

WEEK NOV. 10-16 SET FOR PRAYER

Y. M. C. A. Asks For Support of Soldiers and United War Work

In an announcement by Arthur D. Bacon, president of the Central Y. M. C. A., last night, it was announced that the week of November 10-16 will be a week of prayer, when everybody will be asked to join in daily prayer for the men in the army, in prison camps, and for the success of the United War Work campaign.

The week of prayer for young men for the year 1918 falls within a spacious, momentous and fateful time. Truly we are living in great days; great in upheaval and overturning, for literally old things are passing away and all things are becoming new; great in adventure and constructive achievement; great in sacrifice and suffering, for see the millions of our bravest and our noblest sons, and the countless sorrow-stricken and anxious homes; great in the discovery and releasing of men's latent capacities for heroism and noble devotion; great in the challenges summoning men to enter with wide plans and God-touching spirits into new and better days.

Such days call for men, and call for men at their best. They must be men of comprehension, that they may have understanding of their times. They must be men of the finest loyalties—loyalty to the principles and loyalty to our Divine Lord and His undying cause—that they may not miss the way, and that they may indeed be true leaders. They must be men of contagious characters and with a passion for helpfulness. To furnish such indispensable men, and likewise to secure foundation for such manhood—Christlike boyhood, is the high mission of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Times like these not only demand all that is best in man but also call us to prayer that the power of the living God may be manifested. The association movement, like everything else in these days, is being tried by fire. Our dangers are so many and so grave, our tasks so greatly exceed our powers, and our opportunities so far transcend our visible resources, that nothing short of a fresh and wonderful accession of superhuman wisdom and might will suffice. Therefore, let us during the days of November 10th to 16th give ourselves to prayer and likewise call on our entire brotherhood and its multitude of friends to pray.

Among the objects of prayer which you are asked to concentrate your interest on are the following: "1. For the men of our Army and Navy and the Allied forces, that they may win the war, and that they may do so without losing their own soul. "2. For all who suffer in hospitals or who languish in prisoner-of-war camps that they may be given patience to endure and that they may be restored to their homes. "3. For the work of the association on behalf of the soldiers and sailors that it may become increasingly efficient and fruitful in spiritual results. "4. That the home work and the foreign work of the American and Canadian associations may not only meet the present war demands but also be prepared for the far greater responsibilities of the periods of demobilization. "5. That leaders may be raised up capable of meeting the unparalleled opportunities which are to crown the coming days.

For the United War Work Campaign, that it may call forth the united, generous and sacrificial support of the entire American people. "Without sacrificing convictions and without compromising our distinctive character, let every member of the Y. M. C. A. for the sake of the boys in uniform at home and abroad, on land or on sea or in the air, and use the countless new contacts and the wider fellowship into which the President has called us, as an unprecedented opportunity to witness, to cooperate and to serve."

Russell W. Balsbaugh Wounded in Action

A telegram from the War Department received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balsbaugh, Harrisburg R. F. D. 1, stated that their son Russell W. Balsbaugh, had been slightly wounded in action. No word has come from Private Balsbaugh, who enlisted, June, 1917, in the Eighth Pennsylvania National Guard. He was later transferred to Company D, 10th Infantry. He sailed for France last May.

New Courses Planned at Harrisburg Academy Special courses are being planned at the Harrisburg Academy to meet the needs of boys who will require special and private instruction to make up the losses due to the closing of the schools by the health authorities. It is the intent to arrange for additional small classes to provide for the needs of boys who are back in their work, or of those who may not be able to maintain the more rapid pace which schools will in general be obliged to enforce. Work will be resumed at the Academy as soon as the local health department allows.

COLLEGE STUDENTS CALLED TO U. S. TRAINING CAMP Six members of the Army Student Training Corps, of Franklin and Marshall College, one of them from this city, one from Quarryville and four from Lancaster, have been selected to enter Officers' Training camps, and will leave the Lancaster college about the middle of November to start their new work. They are: Louis Skyles May, Harrisburg; R. Raub, Quarryville; E. C. Jones, Henry, Pa.; Henry Marshall and Byron A. Brand, Lancaster. The selection of these men to train for officers was made by Lieutenant Dornier, commandant at Franklin and Marshall, because of the fine work they have done. Louis May is the son of the Rev. Homer Skyles May, pastor of the Fourth Reformed Church, this city. He was just recently promoted to corporal.

Students to Aid in Big United War Campaign

Plans for the student campaign in the United War work drive within the ten counties comprising the Sixth Pennsylvania district, were outlined at a conference held at the Y. M. C. A. building in this city to-day.

Dr. William A. Granville, president of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, is chairman of the district committee in charge of this end of the drive. Dr. Granville, addressing the various county representatives, declared that students in the colleges of the ten counties can be counted upon to do their bit in providing funds for the soldier and sailor or welfare work because so many of the young men may soon be on the fighting fronts themselves. The khaki soldiers of the colleges are included in the drive.

George M. Kirk and Miss Helen Adlar, of Philadelphia, state student executive secretaries, outlined the organization plans for the student campaign. There will be committees of workers made up of faculty members and students within each college and institution of learning. By agreement any contributions made by faculty members will be credited to the student division. Whatever sums are raised by the respective colleges will be credited to the county in which they are located.

Admiral Beatty, of the British navy, according to reports received here, has been quoted as saying that he was certain that the German fleet would come out from its refuge for battle. The German fleet, according to these reports must come out within the next month or delay its operations until spring. If the whole German fleet should make a dash it would mean approximately 2,000 or 3,000 ships would be engaged in the greatest sea battle of history.

RECOVERERS FROM PNEUMONIA Shellville, Nov. 2.—Miss Ellen Moyer, who returned home from the Lebanon Sanatorium, is slowly recovering from an attack of plural pneumonia, following influenza.

German Fleet Expected to Come Out Soon

ADMIRAL BEATTY.

The German high seas fleet is expected to dash out momentarily by British and American naval officers. Admiral Beatty, of the British navy, according to reports received here, has been quoted as saying that he was certain that the German fleet would come out from its refuge for battle. The German fleet, according to these reports must come out within the next month or delay its operations until spring. If the whole German fleet should make a dash it would mean approximately 2,000 or 3,000 ships would be engaged in the greatest sea battle of history.
