appointment lives in the 17th Congressional district! Therefore, since the Democrats of the district had nothing to do with choosing the "appointee" they are now called upon to vote for, they would seem to be under no obligation so far as party regularity is concerned to support him, any more than Republicans would be obligated to support me had I been a hand-picked candidate by factional bosses residing outside of the district.

The Democratic candidates for Congress can not find anything commendable in my vote for war after the President had failed to "keep us out of war," and for one hundred and more measures in support of the Government during the war. He is such a warrior that one would have looked for him to have enlisted long before the war entered its last stages, but he continues to be long on war talk and short on enlistment. Our opposing friend is, however, quite a passionate volunteer for office, since he now holds one place with two years to serve, yet wants still another job just to show that Focht IS A PARTISAN WITH A NARROW SOUL." His attitude in avoiding our proposal that he enlist reminds me of the chap who was apparently eager for a fist fight, but when things looked dangerous and friends remonstrated, he exclaimed with much heroism, "One of you will do to hold me, but two of you had better hold the other fellow." My only son, Brown Focht, now 14 years of age, has written me to get him into the aircraft division of the military service, and if the war should continue a while longer, he might take my opponent's place, or possibly that of Vance McCormick, the editor of the Harrisburg Patriot, another job holder and talking warrior who has not been seen rushing to the front. I am sure my boy would fight our enemies instead of black-guarding his neighbors in an attempt to counterfeit his way into Congress on the war record of other boys and the ludicrous plea that the only patriots in this country are Democrats.

Having served you all FAITHFULLY AND TIRELESSLY throughout my incumbency here, and particularly during this great war period, with no question ever asked as to the POLITICS OF THE MANY I HELP EVERY DAY, I trust that on election day, November 5th, 1918, there may be a response from the voters of all parties that will be a reciprocal expression of confidence and good will WHICH I FEEL TOWARD ALL THE PEOPLE OF THE 17TH DISTRICT.

I will have but little time to get out among the people this fall on account of so many demands upon me here in performing my official work, nor do I believe you expect me to pay any attention to the ELEVENTH HOUR DEFAMATORY AND UNTRUTHFUL circulars being put out against me by my opponent. This is a cheap, worn-out and effete method of campaigning, and never made a vote when employed 50 years ago by the highlanders. You know me, you know my work for you and your friends, and you know what I look like, so you will not see my picture in conspicuous places, while out of respect for the dignity of the position you have given me, I must decline to engage in any mud-slinging with my opponent and the Democratic editors of the district, nearly all of whom hold Post Offices or other Government positions to the exclusion of many Democrats quite as worthy and capable but who were ignored by the Democratic bosses.

With the assurance that with your helpfulness MY DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE in Washington FOR ALL THE PEOPLE will continue unabated and unabridged, I am Faithfully yours, BENJAMIN K. FOCHT

FAALTERING CITIZEN, FULL OF BOOZE, HELD SECRET

He was completely drunk and it is possible to be without going down. Where he got it he wouldn't say. At any rate, he staggered painfully in Court street just before noon hour.

"What would be the comment of Franklin, Jefferson, Marshall, the two Presidents Adams, and the rest, could they behold the spectacle? They would lift up their hands in fervent supplication to the Lord to extend His divine protection over their great Republic in its hour of peril."

"A COTTON BELT CANDIDATE"

Philadelphia 'North American' Believes Leiby Would Be Easily Handled By Southern Democrats, Who Fix a Low Price For Wheat But Boost Cotton to the Sky—Congressman Focht Has Always Stood By the Farmers

From the Phila. "North American," October 20. Opponents of Congressman "Benny" Focht, who would like to see him defeated, are not at all pleased with the selection made by the Democratic State Committee's executive committee and they say that Senator Scott Leiby would be little improvement on Focht, as far as representation at Washington is concerned.

Senator Leiby is one of the most faithful of the Palmer-McCormick "me too" Democrats. He is belted, so that the Palmer-McCormick state committee and Secretary Warren VanDyke can locate him at any time. If he were to go to Washington he would likely be every bit as easily handled as though he were from the cotton belt, but wouldn't be able to get nearly so much for his constituency as the cotton belt statesmen.

As a State Senator, Leiby's chief claim to distinction lay in the fact that he voted dry when occasion arose to vote wet or dry and that he was one of the very few McCormick-Palmer Democrats in the Senate. He began his campaign against Focht a couple of weeks ago by declaring that Focht had no patriotic record. To this Focht retorted that Leiby seems to have no military medals, and that the Army is in need of men such as Leiby asserts he is. Focht suggested that Leiby enlist. Leiby had no reply to make, at least not in the paid advertisements.

Thousands of foresters are now busy in the Pennsylvania woods cutting and cutting the wood, which comes from dead wood and refuse in the forest. The fine trees of which the branch are so proud are not being cut.

With Choir and Organist

A writer pays tribute to the hymn compositions of Irvin J. Morgan, many of which appear in the Episcopal and Presbyterian hymnals. Among the best known are his settings of "As Pants the Heart," appearing under the caption, "Cooling Streams;" "Bishop Mann's magnificent poem, 'Morgan,' seems to have given the composer heightened inspiration, for its rendition thrills and helps all congregations who hear it. The writer points out that it is singular none of the Morgan compositions appear in the Methodist Episcopal hymnal, which contains such compositions as the sublime 'Marlybone' and others of prime merit.

An incident showing the forward heart of the volunteer choir singers occurred not long ago at a weekly rehearsal of the solo choir at the Harrisburg Conservatory of Music. It was here soloists and choir leaders opened their minds on the volunteer choir question. One of the leaders asked another how his choir work was progressing. "Rotten," blurted out the discouraged chorister. "I can't get the singers out to rehearsal. They're always doing something in the way, something more diverting, even though it be not so up-lifting, to keep the singers out of the choir loft on rehearsal night." And this leads to the conclusion that there is but one solution of the choir problem, and that is to pay good coin to compel singers to serve as a business proposition.

With the enrollment of 422 more voters in the city who could not appear before the registrars on the three fall registration days because of illness or absence from the city, the total number of men on the lists now who can ballot next Tuesday reached 12,450.

According to officials, this is just about 1,000 less than last year, and considering the large number of men in Army service, indicates the widespread interest in the elections. With fair weather and active campaigning by local candidates for the Legislature a big vote may be polled, it was predicted.

Election supplies and ballots for all county districts have been sent to the various boards and in the city will be distributed on Monday. More than 100 voters commissioners during the morning and the last application for registration on Tuesday morning, the registration places were closed.

Because of the death of Samuel Loudmire, majority inspector of elections, the first precinct of Swatara township, Ira A. August was appointed to the place. William Durbin was named as assessor for the North precinct. Susquehanna township, by the county commissioners to succeed J. Spangler, resigned.

Yankee Fighters Are to Be Kept Warm on War Front in France

With the American Army in France, Nov. 2.—American fighting men at the front are to be kept warm this winter. The forestry section of the American Expeditionary Force has promised to deliver on the road ready to be hauled to the men at the front before January 1, 100,000 cubic meters of fuel wood. This is equivalent to a pile of wood a yard wide and a yard high stretching from Paris to Berlin.

Thousands of foresters are now busy in the Pennsylvania woods cutting and cutting the wood, which comes from dead wood and refuse in the forest. The fine trees of which the branch are so proud are not being cut.

RULING ON EXPENSES

An opinion has been given by the Attorney General's Department to the Blossburg State Hospital board that it must look to dependants of a workman for payment of expenses of an operation performed after he had been taken to a hospital by his employer, do hereby call upon all people to co-operate fully and constantly with the State Department of Forestry and other legally constituted forces to suppress all fires out of doors, especially in proximity to our growing reaches of forest lands. Let all hunters be careful not to carry fire or in giving accurate information against those that violate the game laws of Pennsylvania. There are among all citizens a quickening love for safety and a resolute purpose to make Pennsylvania forests safe and increasingly beautiful.

A few singers met informally a few Sundays ago to discuss mutual friend. All were members of choirs. "I don't feel at home with the churches closed," said one. "I tell you, you certainly miss the Sunday anthems and choruses when the churches are closed," said another. "Well," replied the third, "there is one consolation. The people will have forgotten the church songs they have sung, and it will be little trouble to brush up on musical numbers that have had recent rendition when, finally, the churches reopen. Furthermore, we are all having a chance to show who escaped the flu to prepare new vacancies in city choirs are likely to increase if General Crowder keeps on calling the men to war. They're badly shot to pieces, now," said a choir leader to-day, adding, "the women are always willing to come to the rescue if further defections bring about a crisis."

Publishers are sending out Christmas music prospectuses. G. Schirmer, probably the biggest publisher in the country, has offered the usual programs incident to the festival. These include lists of numbers for all denominations, although the music is intended for liturgical services predominate. As usual, the Barnby, Shelly, Hecker, Field and Sullivan compositions get a leading place. The Shelly transcription of "Hark! Hark! My Soul," is set apart as one of the best numbers for the festival.

County Bar to Meet

Members of the Dauphin county bar have been notified that a meeting will be held November 14 to receive the report of the board of censors in connection with the Harry M. Bretz fisherman proceeding. No special action has been taken by the attorneys yet, but it is believed a decision will be made at the meeting. The report of the board of censors was prepared for presentation October 11, but because of the epidemic of influenza no meeting on action could be taken at that time.

Cumberland County Voters!

Surely You Will Cast Your Vote for TUESDAY, November 5 Your Bone-Dry Candidate

For the GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Ross L. Beckley on the Republican Ticket

THE DRY CANDIDATE BELIEVES IN— 1st—The Ratification of the Prohibition Amendment. 2nd—The Conservation of Food. 3rd—The Conservation of Coal. 4th—The Conservation of Man Power. 5th—The Protection of Women and Children. 6th—The Fostering of Patriotism. 7th—The Establishment of Liberty.

VOTE FOR

Dr. G. W. Hartman

Candidate For the Legislature

Voters, especially those who are voting "dry" for the first time, are reminded that ratification will not result in the prevention of legitimate uses as in the case of alcohol. It is the people of 2,542 counties of the United States out of a total of 2,988 have given up the use of alcohol as a beverage, and thereby gained much by increased church attendance, improved morals, and public health betterment.

Ratification is Rational, Reasonable and Reliable, and has for its reward Respectability and Righteousness.

Cumberland County Voters!

Surely You Will Cast Your Vote for TUESDAY, November 5 Your Bone-Dry Candidate

For the GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Ross L. Beckley on the Republican Ticket

THE DRY CANDIDATE BELIEVES IN— 1st—The Ratification of the Prohibition Amendment. 2nd—The Conservation of Food. 3rd—The Conservation of Coal. 4th—The Conservation of Man Power. 5th—The Protection of Women and Children. 6th—The Fostering of Patriotism. 7th—The Establishment of Liberty.